to Becoming a Solicitor Nicola Laver, 2000 Competition is fierce to secure a training contract with a firm of solicitors Undergraduates postgraduates and those on the LPC all find the task equally difficult This new book provides practical solutions to many of these problems Clearly laid out easy to read and informative it includes useful advice on such areas as drafting CVs writing covering letters to apply for training contracts researching the market place getting the best value out of work experience selecting firms interview approaches and techniques accessing sources of finance The book aims to be a useful source of reference and offer practical tips for anyone wishing to enter the legal profession Lawyers' Skills Julian

S. Webb, Caroline Maughan, Mike Maughan, Marcus Keppel-Palmer, Andrew Boon, 2017-07-13 Lawyers Skills helps students develop the legal skills required for successful practice in the modern solicitor s firm The book equips students with a solid understanding of the theory and concepts underpinning the key skills areas of legal writing and drafting interviewing and advising practical legal research and advocacy Guidance is also provided on a range of other professional skills which should be mastered before going into practice including effective time management negotiation and email etiquette The inclusion of realistic examples from practice tasks and reflective exercises emphasizes the interactive nature of skills as a subject and encourages students to develop practise and refine their legal skills Chapter summaries diagrams and self test questions are also featured throughout and provide additional learning support to students The text is essential reading for all LPC students and is also a useful source of reference for newly qualified practitioners Affect and Legal Education Caroline

Maughan, Paul Maharg, 2016-03-23 The place of emotion in legal education is rarely discussed or analysed and we do not have to seek far for the reasons The difficulty of interdisciplinary research the technicisation of legal education itself the view that affect is irrational and antithetical to core western ideals of rationality all this has made the subject of emotion in legal education invisible Yet the educational literature on emotion proves how essential it is to student learning and to the professional lives of teachers This text the first full length book study of the subject seeks to make emotion a central topic of research for legal educators and restore the power of emotion in our teaching and learning Part 1 focuses on the contribution that neuroscience can make to legal learning a theme that is carried through other chapters in the book Part 2 explores the role of emotion in the working lives of academics and clinical staff while Part 3 analyses the ways in which emotion can be used in learning and teaching The book interdisciplinary and wide ranging in its reference breaks new ground in its analysis of the educational lifeworld of situations communities actors and interactions in legal education     The Irish Law Times and Solicitors' Journal ,1994     Skills for Lawyers Annabel Elkington,College of Law (England and Wales),John Holtam (Solicitor),Gemma M.
