

THE MIRRORS OF DOWNING STREET

SOME POLITICAL REFLECTIONS

BY A GENTLEMAN WITH A DUSTER

*"Right and wrong are in the nature of things.
They are not words and phrases. They are in the nature of things, and if you transgress the laws laid down, imposed by the nature of things, depend upon it you will pay the penalty."*

and the energy of the rubbing is inspired solely by the hope that such labour may be of some benefit to my country I think our statesmen may be better servants of the great nation they have the honour to serve if they see themselves as others see them others who are not political adversaries and who are more interested in the moral and intellectual condition of the State than in the fortunes of its parties We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience The Mirrors of Downing Street Harold Begbie,1921

The Mirrors of Downing Street UNKNOWN. AUTHOR,2015-06-30 Excerpt from The Mirrors of Downing Street Some Political Reflections If I may presume to offer a word of counsel to those for whom this present edition is chiefly intended I would beg them to be guided in their choice of leaders mainly by moral qualities that is to say qualities of character rather than of intellect and then to be as loyal to those chosen leaders as they should be severe in their judgment on lesser men whose interest lies in making bad blood between the captain and the rank and file Discipline is essential to the existence of democracy without it there can be nothing but disorder disappointment and defeat The great beginning is a reasonable goal then a choice of high minded leaders and then a stout and loyal heart for the long march to a more just and beautiful world When democracy demands character in its leaders when it feels in its blood the atlantic difference between a specious talker and a man of profound virtue then but not even then without loyalty can it hope to find a happy issue out of all its afflictions About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Mirrors of Downing Street Harold Begbie,1922 The Mirrors of Downing Street Some Political Reflections A Gentleman With A Duster,2014-03 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1921 Edition
