The Most Amazing Place:

Amazing Place Marianne Gingher, 2015-03-23 Some of us understand place in terms of family and community landscape or even the weather For others the idea of place becomes more distinct and particular the sound of someone humming while washing dishes the musical cadence of a mountain accent the smell of a tobacco field under the hot Piedmont sun Some of North Carolina s finest writers ruminate on the meaning of place in this collection of twenty one original essays untangling North Carolina s influence on their work exploring how the idea of place resonates with North Carolinians and illuminating why the state itself plays such a significant role in its own literature Authors from every region of North Carolina are represented from the Appalachians and the Piedmont to the Outer Banks and places in between Amazing Place showcases a mix of familiar favorites and newer voices expressing in their own words how North Carolina shapes the literature of its people Contributors include Rosecrans Baldwin Will Blythe Belle Boggs Fred Chappell Jan DeBlieu Pamela Duncan Clyde Edgerton Ben Fountain Marianne Gingher Judy Goldman Stephanie Elizondo Griest Randall Kenan Jill McCorkle Michael McFee Lydia Millet Robert Morgan Jenny Offill Michael Parker Bland Simpson Lee Smith Wells Tower and Monique Truong

The Last Karma Ankita Jain, 2015-01-07 I was never meant to be a writer but I had the desire to narrate a few incidents and that got the writer inside me working Before you start reading this story I would like to mention that this story is inspired by true events and the fictional changes that have been made are to protect the identity of the people involved However it has no relation whatsoever to anyone bearing the same name or names Becoming a writer from a person belonging to a core technical background wasnt that easy However there are stories that force you to pick up a pen so that people can learn a lesson even without living the same in their own lives All of us do something of our choice but not everyone is aware of the fact that commitment to see something through to completion is the essence of the efforts of a lot of people There are so many people who are responsible in ways big and small for this book being a reality today I couldnt have done it without the support I received from all those people who always played an important role in my life and I know they will always be there To each one of you I pay my humble and most heartfelt thanks

Shaping the Geography of Empire Katherine Clarke, 2018-05-31 This volume explores the spatial framework of Herodotus Histories the Greek historian s account of Persian imperialism in the sixth and fifth century BC and its culmination in a series of grand expeditions against Greece itself Focusing on his presentation of the natural world through careful geographical descriptions ranging from continents and river and mountain networks on a vast scale down to the local settings for individual episodes it also examines how these landscapes are charged with greater depth and resonance through Herodotus use of mythological associations and spatial parallels Man s interaction with and alteration of the physical world of the Histories adds another critical dimension to the meaning given to space in Herodotus work as his subjects own agency serves to transform their geography from a neutral backdrop into a resonant landscape with its own role to play in the narrative in turn reinforcing the placing of the protagonists along a spectrum of positive or negative characterizations The Persian imperial bid may thus be seen as a war on nature no less than on their intended subjects however as Herodotus reflects Greece itself is waiting in the wings with the potential to be no less abusive an imperial power Although the multi vocal nature of the narrative complicates whether we can identify a Herodotean world at all still less one in which moral judgements are consistently cast the fluid and complex web of spatial relationships revealed in discussion nevertheless allows focalization to be brought productively into play demonstrating how the world of the Histories may be viewed from multiple perspectives What emerges from the multiple worlds and world views that Herodotus creates in his narrative is the mutability of fortune that allows successive imperial powers to dominate as the exercise of political power is manifested both metaphorically and literally through control over the natural world the map of imperial geography is constantly in flux

Women s Lived Landscapes of War and Liberation in Mozambique Jonna Katto, 2019-11-11 This book tells the history of the changing gendered landscapes of northern Mozambique from the perspective of women who fought in the armed struggle for national independence diverting from the often told narrative of women in nationalist wars that emphasizes a linear plot of liberation Taking a novel approach in focusing on the body senses and landscape Jonna Katto through a study of the women ex combatants lived landscapes shows how their life trajectories unfold as nonlinear spatial histories This brings into focus the women s shifting and multilayered negotiations for personal space and belonging This book explores the life memories of the now aging female ex combatants in the province of Niassa in northern Mozambique looking at how the female ex combatants experiences of living in these northern landscapes have shaped their sense of socio spatial belonging and attachment It builds on the premise that individual embodied memory cannot be separated from social memory personal lives are culturally shaped Thus the book does not only tell the history of a small and rather unique group of women but also speaks about wider cultural histories of body landscape relations in northern Mozambique and especially changes in those relations Enriching our understanding of the gendered history of the liberation struggle in Mozambique and informing broader discussions on gender and nationalism this book will be of interest to students and scholars of African history especially the colonial and postcolonial history of Lusophone Africa as well as gender women s history and peace and conflict studies      The Most Beautiful Man in
