The Motif Of The Journey In Nineteenth Century Italian Literature:

The Motif of the Journey in Nineteenth-century Italian Literature Bruno Magliocchetti, Anthony Verna, 1994 The anthology will provide a comprehensive overview of the journey as a structuring metaphor as it parallels or anticipates the revolutionary social and cultural changes taking place at a crucial juncture in Italian and European history Silvia Ruffo Fiore University of South Florida The journey is one of the most enduring and complex themes in the literature of Western civilization These essays illustrate Italy's contribution to the history of the trope during a time when countries became increasingly interdependent and conscious of each other's cultures Taking into account the inconsistencies and contradictions of the metaphor of the journey they demonstrate that Italian authors of nineteenth century fiction poetry and essays expanded its creative potential and its core of moral and artistic significance The authors international specialists include the distinguished scholar M H Abrams who traces the most vital aspects of the journey motif in world literature from its biblical origins to this century This anthology will appeal to Italianists in general to specialists on Romanticism and to all students of European literature Contents Introduction Spiritual Travelers in Western Literature by M H Abrams Ugo Foscolo's Europe A Journey from the Sublime to Romantic Humor by Gustavo Costa The Italian Journey From James to Eliot to Browning by Eleanor Cook Giacomo Leopardi Journey from Illusions to Truth by G Singh Of Swallows and Farewells The Morality of Movement in Italian Literature of the Ottocento by Antonino Musumeci Italie Italies Typo Topologies of French Travel Accounts in the Nineteenth Century by Christian Bec The Significance of the Journey in Manzoni by S B Chandler Verga or The Impossible Journey by Romano Luperini The Journey in Ippolito Nievo's Narrative Typologies by Marinella Colummi Camerino Travel as Inspiration in Pascoli's Poetry by V R Giustiniani New and Traditional Forms of Nineteenth Century Travel Literature by Elvio Guagnini Bruno Magliocchetti is Senior Tutor in the Department of Italian Studies at the University of Toronto Anthony Verna is associate professor in the Department of Italian Studies at the University of Toronto He is the author of Grammatica applicata della lingua italiana and is the founder and editor of Rivista di studi italiani

Italian Literature in North America Canadian Society for Italian Studies, 1990 An Introduction to Leopardi's Canti Pamela Williams, 1997 There is a sense in which one might say as Leopardi did say about poetry that his poems are born of illusion yet what they register is a lament over its loss and a persistent rejection of all deception The Canti are conspicuously influenced by illusion but paradoxically dominated by a continual taking the measure as it were of truth of a human and cosmic reality which simply is what it is In generalising his convictions the poet does make a certain claim on our belief and he challenges us to take what he says seriously However the merit of the poems themselves is the full expression of those convictions it is this aspect that this Introduction addresses and not whether we should agree or disagree with Leopardi Its aim is to explain in order to help appreciate what is found on the page It is an analysis of the poems and an attempt to create a coherent and comprehensive structure for students in which nearly all the Canti can be considered from several points of view Travel and Identity: Studies in Literature, Culture and Language Jakub Lipski, 2018-02-19 This book presents a selection of research papers dealing with the notions of travel and identity in Anglophone literature and culture Collectively the chapters ponder such notions as self and other race centre and periphery thus shedding new light on a number of issues that are highly relevant in the context of the ongoing migration crisis The contributors employ a diverse range of theoretical standpoints from close reading to deconstruction from historically informed approaches to linguistic analysis and thus offer a nuanced panorama of these issues especially from the nineteenth century onwards Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars The Cambridge Introduction to Travel Writing Tim Youngs, 2013-05-27 Critics have long struggled to find a suitable category for travelogues From its ancient origins to the present day the travel narrative has borrowed elements from various genres from epic poetry to literary reportage in order to evoke distant cultures and exotic locales and sometimes those closer to hand Tim Youngs argues in this lucid and detailed Introduction that travel writing redefines the myriad genres it comprises and is best understood on its own terms To this end Youngs surveys some of the most celebrated travel literature from the medieval period until the present exploring themes such as the quest motif the traveler s inner journey postcolonial travel and issues of gender and sexuality The text culminates in a chapter on twenty first century travel writing and offers predictions about future trends in the genre making this Introduction an ideal guide for today s students teachers and travel writing enthusiasts Private Sphere to World Stage from Austen to Eliot Elizabeth Sabiston, 2017-11-30 Emily Dickinson s poem This is my letter to the World That never wrote to Me opens the Introduction which focuses on the near anonymity of nineteenth century women novelists Close readings of works by five British novelists Jane Austen Charlotte and Emily Bront Elizabeth Gaskell and George Eliot offer persuasive accounts of the ways in which women used stealth tactics to outmaneuver their detractors Chapters examine the hidden manifesto in Austen s works whose imaginative heroines defend women s writing the lasting impact of Jane Eyre with its modest heroine who takes up the pen to tell her own story even on male writers outside the English tradition Cathy s testament as the ghost text of Wuthering Heights and the shifting gender roles in Daniel Deronda with its silenced heroine and androgynous hero Though the focus is on British novelists the author's discussion of the Anglo American connections in the factory novels of Elizabeth Gaskell and the slavery writings of Harriet Beecher Stowe has particular relevance for its demonstration of how the move from the private to the public sphere enables and even compels the blurring of national and ethnic boundaries What emerges is a compelling argument for the relevance of these novelists to the emergence in our own time of hitherto silenced female voices around the globe

Imitations of the Self: Jiang Yan and Chinese Poetics Nicholas Morrow Williams, 2014-11-06
Imitations of the Self reevaluates the poetry of Jiang Yan 444 505 long underappreciated because of its pervasive reliance on allusion by emphasizing the self-conscious artistry of imitation In context of imitation poetry the popular genre of the Six Dynasties era Jiang's work can be seen as the culmination of central trends in Six Dynasties poetry His own life experiences are encoded in his poetry through an array of literary impersonations reframed in traditional literary forms that imbue them with renewed significance A close reading of Jiang Yan's poetry demonstrates the need to apply models of interpretation to Chinese poetry that do justice to the multiplicity of authorial self-representation

John Barth and Postmodernism Berndt Clavier, 2007 John Barth's eminence as a postmodernist is indisputable However much of the criticism dealing with his work is prompted by his own theories of exhaustion and subsequent replenishment leaving his writing relatively untouched by theories of postmodernism in general This book changes that by focusing on the relationship between Barth's aesthetic and the ideology critique of the historical avant-gardes which were the first to mobilize art against itself and its institutional practices and demands Examining Barth's metafictional parodies in the light of theories of space and subjectivity Clavier engages the question of ideology critique in postmodernism by offering the montage as a possible model for understanding Barth's fiction In such a light postmodernism may well be perceived as a mimesis of reality particularly a recognition of the collective nature of self and the world

Translating Travel Loredana Polezzi, 2017-03-02 Translating Travel examines the relationship between travel writing and translation asking what happens when books travel beyond the narrow confines of one genre one literary system and one culture The volume takes as its starting point the marginal position of contemporary Italian travel writing in the Italian literary system and proposes a comparative reading of originals and translations designed to highlight the varying reception of texts in different cultures Two main themes in the book are the affinity between the representations produced by travel and the practices of translation and the complex links between travel writing and genres such as ethnography journalism autobiography and fiction Individual chapters are devoted to Italian travellers' accounts of Tibet and their English translations the hybridization of journalism and travel writing in the works of Oriana Fallaci Italo Calvino's sublimation of travel writing in the stylized fiction of Le città invisibili and the complex network of literary references which marked the reception of Claudio Magris's Danubio in different cultures

Russia and Iran in the Great Game Elena Andreeva, 2007-06-11 This book provides a unique insight into the Russian explorers and officials in the nineteenth and early twentieth century who came into contact with Iran as a part of the Great Game

The Fourth

Dimension of a Poem: and Other Essays M. H. Abrams, 2012-09-03 A new collection of essays by the legendary literary scholar and critic In the year of his one hundredth birthday preeminent literary critic scholar and teacher M H Abrams brings us a collection of nine new and recent essays that challenge the reader to think about poetry in new ways In these essays three of them never before published Abrams engages afresh with pivotal figures in intellectual and literary history among them Kant Keats and Hazlitt The centerpiece of the volume is Abrams s eloquent and incisive essay The Fourth Dimension of a Poem on the pleasure of reading poems aloud accompanied by online recordings of Abrams s revelatory readings of poems such as William Wordsworth s Surprised by Joy Alfred Tennyson s Here Sleeps the Crimson Petal and Ernest Dowson s Cynara The collection begins with a foreword by Abrams s former student Harold Bloom Beyond the Traveller's Gaze

Giorgia Alù, 2008 This book offers a stimulating analysis of three non canonical texts in different genres written by British women who lived in Sicily in the second half of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth centuries These texts cover a series of crucial political events as well as social and cultural changes which affected the history of Sicily during the period in question all seen through the direct and indirect experiences of the authors The book offers a historical perspective on the late Victorian and Edwardian representations of post Unification Italy At the same time the author challenges current critical literature on travel writing which tends to analyse travel texts without making substantial distinction between works written during a brief visit to a foreign country and those produced during a long term or permanent residence The book adopts an interdisciplinary comparative approach The three texts are studied by looking at patterns of connection in other written and visual works produced during or after an experience in Italy By drawing on theories of travel writing genre and gender along with visual and cultural studies the author aims to verify how the three texts respond to being analysed as a distinct group and hence define the specific roles and functions of expatriate women s writing Beyond the Family Romance Maria

Truglio, 2007-01-01 Beyond the Family Romance explores parallels between Pascoli s work and such writers as Tarchetti Boito Poe and Invernizio The Fourth Dimension of a Poem M. H. Elaine Pigeon, 2013-11-05 Beginning with The Portrait of a Lady this book shows how in developing his unique form of realism James highlights the tragic consequences of his American heroine s Romantic imagination in particular her

Emersonian idealism In order to expose Emerson's blind spot a lacuna at the very centre of his New England Transcendentalism James draws on the Gothic effects of Nathaniel Hawthorne and Edgar Allan Poe thereby producing an intensification of Isabel Archer's psychological state and precipitating her awakening to a fuller heightened consciousness Thus Romanticism takes an aesthetic turn becoming distinctly Paterian and unleashing queer possibilities that are further developed in James's subsequent fiction This book follows the Paterian thread leading to The Author of Beltraffio and Thophile Gauthier and thereby establishing an important connection with French culture Drawing on James's famous analogy between the art of fiction and the art of the painter the book explores a possible link to the Impressionist painters associated with the literary circle Zola dominated It then turns to A New England Winter a tale about an American Impressionist painter and finds traces leading back to James's initiation pr miere The book closes with an exploration of the possible sources of Kate Croy's unspeakable father in The Wings of the Dove and proposes a possible intertext one that provides direct insight into the Victorian closet
