the self serving plastic society that directs them From the disillusionment and alienation of the young at the center of the revolt to their attempts to build a visionary new society the nationwide following they gain and the brutally complete repression that inevitably follows this is a future fiction without a drop of fantasy As driving violent and nuanced today as it was 40 years ago this anniversary edition includes a new introduction by the author reflecting unapologetically on the novel and the times from which it emerged Representing the Modern Animal in Culture Ziba Rashidian,2014-10-02 Examining a wide range of works from Gulliver s Travels to The Hunger Games Representing the Modern Animal in Culture employs key theoretical apparatuses of Animal Studies to literary texts Contributors address the multifarious modes of animal representation and the range of human animal interactions that have emerged in the past 300 years All the Available Light Yona Zeldis McDonough,2011-01-11 No star in any genre has affected the world as deeply or has lasted as long without fading as Marilyn Monroe This thought provoking and wide ranging collection of essays examines the undiminished incandescence of Marilyn Monroe the impact she has had on our culture the evolution of her legend since her death and what she tells us now about our lives and times and includes previously unpublished work from some of America s best writers such as Joyce Carol Oates Alice Elliot Dark Albert Mobilo Marge Piercy Lore Segal Lisa Shea and many more From her troubled family beginnings to the infamous 13 million auction held at Christie s in New York City All the Available Light paints an unforgettable portrait of Marilyn as you ve never seen her before This extremely rare cover photo was taken c 1954 on the set of The Seven Year Itch On the Way Out, Turn Off the Light Marge Piercy,2020-09-29 A bountiful group of poems direct honest and revelatory that reflect on language nature old age young love Judaism and our current politics from one of our most read and admired poets Words are my business Marge Piercy begins her twentieth collection of poetry a glance back at a lifetime of learning loving grieving and fighting for the disenfranchised and a look forward at what the future holds for herself her family and friends and her embattled country In the opening section Piercy tells of her childhood in Detroit with its vacant lots and scrappy children the bike that gave her wings her ambition at fourteen to gobble down all knowledge and a too early marriage I put on my first marriage like a girdle my skinny body didn t need We then leap into the present her twilight zone where she is learning to be quiet learning to give praise despite it all There are funny poems about medicine ads with their dire warnings and some possible plusses about being dead I ll never do another load of laundry There is comfort in old bodies coming together in a partner s warmth You re always warm warm hands smooth back sleek as a Burmese cat Sunny weather outside and in Piercy has long been known for her political poems and here we have her thoughts on illegal immigrants dying languages fraught landscapes abortion President speak She examines her nonbeliever s need for religious holidays and spiritual depth and the natural world is appreciated throughout On the Way Out Turn Off the Light is yet more proof of Piercy s love and mastery of language it is moving stimulating funny and full of the stuff of life Sisters of the Earth Lorraine Anderson,2003-12-09 Sisters of the Earth is a stirring collection of women s writing on nature Nature as healer Nature as delight Nature as mother and sister Nature as victim Nature as companion and reminder of what is wild in us all Here among more than a hundred poets and prose writers are Diane Ackerman on the opium of sunsets Ursula K Le Guin envisioning an alternative world in which human beings are not estranged from their planet and Julia Butterfly Hill on weathering a fierce storm in the redwood tree where she lived for more than two years Here too are poems essays stories and journal entries by Emily Dickinson Alice Walker Terry Tempest Williams Willa Cather Gretel Erlich Adrienne Rich and others each offering a vivid eloquent response to the natural world This second edition of Sisters of the Earth is fully revised and updated with a new preface and nearly fifty new pieces including new contributions by Louise Erdrich Pam Houston Zora Neale Hurston Starhawk Joy Williams Kathleen Norris Rita Dove and Barbara Kingsolver

My Life, My Body Marge Piercy, 2015-09-01 In a candid and intimate new collection of essays poems memoirs reviews rants and rambles Piercy discusses her own development as a working class feminist the highs and lows of TV culture the ego dances of a writer's life the homeless and the housewife Allen Ginsberg and Marilyn Monroe feminist utopias and why she doesn't live in one why fiction isn't physics and of course fame sex and money not necessarily in that order The short essays poems and personal memoirs intermingle like shards of glass that shine reflect and cut Always personal yet always political Piercy's work is drawn from a deep well of feminist and political activism Also featured is our Outspoken Interview in which the author lays out her personal rules for living on Cape Cod finding your poetic voice and making friends in Cuba

The Crooked Inheritance Marge Piercy, 2013-08-28 An exquisite spot on The Hudson Review collection of poems from one of our best loved and best selling poets that is both personal with poetry about love nature and reflections on the stages of life and political ranging from the war in Iraq and Katrina to concerns such as women's rights and the poet's childhood in Detroit

The Art of Blessing the Day Marge Piercy, 2013-08-07 A prize winning collection of old and new poems that celebrate the Jewish experience about which the poet Lyn Lifshin writes An exquisite book The whole collection is strong passionate and poignant but the mother and daughter poems fierce and emotional with their intense ambivalence pain and joy themes of separation and reconnecting are among the very strongest about that difficult relationship Lifshin continues These striking original beautifully sensuous poems do just that Ordinary moments a sunset a walk a private religious ritual are so alive in poems like Shabbat moment and Rosh Hodesh In the same way that she celebrates ordinary moments small things become charged with memories and feelings paper snowflakes buttons one bird a bottle cap flower made from a ginger ale top and crystal beads She celebrates the body in rollicking gusto filled poems like Belly good and The chuppah where our bodies open their portals wide So much that is richly sensuous hands that caressed you untied the knot of pleasure and loosened your flesh till it fluttered and lush praise for life in our spines our throats our knees our genitals our brains our tongues I love the humor in poems like Eat fruit the nostalgia and joy in The rabbi's granddaughter and the Christmas tree the fresh beautiful images of nature In winter the sun hangs its wizened rosehip in the oaks I admire Piercy's sense of the past alive in the present in personal and social history The poems are memorials like the yahrtzeit candle in a glass We lose and we go on losing but the poems are never far from harsh joy the joy that is the wine of life Growing up haunted by Holocaust ghosts is an echo throughout the book and some of the strongest poems are about the Holocaust poems that become the voices of those who had no voice What you carry in your blood is us the books we did not write music we could not make a world gone from gristle to smoke only as real now as words can make it Marge Piercy's words make such a moving variety of experiences beautifully and forcefully real Made in Detroit Marge Piercy, 2017-11-07 Now in paperback a collection to treasure from one of our most popular poets poems that range from the Detroit of her childhood to her current life on Cape Cod from deep appreciations of the natural world to elegies for lost friends and fellow poets In her trademark style combining the sublime with gritty reality Marge Piercy describes the night she was born the sky burned red over Detroit and sirens sharpened their knives The elms made tents of solace over grimy streets and alley cats purred me to sleep She writes in graphic unflinching language about the poor banished now by politicians no longer real people like corporations There are elegies for her peer group of poets gone now whose work she cherishes but from whom she cannot help but want more There are laments for the suicide of dolphins and for her beloved cats as she remembers exactly how I loved each She continues to celebrate Jewish holidays in compellingly original ways and sings the praises of her marriage and the small pleasures of life A stunning collection in the best Piercy tradition
