Ecocritical Perspectives on Children's Texts and Cultures Nina Goga, Lykke Guanio-Uluru, Bjørg Oddrun Hallås, Aslaug Nyrnes, 2018-06-11 This volume presents key contributions to the study of ecocriticism in Nordic children's and YA literary and cultural texts in dialogue with international classics It investigates the extent to which texts for children and young adults reflect current environmental concerns The chapters are grouped into five thematic areas Ethics and Aesthetics Landscape Vegetal Animal and Human and together they explore Nordic representations and a Nordic conception or feeling of nature The textual analyses are complemented with the lived experiences of outdoor learning practices in preschools and schools captured through children's own statements The volume highlights the growing influence of posthumanist theory and the continuing traces of anthropocentric concerns within contemporary children's literature and culture and a non dualistic understanding of nature culture interaction is reflected in the conceptual tool of the volume The Nature in Culture Matrix

The Essex and the Whale R. D. Madison, 2016-03-28 This fascinating anthology introduces readers to the literary side of Herman Melville's whaling world with an unprecedented collection of the original whaling texts from which Melville drew to create his masterpiece Moby Dick The notorious 1820 sinking of the whaleship Essex inspired Herman Melville's Moby Dick as recounted in Nathaniel Philbrick's bestselling book In the Heart of the Sea The Tragedy of the Whaleship Essex now a major motion picture But how exactly did Melville transmute the historic tragedy of the Essex into what is arguably the Great American Novel Here for the first time R D Madison collects together Melville's personal library of whaling and whale lore into a single volume and presents these primary sources in a way that readers can readily see how a horrific whaling tragedy became a literary masterpiece But where did Moby Dick begin Prompted by sailor author Richard Henry Dana Jr Melville supplemented his own firsthand experience as a whaler in the South Pacific with libraries of books that he swum through to create his whaling masterpiece Scholars and lay readers alike have long wondered how he did it and over the past 60 years a very tight theory of inspiration and creation has emerged It is very likely wrong This volume gathers together for the first time all of the main texts that Melville encountered including the accounts of the unique sinking of the Essex by a sperm whale that provided the climax for Moby Dick Melville scholar R D Madison examines what critics have said about Melville's response to the sinking and offers the challenging thesis that Melville did not even begin the book at all until spurred on by Dana in the spring of 1850

Cedar Birds David McGehee, 2017-08-31 Cedar Birds is a fictional work that ordains the beliefs of the coastal Carolina Indian through their worship of the spirits their connection with and nurturing of all that lives These beliefs and behaviors are compared with the brutal killing of the docile right whales by the white man and his destructive selfish domination of and exploitation of the earth in general For example the whale is killed for nothing more than the melting down of the huge carcass to render oil to fuel their lanterns But darkness always returns Cedar Birds reveals its magic through the eyes and voice of the sensitive coastal boy Davey He also appears as a changed man who years later returns to his coastal home town after the horrors and his losses in Vietnam Killing of any kind whether of whales or of other humans makes him ponder the mystical wisdom and spiritualistic practices of the shaman Davey eventually comes to understand that he is of the Coree shaman bloodline his extraordinary senses and instincts were responsible for saving him in Vietnam The mystical connection with the spirits also delivers him from his deadly drug addiction and gives him the power to save others Davey visits the site of the old Indian village Cwarioc His senses have told him that the shaman has died He comes to open the portal through which the shamans spirit is to be delivered to the ancients where he becomes one of the faces in the wind into the mystic But will the spirit be delivered Have we killed it all or can the spirits bring the healing Has the last whale died Is this the beginning or the ending Will the ending become the beginning
