Lane-Poole,2020-09-28 THE history of Spain offers us a melancholy contrast Twelve hundred years ago Tarik the Moor added the land of the Visigoths to the long catalogue of kingdoms subdued by the Moslems For nearly eight centuries under her Mohammedan rulers Spain set to all Europe a shining example of a civilized and enlightened State Her fertile provinces rendered doubly prolific by the industry and engineering skill of her conquerors bore fruit an hundredfold Cities innumerable sprang up in the rich valleys of the Guadalquivir and the Guadiana whose names and names only still commemorate the vanished glories of their past Art literature and science prospered as they then prospered nowhere else in Europe Students flocked from France and Germany and England to drink from the fountain of learning which flowed only in the cities of the Moors The surgeons and doctors of Andalusia were in the van of science women were encouraged to devote themselves to serious study and the lady doctor was not unknown among the people of Cordova Mathematics astronomy and botany history philosophy and jurisprudence were to be mastered in Spain and Spain alone The practical work of the field the scientific methods of irrigation the arts of fortification and shipbuilding the highest and most elaborate products of the loom the graver and the hammer the potter s wheel and the mason s trowel were brought to perfection by the Spanish Moors In the practice of war no less than in the arts of peace they long stood supreme Their fleets disputed the command of the Mediterranean with the Fatimites while their armies carried fire and sword through the Christian marches The Cid himself the national hero long fought on the Moorish side and in all save education was more than half a Moor Whatsoever makes a kingdom great and prosperous whatsoever tends to refinement and civilization was found in Moslem Spain The Story of the Moors in Spain

Stanley Lane-Poole,1886 Moor's Last Sigh Salman Rushdie,1997-01-01 Winner of England s prestigious Whitbread

Ward Rushdie's first novel in seven years is a peppery melange of genres a deliciously inventive family saga a subversive alternate history of modern India a fairy tale as inexhaustibly imagined as any in The Arabian Nights and a book of ideas on topics from art to ethnicity from religious fanaticism to the terrifying power of love Fiction after the Fatwa Madelena Gonzalez, 2021-11-22 Fiction after the Fatwa Salman Rushdie and the Charm of Catastrophe proposes for the first time an examination of what Rushdie has achieved as a writer since the fourteenth of February 1989 the date of the fatwa This study argues that his constant questioning of fictional form and the language used to articulate it have opened up new opportunities and further possibilities for writing in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Through close readings and intensive textual analysis arranged chronologically Fiction after the Fatwa provides a thought provoking reflection on the writer's achievements over the last thirteen years Aimed principally at academics and students but also of interest to the general reader it engages with the specific nature of the post fatwa fiction as it moves from the fairy tale world of Haroun and the Sea of Stories to the heartbreaking post realism of Fury Andalucia Andrew Edwards, Suzanne Edwards, 2016-09-23 Andalucia is the quintessence of Spain and yet historically and culturally it is surprisingly unlike the rest of the country Its literary history began to develop with the Romans and reached an early flowering when Arabic poets drew on centuries of literary tradition together with the landscapes and passions of Moorish Spain Later Prosper Mérimé Byron and Washington Irving forged legends of exotic southern Spain that persist to this day and Spanish writers themselves captured the rich tapestry of Andalusian culture from Cervantes Seville to the Córdoba of Baroque poet Luis de Góngora and Lorca's hidden Andalucia With the advent of the Civil War a new generation flocked to Andalucia and were inspired to write some of the twentieth century's most iconic works of literature from Hemingway's For Whom the Bell Tolls to Gerald Brenan's The Spanish Labyrinth and Laurie Lee's trilogy of books As vibrant and compelling as the region itself Andalucia A Literary Guide for Travellers illuminates the very soul of Spain Colonizer and Colonized, 2021-11-08 Over the last two decades the experiences of colonization and decolonization once safely relegated to the margins of what occupied students of history and literature have shifted into the latter's center of attention in the West as elsewhere This attention does not restrict itself to the historical dimension of colonization and decolonization but also focuses upon their impact upon the present for both colonizers and colonized The nearly fifty essays here gathered examine how literature now and in the past keeps and has kept alive the experiences both individual and collective of colonization and decolonization The contributors to this volume hail from the four corners of the earth East and West North and South The authors discussed range from international luminaries past and present such as Aphra Behn Racine Blaise Cendrars Salman Rushdie Graham Greene Derek Walcott Guimarães Rosa J M Coetzee Andrzej Brink and Assia Djebar to less known but certainly not lesser authors like Gioconda Belli Ren Depestre Amadou Kon Elisa Chimenti Sapho Arthur Nortje Es'kia Mphahlele Mark Behr Viktor Paskov Evelyn Wilwert and Leïla Houari Issues addressed include the role of travel writing in forging images of foreign lands for domestic consumption the reception and translation of Western classics in the East the impact of contemporary Chinese cinema upon both native and Western audiences and the use of Western generic novel conventions in modern Egyptian literature

Postcolonial Traumas Abigail Ward, 2015-10-12 This collection of essays explores some new possibilities for understanding postcolonial traumas It examines representations of both personal and collective traumas around the globe from Palestinian Caribbean African American South African Maltese Algerian Indian Australian and British writers directors and artists
