

Intellectual Property Protection and Its Importance

✓ Exclusively available on IvyPanda

The need to strengthen intellectual property protection is a mandatory initiative in the era of globalization and market competition. Failure to protect original products from theft and copying creates a precedent base and encourages the use of other people's work freely. Moreover, while taking into account a modern customer-centric approach that many organizations follow, the risk of theft of individual developments entails direct losses caused by the leakage of target customers. Strengthening intellectual property protection is imperative to preserve fairness and stimulate creativity, and the purpose of this paper is to provide the key reasons and examples regarding the importance of preventive measures.

Strengthening intellectual property is an essential aspect of maintaining fairness and stimulating creativity. By establishing individual production modes and unique marketing steps, companies create individual images that distinguish them from competitors and enhance brand value. For instance, the development of medicines by pharmaceutical companies is a sought-after practice, and in such businesses, individual manufacturing approaches are promoted (Tanning, 2022). At the same time, if the activity benefits a large number of people, for example, in the fight against pandemics, the use of other people's ideas can be allowed. However, one cannot draw a parallel between the complete copying of production technologies and the borrowing of individual ideas (Carrington, 2021). Activities for the benefit of consumers are a mitigating factor, but if the principle of operation does not differ from that of competitors, this is a reason to turn to supervise boards for conflict resolution. Therefore, intellectual property has the right to be protected to stimulate creative activities.

Creating conditions for the protection of intellectual development is an important and in-demand initiative. Without an opportunity to rely on the protection of original digital content or tangible goods, authors and manufacturers lose their entrepreneurial goals and cannot operate to their full potential. Photographers posting their shots want to be sure that their creative products are their own cultural creations, which is natural (Tanning, 2022). At the same time, when speaking of creativity, this is challenging to achieve absolute distinctions in the works of different authors because thoughts and
