Human Rights for Refugees and Other Marginalised Persons Devorah Wainer, 2023-08-07 This book provides a new framework for conducting qualitative research into Asylum Seeking Refugees based on Emmanuel Levinas ethic of the face to face encounter The methodology originates in the term Midrash a narrative form that exposes investigates searches It reconceptualises encounters between Asylum Seeking Refugees and those researching their experiences in a manner that moves beyond the possibility of Othering and the removal of voice that can characterise research into refugees This methodology allows a complex and rich multidimensional text with heterogeneity of voices experiences and subjects As a phenomenological method of research the internal phenomena of the researcher feeling intuition and personal perception are legitimate sites of knowledge and understanding and are not considered separate from the external objectively observable world While the researcher is not researching herself she is also not separate from the research field and data The Midrash methodology is an honest and explicit method of research designed to re invigorated the passion of academics and researchers

Examines Transcendentalism as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self consciously with questions of power Nathan Crick has crafted a new critical rhetorical history of American Transcendentalists that interprets a selection of their major works between the years 1821 and 1852 as political and ethical responses to the growing crises of their times In The Keys of Power Crick argues that one of the most enduring legacies of the Transcendentalist movement is the multifaceted understanding of transcendental eloquence as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self consciously with questions of power Crick examines the Transcendentalist understanding of how power is constituted in both th self and in society conceptualizing the relationships among technology nature language and identity critiquing the ethical responsibilities to oneself the other and the state and defining and ultimately praising the unique role that art action persuasion and ideas have in the transformation of the structure of political culture over historical time What is offered here is not a comprehensive genealogy of ideas a series of individual biographies or an effort at conceptual generalization but instead an exercise in narrative rhetorical theory and criticism that interprets some of the major specific writings and speeches by men and women associated with the Transcendentalist movement Sampson Reed Amos Bronson Alcott Orestes Brownson Ralph Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Henry David Thoreau and Frederick Douglass by placing them within a specific political and social history Rather than attempting to provide comprehensive overviews of the life and work of each of these individuals this volume presents close readings of individual texts that bring to life their rhetorical character in reaction to particular exigencies while addressing audiences of a unique moment This rhetoric of Transcendentalism provides insights into the keys of power that is the means of persuasion for our modern era that remain vital tools for individuals seeking to reconcile power and virtue in their struggle to make manifest a higher ideal in the world Beeton's
