

The background of the cover features a soft-focus photograph of a stack of old, leather-bound books and several sheets of aged, cream-colored paper or photographs scattered on a light-colored surface. The lighting is warm and directional, creating gentle shadows and highlighting the textures of the paper and book covers.

The Modern Of French Verse In English Transl:

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available

Boudica's Odyssey in Early Modern England Dr Samantha Frénée-Hutchins, 2014-06-28 This diachronic study of Boudica serves as a sourcebook of references to Boudica in the early modern period and gives an overview of the ways in which her story was processed and exploited by the different players of the times who wanted to give credence and support to their own belief systems The author examines the different apparatus of state ideology which processed the social religious and political representations of Boudica for public absorption and helped form the popular myth we have of Boudica today By exploring images of the Briton warrior queen across two reigns which witnessed an act of political union and a move from English female rule under Elizabeth I to British Scottish masculine rule under James VI I the author conducts a critical cartography of the ways in which gender colonialism and nationalism crystallised around this crucial historical figure Concentrating on the original transmission and reception of the ancient texts the author analyses the historical works of Hector Boece Raphael Holinshed and William Camden as well as the canonical literary figures of Edmund Spenser William Shakespeare and John Fletcher She also looks at aspects of other primary sources not covered in previous scholarship such as Humphrey Llwyd's Breuiary of Britayne 1573 Petruccio Ubaldini's Le Vite delle donne illustri del regno d Inghilterra e del regno di Scotia 1588 and Edmund Bolton's Nero Caesar 1624 Furthermore she incorporates archaeological research relating to Boudica

The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Early Modern Authorship, 2025-09-09 The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Early Modern Authorship draws together leading and emerging scholars of Shakespeare and early modern literature to consider anew how authorship worked in the time in which Shakespeare wrote and to interrogate the construction of the Shakespeare as author figure Composed of four main sections it offers fresh analysis of the literary and cultural influences and forces that formed authors in the period the mechanics of early modern authorship the mediation of Shakespeare and others works in performance manuscript and print and the critical and popular reimagining across times of Shakespeare as an author figure Diving into modern debates about early modern authorship authority and identity politics contributors supply rich new accounts of the wider scene of professional authorship in early modern England of how Shakespeare's writings contributed to it and of what made him distinctive within it Looking beyond Shakespeare the Handbook seeks to provide a vital testing ground for new research into early modern literature and culture

more broadly Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years 1881-1900 British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1903 A Sociological Approach to Poetry Translation Jacob S. D. Blakesley,2018-10-31 This volume provides an in depth comparative study of translation practices and the role of the poet translator across different countries and in so doing demonstrates the need for poetry translation to be extended beyond close reading and situated in context Drawing on a corpus composed of data from national library catalogues and Worldcat the book examines translation practices of English language French language and Italian language poet translators through the lens of a broad sociological approach Chapters 2 through 5 look at national poetic movements literary markets and the historical and socio political contexts of translations with Chapter 6 offering case studies of prominent and representative poet translators from each tradition A comprehensive set of appendices offers readers an opportunity to explore this data in greater detail Taken together the volume advocates for the need to study translation data against broader aesthetic historical and political trends and will be of particular interest to students and scholars in translation studies and comparative literature Studies in Modern French Literature Percy Mansell Jones,1961 Writings by Pre-Revolutionary French Women Colette H. Winn,Anne R. Larsen,2017-09-29 The present volume covers 30 Pre Revolutionary French women providing a representative sampling of their manifold and varied contributions to intellectual and cultural history This volume is unique in its grouping of essentially French writers from the Pre Revolutionary period The authors included here range from those prominent because of their social position or literary fame to those slowly becoming part of a new canon of Old Regime women writers authors whose works were known to their contemporaries but who have slipped into near invisibility in the following centuries until their recent rediscovery and reassessment The Journal of Education ,1902 THE EDUCATIONAL TIMES, AND JOURNAL OF THE COLLEGE PRECEPTORS. c.f hodgson and sons,2, gough square,1880

Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years ... British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1903 A History of Modern French Literature Christopher Prendergast,2025-06-17 An accessible and authoritative new history of French literature written by a highly distinguished transatlantic group of scholars This book provides an engaging accessible and exciting new history of French literature from the Renaissance through the twentieth century from Rabelais and Marguerite de Navarre to Samuel Beckett and Assia Djebar Christopher Prendergast one of today s most distinguished authorities on French literature has gathered a transatlantic group of more than thirty leading scholars who provide original essays on carefully selected writers works and topics that open a window onto key chapters of French literary history The book begins in the sixteenth century with the formation of a modern national literary consciousness and ends in the late twentieth century with the idea of the national coming increasingly into question as inherited meanings of French and Frenchness expand beyond the geographical limits of mainland France Provides an exciting new account of French literary history from the Renaissance to the end of the twentieth century Features more than thirty original essays on key writers works and topics written by a distinguished transatlantic group of scholars Includes an introduction and index The contributors include Etienne Beaulieu Christopher Braider Peter Brooks Mary Ann Caws David Coward Nicholas Cronk Edwin M Duval Mary Gallagher Raymond Geuss Timothy Hampton Nicholas Harrison Katherine Ibbett Michael Lucey Susan Maslan Eric M choulou Hassan Melehy Larry F Norman Nicholas Paige Roger Pearson Christopher Prendergast Jean Michel Rabat Timothy J Reiss Sarah Rocheville Pierre Saint Amand Clive Scott Catriona Seth Judith Sribnai Joanna Stalnaker Aleksandar Stevi Kate E Tunstall Steven Ungar and Wes Williams The Cambridge University Calendar University of Cambridge,1892 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1865 The Publishers' Circular ,1864 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1894 The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1864 Making History with Manuscripts in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Johannes Junge Ruhland,2025-06-02 This volume interrogates the role of the manuscript medium in conveying history to medieval and early modern readers The contributors adopt a capacious understanding of history to explore history writing in its materiality from a variety of methodological and disciplinary perspectives The core contentions of this book are that the material features of manuscripts helped shaping historical narratives and defining history conceptually and that therefore the makers of these manuscripts played an instrumental role in history writing alongside authors Ranging from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries and comprising materials from across Western Europe in Latin and the vernaculars the ten chapters of this volume uncover stakes and strategies tied to highly specific contexts such as late thirteenth century Corbie or fifteenth century Zurich yet partaking in a shared practice of history writing with manuscripts Manuscript makers made history through layout rewriting illumination compilation choice of script and annotation and conferred history writing its material dimension This volume therefore situates the writing of history in its material dimension and invites us to consider medieval and early modern historiography in its medium Calendar University of Cambridge,1893 Tristan and Isolde Joan Tasker Grimbert,2013-08-21 A substantial introduction traces the Tristan and Isolde legend from the twelfth century to the present emphasizing literary versions but also surveying the legend s sources and its appearance in the visual arts music and film The nineteen essays are a mix of new new English revised and classic It contains an extensive bibliography Early Modern Women's Manuscript Writing Jonathan Gibson,2017-03-02 Because print publishing was often neither possible nor desirable for women in the early modern period in order to understand the range of writing by women and indeed women s literary history itself it is important that scholars consider women s writing in manuscript Since the body of critical studies on women s writing for the most part prioritizes print over manuscript this essay collection provides an essential corrective The essays in this volume discuss many of the ways in which women participated in early modern manuscript culture The manuscripts studied by the contributors originated in a wide range of different milieux including the royal Court the universities gentry and aristocratic households in England and Ireland and

French convents Their contents are similarly varied original and transcribed secular and devotional verse religious meditations letters moral precepts in French and English and recipes are among the genres represented Emphasizing the manuscripts social political and religious contexts the contributors challenge commonly held notions about women s writing in English in the early modern period and bring to light many women whose work has not been considered before
