s proposal of an emerging ecumenical mission paradigm is examined with reference to the schools in membership with the Konferenz Bibeltreuer Ausbildungsstätten KBA The KBA schools have been greatly influenced by the work of Peter Beyerhaus and the Frankfurt Declaration 1970 and as such defend a conservative theological position and resist the challenge of Bosch s mission paradigm shift the key issue being that of hermeneutics Ott further explores the emerging new paradigm of theological education in both the Western and Two Thirds World contexts While the evangelical Bible school movement has historically embodied many of the features of this new paradigm they nevertheless have jeopardized these by their pursuit of academic accreditation Ott believes that theological conservatism has caused the KBA schools to resist changes in the areas of contextual and inductive learning Finally Ott studies the schools pattern of change and change resistance through combining the insights of Thomas Kuhn Hans Kung and Alasdair MacIntyre to hermeneutical and epistemological issues

A Missiology of the Road J Kevin Livingston, 2014-09-25 David Bosch 1929 1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements His distinctive role in the South African church s struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch s background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch s legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God s kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God s alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ s new community It is also God s reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God s love in Christ For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission A Missiology of the Road shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church

Jesus, the Church and the Mission of God John Valentine, 2023-05-18 Church planting is in vogue yet there is a paucity of sustained biblical and theological reflection on the topic Key voices are practitioners and planters themselves here is the biblical theology that the missiological practice of our day has been crying out for John Valentine explores the Bible s how and why for starting new churches and revitalizing old ones in this robust and comprehensive biblical theological look at one aspect of the mission of God

The Missional Church in Perspective (The Missional Network) Craig Van Gelder, Dwight J Zscheile, 2011-05-01 In this book two leading ministry experts place the missional church conversation in historical perspective and offer fresh insights for its further development They begin by providing a helpful review of the genesis of the missional church and offering an insightful critique of the Gospel and Our Culture Network s seminal book Missional Church which set the conversation in motion They map the diverse paths this discussion has taken over the past decade identifying four primary branches and ten sub branches of the conversation and placing over one hundred published titles and websites into this framework The authors then utilize recent developments in biblical and theological perspectives to strengthen and extend the conversation about missional theology the church's interaction with culture and cultures and church organization and leadership in relation to the formation of believers as disciples Professors students and church leaders will value this comprehensive overview of the missional movement It includes a foreword by Alan J Roxburgh

What We Have Seen and Heard Michael E. Connors, 2017-05-11 One of the chief challenges of the Second Vatican Council was to reclaim the meaning of baptism especially as the foundation of service and mission in the world Fifty years after the close of that watershed gathering nineteen distinguished religious leaders and scholars reexamine that challenge and its implications for preaching and ministry today This book reinvigorates an important conversation

The Missional Church and Denominations Craig Van Gelder, 2008-11-03 The Missional Church and Denominations utilizes the missional church conversation as a lens for engaging an important dimension of church life in the United States denominations and denominationalism Denominations have been studied from a wide variety of perspectives including historical sociological and theological but they have yet to be engaged in light of a missional church understanding Here each essay helps to bring further clarity to the word missional and contributes to the ever widening conversation Contributors Daniel R Anderson Marion Wyvetta Bullock David G Forney Wesley Granberg Michaelson Todd Hobart Alan J Roxburgh Kyle J A Small Craig Van Gelder Dwight Zscheile

Repairing the Missional Breach Kevin Blackwell, 2024-04-02 Making disciples is the primary calling of the church however in the past decades of American evangelicalism there has been a breach of Christ's Great Commission as found in Matt 28 19 20 Much of this failure can be attributed to the doctrine and practice within three modern church movements The book offers a history and critique of modern American evangelical church movements including the Church Growth Emergent Church and Missional Church movements Each of these movements did not result in disciple making multiplication In this book you will find an analysis of disciple making in these movements as compared to the methods and model of Jesus Informed by these critiques formative ministry adjustments are presented as a faithful path for future missional approaches

Transforming Mission: Paradigm Shifts in Theology of Mission David J. Bosch, 2011 David Bosch's Transforming Mission now available in over a dozen languages is widely recognized as an historic and magisterial contribution to the study of mission Examining the entire sweep of Christian tradition he shows how five paradigms have historically encapsulated the Christian understanding of mission and then outlines the characteristics of an emerging postmodern paradigm dialectically linking the transcendent and imminent dimensions of salvation In this new anniversary edition Darrel Guder and Martin Reppenhagen explore the impact of Bosch's work and the unfolding application of his seminal vision
