The Vision Splendid Stephanie Owen Reeder, 2011 The Vision Splendid features the sketchbooks of 22 nineteenth century artists ranging from well known professionals like Eugene von Gu rard and John Glover to amateurs about whom little is known These artists engineers surveyors military men solicitors public servants and pastoralists all delighted in recording what they saw and then sharing it with family friends and the wider public The sketches reveal what colonial life in Australia was like at that time both in the country and in the city and the challenges the artists faced depicting landscapes that were so different from those in Europe

The People That Never Were Christopher M. Hutton, 2025 In The People That Never Were Christopher M Hutton takes a fresh look at the term Aryan making the case that the concept was brought into being by western philology and Indology Hutton then takes the reader through the history of the concept beginning with colonial scholarship in India around 1800 and ending in the first decades of the twentieth century By exploring the complex history of the Aryan paradigm Hutton raises a challenging set of questions for the modern discipline of linguistics and illuminates the role of linguistic scholarship in political understandings of human diversity
