Norton, 2024-12-03 Here are 63 traditional stories from world folklore about our nearest relatives monkeys and apes As with many tales about other animals those about monkeys and apes sometimes reflect what we as humans admire about ourselves However the stories more frequently embody features that we dislike Whether they depict monkeys and apes as annoying or clever pranksters imitative nuisances and troublemakers loyal and wise friends or heroic and noble characters who sacrifice themselves for others the selections in this anthology about our closest primate kin can tell us much about ourselves and what it means to be human Understanding Conflicts about Wildlife Catherine M. Hill, Amanda D. Webber, Nancy E. C. Priston, 2017-05-01 Conflicts about wildlife are usually portrayed and understood as resulting from the negative impacts of wildlife on human livelihoods or property However a greater depth of analysis reveals that many instances of human wildlife conflict are often better understood as people people conflict wherein there is a clash of values between different human groups Understanding Conflicts About Wildlife unites academics and practitioners from across the globe to develop a holistic view of these interactions It considers the political and social dimensions of human wildlife conflicts alongside effective methodological approaches and will be of value to academics conservationists and policy makers

The Letters of William Cullen Bryant William Cullen Bryant,Thomas G. Voss,2019-11-05 During the years covered in this volume Bryant traveled more often and widely than at any comparable period during his life The visits to Great Britain and Europe a tour of the Near East and the Holy Land and excursions in Cuba Spain and North Africa as well as two trips to Illinois he described in frequent letters to the Evening Post Reprinted widely and later published in two volumes these met much critical acclaim one notice praising the quiet charm of these letters written mostly from out of the way places giving charming pictures of nature and people with the most delicate choice of words and yet in the perfect simplicity of the true epistolary style His absence during nearly one fifth of this nine year period reflected the growing prosperity of Bryant s newspaper and his confidence in his editorial partner John Bigelow and correspondents such as William S Thayer as well as in the financial acumen of his business partner Isaac Henderson These were crucial years in domestic politics however and Bryant s guidance of Evening Post policies was evident in editorials treating major issues such as the Compromise of 1850 the Fugitive Slave Law the Kansas Nebraska Bill the rise of the Republican Party and the Dred Scott Decision as well as in his correspondence with such statesmen as Salmon P Chase Hamilton Fish William L Marcy Edwin D Morgan and Charles Sumner His travel letters and journalistic writings reflected as well his acute interest in a Europe in turmoil In France and Germany he saw the struggles between revolution and repression in Spain he talked with journalists parliamentary leaders and the future president of the first Spanish republic in New York he greeted Louis Kossuth and Giuseppe Garibaldi Bryant s close association with the arts continued He sat for portraits to a dozen painters among them Henry P Gray Daniel Huntington Asher Durand Charles L Elliott and Samuel Laurence The landscapists continued to be inspired by his poetic themes Sculptor Horatio Greenough asked of Bryant a critical reading of his pioneering essays on functionalism His old friend the tragedian Edwin Forrest sought his mediation in what would become the most sensational divorce case of the century with Bryant and his family as witnesses His long advocacy of a great central park in New York was consummated by the legislature And in 1852 his eulogy on the life of James Fenimore Cooper became the first of several such orations which would establish him as the memorialist of his literary contemporaries in New York

Global Ecology in Historical Perspective Kazunobu Ikeya, William Balée, 2023-03-10 This book primarily examines human animal and human plant interactions in Asian forests Southeast Asia and Japan and inland waters China For comparison cases from the Americas whales in the Arctic sea turtles in the Caribbean and plants in the Amazon and Central Asia are also included The relationship between plants animals and humans in Asia is quite unique from a global perspective For example satoyama in Japan means ecotone area or the boundary between a village and a forest There as the number of inhabitants declines bears wild boars and other animals increasingly ravage crops sometimes attacking humans as well By showing the regional nature of human animal and human plant interactions in Asia this book provides for the first time a framework for understanding the world s animal and plant human relationships It is assumed that the relationships between humans and animals and plants during this period were diverse including hunting taming semi domestication and full domestication At the same time for regions outside of Asia the extent to which these diverse relationships were adapted and how diversity was formed is explained from the perspective of historical ecology Customers can expect to derive perspectives on the coexistence of human animal and plant animal relationships from this book in the near future The conservation of rare species diverse habitats and biodiversity is a central theme in considering the relationship between modern civilization and the global environment In post industrial Japan one focus has been the protection of iconic animals such as storks crested
