Displaying Women Maureen E. Montgomery, 2016-04-29 Displaying Women explores the role of women in the representation of leisure in turn of the century New York. To see and be seen on Fifth Avenue and Broadway in Central Park and in the fashionable uptown hotels and restaurants was one of the fundamental principles in the display aesthetic of New York's fashionable society. Maureen E. Montgomery argues for a reconsideration of the role of women in the bourgeois elite in turn of the century America. By contrasting multiple images of women drawn from newspapers magazines private correspondence etiquette manuals and the New York fiction of Edith Wharton Henry James and others she offers a convincing antidote to the long standing tendency in women's history to overlook women whose class affiliations have put them in a position of power. The Burr McIntosh Monthly, 1910 Confined almost exclusively to illustrations. Outside Looking In Mary Jane Miller, 2008-06-09 Using recent scholarship in ethnography and popular culture Miller throws light on both what these series present and what is missing how various long standing issues are raised and framed differently over time and what new issues appear. She looks at narrative arc characterization dialogue and theme as well as how inflections of familiar genres like family adventure soap opera situation comedy and legal drama shape both the series and viewers expectations. Miller discusses Radisson Forest Rangers and other children's series in the 1960s and early 1970s as well as Beachcombers Spirit Bay The Rez and North of 60 series whose complex characters created rewarding relationships while dealing with issues ranging from addiction to unemployment to the aftermath of the residential school system.
