The Music Language Section II New Music Language Series:

The Reinvention of Religious Music Sander van Maas, 2009-08-25 On the basis of a careful analysis of Olivier Messiaen's work this book argues for a renewal of our thinking about religious music Addressing his notion of a hyper religious music of sounds and colors it aims to show that Messiaen has broken new ground His reinvention of religious music makes us again aware of the fact that religious music if taken in its proper radical sense belongs to the foremost of musical adventures The work of Olivier Messiaen is well known for its inclusion of religious themes and gestures These alone however do not seem enough to account for the religious status of the work Arguing for a breakthrough toward the beyond on the basis of the synaesthetic experience of music Messiaen invites a confrontation with contemporary theologians and post secular thinkers How to account for a religious breakthrough that is produced by a work of art Starting from an analysis of his 1960s oratorio La Transfiguration de Notre Seigneur Jésus Christ this book arranges a moderated dialogue between Messiaen and the music theology of Hans Urs von Balthasar the phenomenology of revelation of Jean Luc Marion the rethinking of religion and technics in Jacques Derrida and Bernard Stiegler and the Augustinian ruminations of Søren Kierkegaard and Jean François Lyotard Ultimately this confrontation underscores the challenging yet deeply affirmative nature of Messiaen's music

Education Outlook, 1913 Yogaku Luciana Galliano, 2002-11-19 This book introduces us to the world of contemporary Japanese music and it guides us towards a better understanding of their world Luciano Berio Yogaku discusses over a century of musical activity in Japan detailing in particular the music that was inspired by Western music after the Meiji Restoration in the 19th century and its development through the end of the 20th century The book not only examines the infiltration of Western music into Japan but also provides insight into the aesthetic and theoretical aspects of Japanese musical thought The word yogaku Western music is made up of two characters yo which means ocean that is over the ocean meaning Western or foreign and gaku which means music Divided into two parts the text covers the period preceding World War I as well as the post war period The introduction provides a history of music's role in Japanese society touching upon the differences in the functions of Japanese and Western music Part One describes the complex process of a new musical world and the European musical ideas that penetrated Japan Modernization through westernization is explored the author details the differences between the traditional Japanese music and that composed under Western influence as well as the French and German impact on Japanese musical compositions Galliano looks at the appearance of music in schools and the first Japanese musical compositions as well as nationalism's effect on music through propaganda and censorship Part Two explores topics such as the post war avant garde the 1960s boom in traditional music and the closing decades of the 20th century The next generation of Japanese composers are also considered Japanese history and music scholars as well as those interested in Japanese music will want to include Yogaku in their collection Baseball and the Music of Charles Ives Timothy A. Intertextuality in Music Violetta Kostka, Paulo F. de Castro, William A. Everett, 2021-06-17 The concept of intertextuality namely the meaning generated by interrelations between different texts was coined in the 1960s among literary theorists and has been widely applied since then to many other disciplines including music Intertextuality in Music Dialogic Composition provides a systematic investigation of musical intertextuality not only as a general principle of musical creativity but also as a diverse set of devices and techniques that have been consciously developed and applied by many composers in the pursuit of various artistic and aesthetic goals Intertextual techniques as this collection reveals have borne a wide range of results such as parody paraphrase collage and dialogues with and between the past and present In the age of sampling and remix culture the very notion of intertextuality seems to have gained increased momentum and visibility even though the principle of creating new music on the basis of pre-existing music has a long history both inside and outside the Western tradition The book provides a general survey of musical intertextuality with a special focus on music from the second half of the twentieth century but also including examples ranging from the nineteenth century to the second decade of the twenty-first century The volume is intended to inspire and stimulate new work in intertextual studies in music

The Kaleidoscope of Women's Sounds in Music of the Late 20th and Early 21st Centuries Kheng K. Koay, 2015-10-05 This book traces the development of music in the late 20th and early 21st centuries with regards to the work of six women composers Sofia Gubaidulina Joan Tower Ellen Taaffe Zwilich Libby Larsen Chen Yi and Judith Weir The study integrates cultural contexts with the composers' biographies their diverse compositional styles and provides in-depth analyses of their musical works The Kaleidoscope of Women's Sounds in Music of the Late 20th and Early 21st Centuries offers a more detailed guide to not only these composers but also their musical characters and styles than previous studies on women's music It discusses several aspects of these women's compositional perspectives and their personal experiences as they developed their music careers The book also places emphasis on how these composers incorporated diverse musical styles and the idioms of others into the development of their own distinctly personal styles The analytical approach adopted in this book is supplemented with illustrations of musical examples in order to provide a more complete understanding of the work of these composers
