The Monastic Theology of Aelred of Rievaulx Amédée Hallier, 1969 The Monastic Theology of Aelred of Rievaulx; an Experiential Theology ,1969 The Monastic Theology of Aelred of Rievaulx Amedee Hallier, 1969 The monastic theology of Aelred of Rievaulx Amédée Hallier, 1969 The Unity of the Proslogion John Bayer, 2021-09-20

Interpretations of Anselm's Proslogion range between the extremes of rationalism and fideism because of the challenge of unifying its philosophical and devotional aspects. In this book Bayer argues that a monastic interpretation or an interpretation that takes seriously the intellectual significance of our existential commitments offers a powerful compromise. Through an extensive study of Anselm's spirituality especially as it is manifested in his letters and homiletic works coupled with a profound study of Anselm's philosophy of language in the De grammatico and Monologion Bayer aims to reveal the Anselmian unity of life and thought and thereby also the harmony between faith and reason. In this way he defends the Proslogion as a unified and probative argument.

A Companion to Aelred of Rievaulx (1110-1167) Marsha Dutton, 2017-01-23 Brill's Companion to Aelred of Rievaulx explores the life, works and thought of Aelred, Cistercian abbot of Rievaulx Abbey from 1147 to 1167. As well as introducing the three genres of his works: sermons, spiritual teaching and history, scholars survey such central topics as Marian devotion, love and friendship, the sacramental nature of community, lay spirituality and saints' lives. The work also includes the first supplement to the Bibliotheca aelrediana secunda listing publications by and about Aelred from between 1996 and 2015. Aelred is rapidly becoming one of the best known and most loved of the 12th century Cistercians; this book provides welcome new insights into his contributions to the spiritual and political concerns of his place and time. Contributors are Damien Boquet, Pierre-André Burton, Marsha L. Dutton, Elizabeth Freeman, Daniel M. La Corte, Marie-Anne Mayeski, Domenico Pezzini, John R. Sommerfeldt and Katherine Yohe.

Aelred of Rievaulx John R. Sommerfeldt, 2005 For the medieval Cistercian abbot Aelred of Rievaulx human beings are capable of happiness because human nature is good but the self-defeating choices of humans have led to their misery A loving God leads humans to happiness by nudging their free wills toward choosing the good and then if they respond positively giving them the power to realize that good The power or virtue which perfects the human intellect is humility which is not meekness but self-knowledge gained through introspection and meditation on and through nature and Scripture The will is perfected through love without which no human act is good Love for oneself for others and for God are complementary not competing acts of the will A special way of loving is friendship on which Aelred's teaching is perhaps the most complete and most sophisticated in the history of Christian thought Perfection is for Aelred attainable in this life since he sees perfection as a process not a static condition That condition will be attained in the total fulfillment of the afterlife
