Slimming Down Growing Up:

Growing Up African in Australia Maxine Beneba Clarke, 2019-04-02 I was born in Harare the capital of Zimbabwe My dad was a freedom fighter waging war for an independent state South Sudan We lived in a small country town in the deep south of Western Australia I never knew black people could be Muslim until I met my North African friends My mum and my dad courted illegally under the Apartheid regime My first impression of Australia was a housing commission in the north of Tasmania Somalis use this term Dhaqan Celis Dhaqan means culture and Celis means return Learning to kick a football in a suburban schoolyard Finding your feet as a young black dancer Discovering your grandfather's poetry Meeting Nelson Mandela at your local church Facing racism from those who should protect you Dreading a visit to the hairdresser House hopping across the suburbs Being too black Not being black enough Singing to find your soul and then losing yourself again Welcome to African Australia Compiled by award winning author Maxine Beneba Clarke with curatorial assistance from writers Ahmed Yussuf and Magan Magan this anthology brings together voices from the regions of Africa and the African diaspora including the Caribbean and the Americas Told with passion power and poise these are the stories of African diaspora Australians Contributors include Faustina Agolley Santilla Chingaibe Carly Findlay Khalid Warsame Nyadol Nyuon Tariro Mavondo and many many more A deeply moving and unforgettable read there is something to learn from each page FOUR AND A HALF STARS Books Publishing A complex tapestry of stories specific in every thread and illuminating as a whole The wonderful strength of this anthology lies in the easily understood and the never imagined Readings In the face of structural barriers to health care education housing and employment the narratives in Growing Up African are tempered with stories of deep courage hope resilience and endurance The Conversation Growing Up African in Australia is almost painfully timely It speaks to the richness of a diaspora that is all too often deprived of its nuances Lively moving and often deeply affecting it is an absolute must read FOUR AND A HALF STARS The AU Review

Your Child's Weight Ellyn Satter, 2011-12-01 As much about parenting as feeding this latest release from renowned childhood feeding expert Ellyn Satter considers the overweight child issue in a new way Combining scientific research with inspiring anecdotes from her decades of clinical practice Satter challenges the conventional belief that parents must get overweight children to eat less and exercise more In the long run she says making them go hungry and forcing them to be active makes children preoccupied with food prone to overeating turned off to activity and likely to gain too much weight Trust is a central theme here children must be able to trust parents to provide as much food as they need to satisfy their appetites parents must trust children to eat only as much as they need Satter provides compelling evidence that if parents do their jobs with respect to feeding children are remarkably capable of knowing how much to eat

My Plane Truth Jill Douglas, 2012-02 On January 21 2006 my husband Terry and I were enjoying a relaxing couples massage during a romantic getaway and five hours later we were experiencing 15 terrifying minutes of uncertainty as to whether we would live or die Our single engine plane had suddenly lost all its power In those moments of uncertainty flashing before me was my life What had I done What would I miss And most importantly what was the meaning of those blue eyes that superimposed themselves over Terry's eyes minutes before we crashed The physical and emotional healing was intense humbling and gratifying while the spiritual path that I had been catapulted onto was certainly uplifting and unfamiliar to me All my life my soul had been gently nudging me towards my true purpose now it was hitting me over the head with the messages of Love more love simplify your life Love and forgive myself and others unconditionally This true story is of my spiritual transformation that took me from having the illusion that all my material accomplishments were all there was for a fulfilling life to knowing that life was and had already been planned for me by me well before I incarnated into this body Surviving this plane crash was only a catalyst towards me fulfilling my true purpose in life Having a clean slate to begin all over with is a daunting task Being 47 now widowed and starting over was a daunting task My faith is about to be tested big time For from tragedy comes triumph Having found the owner of those eyes I know I have more work and a much higher purpose in life to fulfill It took a life threatening and frightening plane crash to make me see the truth my plane truth It s truly been a humbling experience and one I consider to be a gift and not a tragedy The hardest part was simply looking in the mirror and uncovering all my masks that I had thought were protecting me but in fact were keeping me from knowing my true self
