Making Waves, Revised and Expanded Geoffrey Nowell-Smith, 2013-06-20 The 1960s was famously the decade of sex drugs and rock n roll It was also a decade of revolution and counter revolution of the Cuban missile crisis of the American intervention in Vietnam of economic booms and the beginning of consumerism and the rebellion against it In Hollywood the genres which had held audiences captive in the 1940s and 50s musicals Westerns melodramas were losing their appeal and their great practitioners were approaching retirement The scene was therefore set for new cinemas to emerge to attract the young the discriminating the politically conscious and the sexually emancipated Making Waves Revised and Expanded is a sharp focused and brilliant survey of the innovative filmmaking of the 1960s placing it in its political economic cultural and aesthetic context capturing the distinctiveness of a decade which was great for the cinema and for the world at large Geoffrey Nowell Smith pays particular attention to a handful of the most remarkable talents Godard Antonioni Oshima that emerged during the period and helped to make it so special Nowell Smith updates his classic text with a focus on 1960s Japan and the burgeoning New York scene

Classic Movies The Best and the Worst Pictures to see! Films to avoid! John Howard Reid, 2015-03-03 Gathered in this large volume paperback are some of Hollywood's best loved and most famous movies In addition to the many film classics however the author has included a number of equally entertaining films that deserve to be better known Many of these movies are now available on DVD Full credits and detailed reviews are provided for over a hundred of these classic films Over two hundred more movies are represented by short reviews Many of the reviews contain DVD details Of course not all classic movies have surfaced on DVD to date but they are being issued at the rate of around forty a month If you love classic movies this book will provide an invaluable guide to some of the enjoyable films that are now available and also of course some of the disappointing films that you might wisely avoid

Film Noir Bruce Crowther, 2011-12-31 With the advent of the Second World War a new mood was discernible in film drama an atmosphere of disillusion and a sense of foreboding a dark quality that derived as much from the characters depicted as from the cinematographer's art These films among them such classics as Double Indemnity The Woman in the Window Touch of Evil and Sunset Boulevard emerged retrospectively as a genre in themselves when a French film critic referred to them collectively as film noir Bruce Crowther looks into noir's literary origins often in the novels of the so called hard boiled school typified by Raymond Chandler Dashiell Hammett and Cornell Woolrich and at how the material translated to the screen noting in particular influences from German expressionist films and the almost indispensable techniques of flashback and voice over narration He also assesses the contribution made by the players by actors such as Robert Mitchum Dick Powell Alan Ladd and John Garfield and actresses such as Barbara Stanwyck Elizabeth Scott Joan Crawford and Gloria Grahame together with a roll call of supporting players whose screen presence could lend almost any film the noir imprimatur Noir was in its heyday from 1945 to 1955 a time when paranoia and disillusion anxiety and violence could be said to have been part of the fabric of American and particularly Hollywood society yet its impact and its influence are with us still in films as diverse as The French Connection Chinatown and Body Heat This Book commemorates a special period in film making and a unique combination of talent resulting in a spectrum of films that are as welcome today on their small screen airings as they were when first shown in cinema
