The Ideas Of The Hungarian Revolution Suppressed And Victorious 1956 1999:

The Ideas of the Hungarian Revolution Lee Congdon, Béla K. Király, 2002 Taking as its starting point the long standing characterization of Milton as a Hebraic writer Milton and the Rabbis probes the limits of the relationship between the seventeenth century English poet and polemicist and his Jewish antecedents Shoulson s analysis moves back and forth between Milton s writings and Jewish writings of the first five centuries of the Common Era collectively known as midrash In exploring the historical and literary implications of these connections Shoulson shows how Milton s text can inform a more nuanced reading of midrash just as midrash can offer new insights into Paradise Lost Shoulson is unconvinced of a direct link between a specific collection of rabbinic writings and Milton s works He argues that many of Milton s poetic ideas that parallel midrash are likely to have entered Christian discourse not only through early modern Christian Hebraicists but also through Protestant writers and preachers without special knowledge of Hebrew At the heart of Shoulson s inquiry lies a fundamental question When is an idea a theme or an emphasis distinctively Judaic or Hebraic and when is it Christian The difficulty in answering such questions reveals and highlights the fluid interaction between ostensibly Jewish Hellenistic and Christian modes of thought not only during the early modern period but also early in time when rabbinic Judaism and Christianity began

The Transition to Democracy in Hungary Dae Soon Kim, 2013-07-18 Unlike in other countries of Eastern Europe where the opposition to communism came in the form of single mass movements led by charismatic leaders such as V clav Havel and Lech Wa sa in Hungary the opposition was very fragmented brought together and made effective only by the authoritative significant but relatively unknown rp d G ncz who subsequently became Hungary s first post communist president This book charts the political career of rp d G ncz outlining the outstanding contribution he made to Hungary s transition to democracy Drawing on a wide range of sources including archives and interviews with G ncz himself and others it shows how G ncz unlike Havel who was a playwright and whose political role was largely symbolic was a campaigning politician all his life consistently advocating social democratic but not communist values Imprisoned from 1956 for his participation in the 1956 uprising G ncz was a highly effective political operator in the transition period around 1989 and as president wielded real power effectively As politics in Hungary are again marred by deep division and fragmentation G ncz s success in bringing rival groups together is even more pronounced

Imre Nagy, Martyr of the Nation Karl P. Benziger, 2008-01-01 Imre Nagy is a compelling figure both in life and in death_ one whose actions stimulated consequences in Hungary that continue into the present Providing a summary review of Hungarian Cold War history Benziger examines the ways in which the memory of the martyred prime minister and the story of the 1956 Revolution influenced political socialization in Hungary The book begins with Nagy s 1989 funeral and the role memorialization played in the politics of transition continuing with a review of the important personages and events that informed Nagy s life and afterlife and it concludes in the tumultuous politics following the establishment of the Republic in 1989 Readers interested in Central and

Eastern Europe will find this book useful as it expands the literature on history and memory and transition politics in the region

Voice of the Silenced Peoples in the Global Cold War Anna Mazurkiewicz, 2020-12-16 According to its members exiled political leaders from nine east European countries the ACEN was an umbrella organization a quasi East European parliament in exile composed of formerly prominent statesmen who strove to maintain the case of liberation of Eastern Europe from the Soviet yoke on the agenda of international relations Founded by the Free Europe Committee from 1954 to 1971 the ACEN tried to lobby for Eastern European interests on the U S political scene in the United Nations and the Council of Europe Furthermore its activities can be traced to Latin America Asia and the Middle East However since it was founded and sponsored by the Free Europe Committee most commonly recognized as the sponsor of the Radio Free Europe the ACEN operations were obviously influenced and monitored by the Americans CIA Department of State This book argues that despite the migr leadership s self restraint in expressing criticism of the U S foreign policy the ACEN was vulnerable to and eventually fell victim of the changes in the American Cold War policies Notwithstanding the termination of Free Europe s support ACEN members reconstituted their operations in 1972 and continued their actions until 1989 Based on a thorough archival research twenty different archives in the U S and Europe interviews published documents memoirs press this book is a first complete story of an organization that is quite often mentioned in publications related to the operations of the Free Europe Committee but hardly ever thoroughly studied

From Peoples Into Nations John Connelly, 2022-01-25 This book is a history of East Central Europe since the late eighteenth century the region of Europe between German central Europe and Russia in the East Connelly argues the region for which it is frequently hard to define exact boundaries and which is sometimes treated country by country in a way seemingly separate from the broader trends of European history was one of shared experience despite most of the peoples being divided by linguistic geographic and political barriers Beginning in the 1780s an unwitting Habsburg monarch Joseph II decreed that his subjects would use only German as he hoped to mold a common nationality using German over the disparate subjects Instead he unleashed the energies and struggle for the emergence of new nations that pitted small peoples armed with an idea against empires The author argues that the underlying national self assertion which emerged under imperial rule in the eighteen and nineteenth centuries shows deep connections to subsequent histories to the creation of nation states of the regions after World War I the failure of democratic rule in these states during the interwar years the submersion of the region under Nazi then Soviet rule after 1939 and to the reinvention of sovereign states and then the break up of two of them after 1989 The book interconnects major themes and country histories for first time chronicling this diverse region over many generations from the time of Joseph through democratic and socialist revolutions genocide and Stalinism through civil society movements struggling for liberal democracy into our own day when illiberal politicians come to power by exploiting very old fears

Challenging Communism in Eastern Europe Terry Cox, 2013-09-13 Marking the 50th anniversary of events in 1956 that were a major turning point in the history of communist ruled Eastern Europe this book contains a selection of some of the most recent research on those momentous events and their memory and legacy The book contains edited contributions from historians and social scientists from Hungary Poland the UK and the USA Their contributions are the fruit of research which has only been possible since 1989 In the years since the fall of the communist regimes the state archives have been opened to researchers and it has been possible to collect the testimony of eye witnesses without fear of repression and censorship The outcome of 1956 led to Poland embarking on its own distinctive version of communist rule Meanwhile 1956 in Hungary saw the first society wide attempt to overthrow a ruling communist regime only to be put down by Soviet military intervention In both countries the events of 1956 had lasting repercussions for society and its relationship with the communist regime In retrospect they can be seen as paving the way for the eventual fall of the communist regimes in East Central Europe in 1989

Essays on Wittgenstein and Austrian Philosophy, 2022-07-04 Essays on Wittgenstein and Austrian Philosophy is presented for the 60th birthday of professor Christoph Nyiri The essays presented here for the first time are focused on Austrian intellectual history and on Wittgenstein's philosophy the two main areas of Professor Nyiri's interests Typically the contributors are outstanding scholars of the field including among others David Bloor Lee Congdon Newton Garver Wilhelm L. Tetterfields Joachim Schulte Barry Smith The volume is of primary interest for Wittgenstein scholars and those studying the 19th and 20th century Austrian intellectual history As the volume is presented for Professor Nyiri the papers collected here reflect his interests in Wittgenstein and Austrian philosophy Beginning with an introductory chapter on Nyiri's achievements in this field of scholarship the volume is in four parts The first part contains essays on Austrian philosophy broadly understood more precisely on its socio historical context Barry Smith and Wolfgang Grassl on the relation between Marxism and Arnold Hauser's philosophy and sociology of art Lee Congdon and Neurath's connection to naturalistic epistemologies Thomas Uebel The second part presents Wittgenstein's philosophy in context Jaakko Hintikka's paper argues that Wittgenstein's probable dyslexia can be seen as an external influence on and a source of his philosophy David Bloor discusses Wittgenstein's philosophy in the context of Edmund Burke's conservatism which can be read as a background of Nyiri's influential interpretation of Wittgenstein as a conservative philosopher Newton Garver also touches on the problem of conservatism while discussing passages of On Certainty in the context of Kant Moore and T. S. Eliot Klaus Puhl's essay connects Wittgenstein's remarks on rule following to Freud's concept of retroactivity and argues that rules emerging from empirical regularities can be seen as retroactive constructions The papers in the third part of the volume offer close readings of Wittgenstein's works Rudolf L. the offers two readings of Wittgenstein's criticism of philosophy in the Tractatus can be read in two ways with different consequences among them is the appearance of philosophy inspired by art rather than the sciences Joachim Schulte offers an interpretation of Wittgenstein's use of natural history that can accommodate all of his remarks containing this concept Herbert Hrachovec discusses the relation of pictorial and linguistic representations in Wittgenstein's Nachlass arguing that there is no pronounced opposition between the two. The fourth part of the book containing three papers in German continues the close inspection of Wittgenstein's later works. Wilhelm L. Tterfelds reconstructs Wittgenstein's philosophy of time as pointing out memory being the very source of time. Katalin Neumer inspects Wittgenstein's frequent references to photographs in the context of aspect seeing and compares them with other remarks on theatre, painting and music. She concludes that there are no philosophically important structural differences between them. Peter Keicher's paper offers a comprehensive view on Wittgenstein's prefaces in the context of his various book projects. The volume ends with a select bibliography of Professor Nyiri's works.
