Nabokov's Art of Memory and European Modernism John Burt Foster, Jr., 1993-02-08 Despite Vladimir Nabokov's hostility toward literary labels he clearly recognized his own place in cultural history In a fresh approach stressing Nabokov's European context John Foster shows how this writer's art of memory intersects with early twentieth century modernism Tracing his interests in temporal perspective and the mnemonic image in intertextual reminiscences and in individuality amid cultural multiplicity the book begins with such early Russian novels as Mary then treats his emerging art of memory from Laughter in the Dark to The Gift After discussing the author's cultural repositioning in his first English novels Foster turns to Nabokov's masterpiece as an artist of memory the autobiography Invitation to a Beheading and ends with an epilogue on Pale Fire As a cross cultural overview of modernism this book examines how Nabokov navigated among Proust and Bergson Freud and Mann and Joyce and Eliot It also explores his response to

Baudelaire and Nietzsche as theorists of modernity and his sense of Dostoevsky Tolstoy and Pushkin as modernist precursors As an approach to Nabokov the book reflects the heightened importance of autobiography in current literary study Other critical issues addressed include Bakhtin s theory of intertextuality deconstructive views of memory Benjamin s modernism of memory and Nabokov s assumptions about modernism as a concept Memory A S Byatt,Harriet Harvey Wood,2018-10-22 This fascinating anthology introduces us to a wide range of arguments on the subject of memory the thread that holds our lives and our history together Arranged in themed sections the book includes specially commissioned essays by the editors and by writers with expertise in different fields from Memory and Evolution by Patrick Bateson to Memory and Forgetting by the biographer Richard Holmes and an account of the chemistry of the brain by Steven Rose Complementing the essays are a rich selection of extracts from writers and thinkers such as Plato and Aristotle Montaigne and Shakespeare Wordsworth and Proust Jorge Luis Borges and Haruki Murakami Stimulating provocative funny or profoundly moving Memory is a book to treasure and remember Articulations of Difference Dominique D. Fisher,Lawrence R. Schehr,1997 Drawn from insights of the past twenty years the essays reflect the renewed approach of gender and sexuality as they relate to homosexuality and its representation and they rely on models that differentiate between sexuality and gender and between natural inclinations and social constructs Despite the wide variety of subjects critical positions and authors backgrounds what these essays have in common is the willingness of the contributors to go beyond a set of rhetorics a set of limitations that were a defining moment in the struggle of gay liberation and its reflection in both creative and critical writing After the Zap Michael Armstrong,2024-09-24 The Zap gives and the Zap takes away Because of the very nature of the Zap the big thermonuclear bomb that had scrambled and rearranged the neurons of everyone s brains there was no way of telling what it had taken from them all The past was a jumbled mass of tantalizing glimpses and agonizing blanks But the Zap s gifts were many and varied The Readers got the rare and often dangerous ability to make sense of the writings of the past The Memors got perfect recall of everything they d heard since the Zap The Bush Punks got a chance to live free and easy and die the same way The God Weirders got religion if you could call it that The Blimpers got a purpose a purpose that could save them or destroy them all Now Holmes a Reader was in the perfect position to tip the scales for or against survival if only he could figure out which side was which
