The Mysterious Shrinking House:

The Mysterious Shrinking House Jane Louise Curry, 1970      Avoiding Politics Nina Eliasoph, 1998-08-13 Nina Eliasoph's vivid portrait of American civic life reveals an intriguing culture of political avoidance. Despite the importance for democracy of open ended political conversation among ordinary citizens many Americans try hard to avoid appearing to care about politics. To discover how where and why Americans create this culture of avoidance the author accompanied suburban volunteers activists and recreation club members for over two years listening to them talk and avoid talking about the wider world together and in encounters with government media and corporate authorities. She shows how citizens create and express ideas in everyday life contrasting their privately expressed convictions with their lack of public political engagement. Her book challenges received ideas about culture power and democracy while exposing the hard work of producing apathy.

The Complete Idiot's Guide to Simple Home Repair Judy Ostrow, 2007-09-04 How many readers does it take to change a light bulb? Only one if he or she is armed with this book. Rather than focus on the big projects that most homeowners would wisely leave to professionals it concentrates on the common repairs that everyone encounters and anyone can do with the right instruction including repairing holes and dents in drywall fixing popped nails in walls checking and replacing fuses unclogging drains replacing light fixtures fixing squeaky floors repairing cracked tile and damaged carpet replacing screens screening gutters and much more. Contains 250 to 300 step by step illustrations.

Fantasy Literature for Children and Young Adults Pamela S. Gates, Susan B. Steffel, Francis J. Molson, 2003 Fantasy conjures up images of witches fairies dark woods magic wands and spells time travel ghosts and dragons. Each of us defines fantasy in a personal way based on our life stories experiences hopes dreams and fears. Fantasy Literature for Children and Young Adults helps teachers and students of literature to develop their own understandings of this broad genre in order to evaluate and promote the joy of fantasy in their classrooms. An excellent teaching tool the discussions are organized around three categories of fantasy literature including fairy folktale mixed fantasy which includes journey transformation talking animal and magic and heroic ethical and they are supported by well chosen examples of representative authors critics and theorists. With the assumption that the reader has no special knowledge of fantasy literature but has some previous exposure to the study of literature for children and young adults this book focuses on reviewing texts that illustrate particular types of fantasy literature. The authors have an extensive knowledge of both classic and contemporary children's and YA titles and they offer many insightful observations and details that make a book a particularly good classroom choice. Literature allows us to discuss controversial issues without making judgments it allows us the opportunity to experience another time and space by providing a new lens through which to view and it offers us a multitude of ways to come to appreciate and embrace the world of fantasy. Fantasy Literature for Children and Young Adults will help teachers and other readers to deepen their knowledge appreciation and pedagogical understandings of fantasy literature.

Who Killed - Murderous Women from the 18th & 19th Century Various,2021-03-09 While it is generally agreed amongst criminologists that the world of crime is predominantly the domain of men women played a much larger role than they do today before the twentieth century Even then women tended to commit property offences like theft shoplifting fraud and forgery as well as prostitution or soliciting. However, there have been those throughout history who have also committed some of the most brutal murders the world has ever known. Women Who Killed looks at the most notorious murder cases involving women from the 18th to 19th centuries, examining in detail their crimes, characters, trials, and punishments. Offering a fascinating yet chilling insight into the minds and crimes of female murderers, Women Who Killed is highly recommended for those with an interest in historic crimes and criminology in general. Contents include: Mary Blandy, Mrs. Margaret Caroline Rudd, Mary Lefley, Mary Lamb, Lizzie Borden, Florence Elizabeth Maybrick, Mary Eleanor Wheeler, Ann Britland, and Elizabeth Berry. Read Co. History is proudly publishing this brand new collection of classic articles, now complete with the introductory essay The Relations of Women to Crime by Ely Van De Warker.
