The Miracle of Connecticut Ellsworth S. Grant,1992-01-01      Hidden History of Litchfield County Peter C. Vermilyea,2014-11-04 Local historian Peter C Vermilyea tells stories of some forgotten moments in Litchfield County CT from Native American legends to Cold War relics Traces of Litchfield County s past are hidden in plain sight Vestiges of long abandoned railroad tracks crisscross the county while a decaying and unmarked cinder block structure in Warren is all that remains of a cornerstone of national defense All but forgotten today a fire roared through Winsted in 1908 causing residents to flee their rooms at the Odd Fellows boardinghouse In Bantam art deco chairs made by the Warren McArthur Corporation prompted the War Department to order bomber seats from the company during World War II Author Peter C Vermilyea explores these and other obscure tales from the history of Litchfield County Connecticut      The Connecticut Historical Society Bulletin ,1994      Water for Hartford Kevin Murphy,2012-06-01 How three men brought clean water to Hartford on a massive scale As good health is inextricably wedded to pure drinking water and this particular concern looms larger every day understanding delivery systems is almost as important as the water itself Water for Hartford chronicles the century long effort beginning in the 1850s to construct a viable efficient water system The story of Hartford s water works is a fascinating one for it recalls the hard work great sacrifice and extraordinary engineering feats necessary to deliver wholesome drinking water to a growing urban center It also illuminates the ever changing social political and economic milieu in which it was built The story of its construction is also the story of three men Hiram Bissell Ezra Clark and Caleb Saville Readers are transported back in time and given a firsthand glimpse of what these champions of a water system faced on a daily basis unforgiving geography venal politicians and an often indifferent public The book culminates in the exhilaration of having built a water works from scratch to deliver clean safe drinking water to the masses Water for Hartford is a human story peopled by men of vision and achievement who understood that their decisions and actions would affect millions of people for decades to come      Wicked Litchfield County Peter C. Vermilyea,2016-07-18 Thieves rumrunners and rascallions all color the unsavory side of Litchfield County history Townspeople accused women of witchcraft simply for not bearing enough children in the early days of the region During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Owen Sullivan and William Stuart took advantage of the county s isolated stretches and a currency shortage to build counterfeiting empires In 1780 Barnett Davenport s brutal actions earned him infamy as the nation s first mass murderer Small time speakeasies slowly took hold and the omnipresence of alcohol fueled crime led to the birth of the nationwide prohibition movement Local historian Peter C Vermilyea explores these and other devilish tales from the seedier history of Litchfield County      Connecticut's Fife and Drum Tradition James Clark,2012-01-01 The state of Connecticut boasts an extensive and active community of fife and drum groups This musical tradition has its origins in the small military bands maintained by standing armies in Britain and Europe in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the drum was especially important as it helped officers train soldiers how to march and was also used to communicate with troops across battlefields Today fifers and drummers gather at conventions called musters which may include a parade and concerts featuring the various participating corps According to the Guinness Book of World Records the largest muster ever was held in Deep River Connecticut in 1976 Musician and historian James Clark is the first to detail the colorful history of this unique music This engaging book leads the reader through the history of the individual instruments and tells the story of this classic folk tradition through anecdotes biographies photographs and musical examples
