The Miniature Man:

The Miniature Man Richard Muir, 1987 When young Marcy arrived at the St Francis Sanitarium a horrific experience had left her without any memories without an identity In an effort to learn more about the mysterious adolescent her caretakers put her under hypnosis But the treatment throws Marcy further inside herself into the world of the Miniature Man gatekeeper to her past Julian Papp was well aware of the life he lost before he came to St Francis He was a chess prodigy unbeatable because of the level of concentration he could achieve during a game Epileptic seizures brought an end to his success leaving him in a deep depression and lashing out at others When the two meet Julian finds a new obsession to match his passion for chess curing Marcy Together they push the boundaries of memory and form a bond beyond their understanding The manipulating Julian must allow Marcy to become more than a pawn in his game and she must find her way out of her imagination's maze if they are to leave St Francis ready to cope in the wider world From Song to Book

Sylvia Huot, 2019-05-15 As the visual representation of an essentially oral text Sylvia Huot points out the medieval illuminated manuscript has a theatrical performative quality She perceives the tension between implied oral performance and real visual artifact as a fundamental aspect of thirteenth and fourteenth century poetics In this generously illustrated volume Huot examines manuscript texts both from the performance oriented lyric tradition of chanson courtoise or courtly love lyric and from the self consciously literary tradition of Old French narrative poetry She demonstrates that the evolution of the lyrical romance and dit narrative poems which incorporate thematic and rhetorical elements of the lyric was responsible for a progressive redefinition of lyric poetry as a written medium and the emergence of an explicitly written literary tradition uniting lyric and narrative poetics Huot first investigates the nature of the vernacular book in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries analyzing organization page layout rubrication and illumination in a series of manuscripts She then describes the relationship between poetics and manuscript format in specific texts including works by widely read medieval authors such as Guillaume de Lorris Jean de Meun and Guillaume de Machaut as well as by lesser known writers including Nicole de Margival and Watriquet de Couvin Huot focuses on the writers characteristic modifications of lyric poetics their use of writing and performance as theme their treatment of the poet as singer or writer and of the lady as implied reader or listener and the ways in which these features of the text were elaborated by scribes and illuminators Her readings reveal how medieval poets and book makers conceived their common project and how they distinguished their respective roles The
