The Mysterious Flame Of Queen Loana:

The Mysterious Flame of Queen Loana Umberto Eco, 2005 Having suffered a complete loss of memory regarding every aspect of his identity Yambo withdraws to a family home outside of Milan where he sorts through boxes of old records and experiences memories in the form of a graphic novel The Mysterious Flame of Queen Loana Umberto Eco, 2005 The Ages of Life Ulla Kriebner, Roberta Maierhofer, 2014-03-15 The binary construction of young and old which is based on a biogerontological model of aging as decline can be redefined as the ambiguity of aging from a cultural studies perspective This concept enables an analysis of the social functions of images of aging with the aim of providing a basis for interdisciplinary exchange on gerontological research The articles in this publication conceive the relationship between living and aging as a productive antagonism which focuses on the interplay between continuity and change as a marker of life course identity aging and growing older are processes which cannot be reduced to the chronology of years but which are shaped by the individual's interaction with the changing circumstances of life The Philosophy of Umberto Eco Sara G. Beardsworth, Randall E. Auxier, 2017-05-09 The Philosophy of Umberto Eco stands out in the Library of Living Philosophers series as the volume on the most interdisciplinary scholar hitherto and probably the most widely translated The Italian philosopher's name and works are well known in the humanities both his philosophical and literary works being translated into fifteen or more languages Eco is a founder of modern semiotics and widely known for his work in the philosophy of language and aesthetics He is also a leading figure in the emergence of postmodern literature and is associated with cultural and mass communication studies His writings cover topics such as advertising television and children's literature as well as philosophical questions bearing on truth reality cognition language and literature The critical essays in this volume cover the full range of this output This book has wide appeal not only because of its interdisciplinary nature but also because of Eco's famous high and low approach which is deeply scholarly in conception and very accessible in outcome The short essay Why Philosophy included in the volume is exemplary in this regard it will appeal to scholars for its wit and to high school students for its intelligibility Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey, 2019-03-14 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature

Mendicants and Merchants in the Medieval Mediterranean, 2013-04-15 When the mendicant orders were founded in the thirteenth century they quickly began to cultivate mutually beneficial relationships with the emerging merchant class

but these relationships have rarely been addressed by scholars

Mendicants and Merchants in the Medieval Mediterranean edited by Taryn Chubb and Emily Kelley is an interdisciplinary study of the intricate connections that developed between the two groups focusing specifically on three examples of mendicant merchant interaction in Barcelona Mallorca and Florence The studies in this volume demonstrate the complexities of commercial and religious trade and exchange in the region and they reveal the extent to which the friars and merchants came to depend upon one another Contributors are Taryn E L Chubb Francisco Garc a Serrano Emily D Kelley Allie Terry Fritsch Robin Vose and Antonio M Zald var

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabrications that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book

The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates

The Name of the Rose Laura Cremonini, 2021-01-04 We would like to point out that most of the texts included in this work come freely from the Internet and can be found on Wikipedia Then the question arises why buy it The answer is simple It is a painstaking work of assembly with a specific search for images these for example you can t find them on Wikipedia that completes the work in order to make it unique and not repeatable in its structure In short a work that while coming from the work of others is transformed into a unicum assuming its own logical form which is to describe the book and the film The Name of the Rose In addition the work has been enriched with numerous images that you cannot find on wikipedia

the intellectual and critical environment of our time The book illustrates the critical possibilities that derive from the broad range of modes of inquiry poststructuralist criticism gender studies postcolonial studies new historicism that the book's four sections bring to bear on a wealth of intermedial practices But Relational Designs compounds such critical emphases with the voice of the practitioner the book is rounded off by an interview in which a contemporary novelist discusses her attraction to the other arts in terms that extend the book's insights and bridge the gap between academic discourse and artistic practice Encyclopedia of the World Novel, 1900 to the Present Michael David Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition a useful and engaging reference to the vast world of the novel in world literature The Life of Things, the Love of Things Remo Bodei, 2015-04-01 From prehistoric stone tools to machines to computers things have traveled a long road along with human beings Changing with the times places and methods of their production emerging from diverse histories and enveloped in multiple layers of meaning things embody ideas emotions and symbols of which we are often unaware The meaning of thing is richer than that of object which is something that is manipulated with indifference or according to impersonal technical procedures Things also differ from merchandise objects that can be sold or exchanged or seen as status symbols Things in the philosophical sense are nodes of relationships with the life of others chains of continuity among generations bridges that connect individual and collective histories junctions between human civilizations and nature Things incite us to listen to reality to make them part of ourselves giving fresh life to an otherwise suffocating interiority Things also reveal the hidden aspect of a subject in its most secret and least explored side Things are the repositories of ideas emotions and symbols whose meaning we often do not understand In an unexpected but coherent journey that includes the visions of classic philosophers from Aristotle to Husserl and from Hegel to Heidegger along with the analysis of works of art Bodei addresses issues such as fetishism the memory of things the emergence of department stores consumerism nostalgia for the past the self portraits of Rembrandt and Dutch still lifes of the seventeenth century The more we are able to recover objects in their wealth of meanings and integrate them into our mental and emotional horizons he argues the broader and deeper our world becomes The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First Century Literary Fiction Daniel O'Gorman, Robert Eaglestone, 2019-01-15 The study of contemporary fiction is a fascinating yet challenging one Contemporary fiction has immediate relevance to popular culture the news scholarly organizations and education where it is found on the syllabus in schools and universities but it also offers challenges What is contemporary How do we track cultural shifts and changes The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction takes on this challenge mapping key literary trends from the year 2000 onwards as the landscape of our century continues to take shape around us A significant and central intervention into contemporary literature this Companion offers essential coverage of writers who have risen to prominence since then such as Hari Kunzru Jennifer Egan David Mitchell Jonathan Lethem Ali Smith A L Kennedy Hilary Mantel Marilynne Robinson and Colson Whitehead Thirty eight essays by leading and emerging international scholars cover topics such as Identity including race sexuality class and religion in the twenty first century The impact of technology terrorism activism and the global economy on the modern world and modern literature The form and format of twenty first century literary fiction including analysis of established genres such as the pastoral graphic novels and comedic writing and how these have been adapted in recent years Accessible to experts students and general readers The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past present and future of contemporary literature

Memory - Papers Read at the Jewish and Christian Perspectives Conference, Utrecht 2022, 2025-07-28 Memory Papers Read at the Jewish and Christian Perspectives Conference Utrecht 2022 connects past present and future This conference volume demonstrates the diversity of memory in the Jewish and Christian traditions Memory turns out to be a key to investigating and better understanding many aspects of Judaism and Christianity including their mutual relationship In these traditions memory is not simply about recalling events but about preserving identity culture and divine teachings The act of remembering is central to how communities pass down their religious beliefs laws and moral frameworks across generations It also plays a role in communal cohesion ensuring that the experiences of the fathers and their wisdom would not get lost but rather actively re lived and celebrated

The Language and Imagery of Coma and Brain Injury Matthew Colbeck, 2021-04-22 What occurs within coma What does the coma patient experience How does the patient perceive the world outside of coma if at all The simple answer to these questions is that we don't know Yet the sheer volume of literary and media texts would have us believe that we do Examining representations of coma and brain injury across a variety of texts this book investigates common tropes and linguistic devices used to portray the medical condition of coma giving rise to universal mythologies and misconceptions in the public domain Matthew Colbeck looks at how these texts represent or fail to represent long term brain injury drawing on narratives of coma survivors that have been produced and curated through writing groups he has run over the last 10 years Discussing a diverse range of cultural works including novels by Irvine Welsh Stephen King Tom McCarthy and Douglas Coupland as well as film and media texts such as The Sopranos Kill Bill Coma and The Walking Dead Colbeck provides an explanation for our fascination with coma With a proliferation of misleading stories of survival in the media and in literature this book explores the potential impact these have upon our own understanding of coma and its victims

Writing the Reader Dorothee Birke, 2016-08-08 The history of the novel is also a history of shifting views of the value of novel reading This study investigates how novels themselves participate in this development by featuring reading as a multidimensional cultural practice English novels about obsessive reading written in times of medial transition serve as test cases for a model that brings together analyses of form and content

The Book of Wanderings Kimberly Meyer, 2015-03-24 To a mother and daughter on an illuminating pilgrimage this is what the desert said Carry only what you need Burn what can't be saved

Leave the remnants as an offering When Kimberly Meyer gave birth to her first daughter Ellie during her senior year of college the bohemian life of exploration she had once imagined for herself was lost in the responsibilities of single motherhood For years both mother and daughter were haunted by how Ellie came into being Kimberly through a restless ache for the world beyond Ellie through a fear of abandonment Longing to bond with Ellie now a college student and longing too to rediscover herself Kimberly sets off with her daughter on a quest for meaning across the globe Leaving behind the rhythms of ordinary life in Houston Texas they dedicate a summer to retracing the footsteps of Felix Fabri a medieval Dominican friar whose written account of his travels resonates with Kimberly Their mother daughter pilgrimage takes them to exotic destinations infused with mystery spirituality and rich history from Venice to the Mediterranean through Greece and partitioned Cyprus to Israel and across the Sinai Desert with Bedouin guides to the Palestinian territories and to Cairo and Alexandria in Egypt In spare and gorgeous prose The Book of Wanderings tells the story of Kimberly and Ellie's journey and of the intimate lasting bond they forge along the way A meditation on stripping away the distractions on simplicity on how to live this vibrant memoir will appeal to anyone who has contemplated the road not taken who has experienced the gnawing feeling that there is something more who has faced the void of offspring leaving of mortality looming of searching for someplace that feels finally like home
