and exploration which instilled in him a love for storytelling that crosses the boundaries of time and place His experiences in both World War I and his parliamentary career informed his understanding of courage and sacrifice themes that resonate throughout this collection making it a testament to his belief in the indomitable nature of the human spirit For readers seeking a blend of adventure and introspection The Moon Endureth offers a delightful escape into Buchan's imaginative realm With its engaging narratives and reflective depth this collection invites readers to explore the enduring nature of dreams and the human experience It is both a historical reflection and a timeless journey making it a valuable addition to the libraries of both literary scholars and casual readers alike

The Moon Endureth John Buchan, 2019-02 The Moon Endureth subtitled Tales and Fancies is a 1912 short story and poetry collection by the Scottish author John Buchan Title In an introduction to the collection Buchan quotes from an article on St Francis in Lives of the Saints To the righteous is promised abundance of peace while the moon endureth Psalms 72:7 in the King James Version has In his days shall the righteous flourish and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth The collection includes the following short stories and poems The stories Streams of Water in the South and The Rime of True Thomas were reprinted from a former collection Grey Weather The remaining tales had all previously appeared in Blackwood's Magazine 3 From the Pentlands Looking North and South poem I The Company of the Marjolaine short story Avignon poem II A Lucid Interval short story The Shorter Catechism poem III The Lemnian short story Atta's Song poem IV Space short story Stocks and Stones poem V Streams of Water in the South short story The Gipsy's Song to the Lady Cassilis poem VI The Grove of Ashtaroth short story Wood Magic poem VII The Riding of Ninemileburn short story Plain Folk poem VIII The Kings of Orion short story Babylon poem IX The Green Glen short story The Wise Years poem X The Rime of True Thomas short story John Buchan 1st Baron Tweedsmuir GCMG GCVO CH PC 26 August 1875 11 February 1940 was a Scottish novelist historian and Unionist politician who served as Governor General of Canada the 15th since Canadian Confederation After a brief legal career Buchan simultaneously began his writing career and his political and diplomatic careers serving as a private secretary to the administrator of various colonies in southern Africa He eventually wrote propaganda for the British war effort during World War I He was elected Member of Parliament for the Combined Scottish Universities in 1927 but he spent most of his time on his writing career notably writing The Thirty Nine Steps and other adventure fiction In 1935 King George V on the advice of Prime Minister R B Bennett appointed Buchan to replace the Earl of Bessborough as Governor General of Canada for which purpose Buchan was raised to the peerage He occupied the post until his death in 1940 Buchan was enthusiastic about literacy and the development of Canadian culture and he received a state funeral in Canada before his ashes were returned to the United Kingdom

The Moon Endureth John Buchan, 2019-06-02 Dealing mainly with the mysterious and the inexplicable these stories lead the reader through the weird uncharted borderland swayed by the psychic supernatural or invisible powers Mystery romance and adventure abound in them Contrasting with tales of this type are realistic tales of both the past and the present Both kinds of stories will appeal to those of discriminating literary taste Many of these stories on their first appearance in the magazines were hailed as works of rare originality and imaginative power One critic going so far as to say that the story entitled The Lemnian is the best short story in the English Language The Moon Endureth, Tales and Fancies John Buchan, 2006-08 This large print title is set in Tias 16pt font as recommended by the RNIB The Moon Endureth John Buchan, 2014 The Moon Endureth Blackwood is a collection of tales and fancies in prose and verse which Mr John Buchan has contributed to Blackwood's Magazine It reminds me of an old well thumbed saffron book called I think Tales from Blackwood which was one of the soberer delights of my schoolboy days a many moons ago It isn't only that in several of the stories Mr Buchan makes me feel the thrill and ecstasy that comes of the cool clean breath of mountain and moor and loch and the boundless space of sunlit skies and the sound of running waters That he can always do when he sets his mind to it But he has somehow caught the indefinable spirit of the old Maga magic which makes a typical Blackwood story as different from ordinary magazine fiction as the spacious repose of Tudor houses from the irritating pretence of modern jerry built villas

The Wallet of Kai Lung Ernest Bramah, 2019-11-20 In The Wallet of Kai Lung Ernest Bramah masterfully crafts a captivating collection of stories that blend ancient Chinese folklore with a distinctly English sense of humor The narrative unfolds through the exploits of the clever and witty Kai Lung a wandering storyteller whose tales are laced with moral lessons and satirical observations on humanity Bramah's whimsical prose and intricate wordplay invite readers into a vivid world where cleverness triumphs over brute force reflecting a literary style that marries absurdity with depth positioning the work within the tradition of the fantastical yet reflective narratives of the early 20th century Bramah an English author who was significantly influenced by the literary traditions of Asia showcases his fascination with Eastern philosophy and culture throughout this work His experiences as a writer and his broader engagement with Oriental themes during a time when Western fascination with the East was burgeoning allowed him to create a character that navigates cultural nuances with both humor and insight These influences are palpable in his vivid imagination and his ability to blend narrative forms seamlessly The Wallet of Kai Lung is highly recommended for readers seeking a playful yet insightful exploration of storytelling and morality Bramah's unique blend of humor and wisdom offers an enriching experience that not only entertains but also provokes reflection on the art of narrative itself Delve into this enchanting collection to discover the timeless brilliance of Kai Lung's tales

Aladdin or The Wonderful Lamp Anonymous, 2019-11-26 Aladdin or The Wonderful Lamp a timeless tale from the collection of Middle Eastern folklore known as One Thousand and One Nights enchants readers with its vibrant storytelling and rich cultural tapestry Set against a backdrop of magic and adventure the narrative follows the journey of Aladdin a poor youth who discovers a magical lamp containing a powerful genie The prose combines an oral storytelling tradition with sophisticated narrative techniques employing a mesmerizing structure that interweaves themes of fate ambition and the transformative power of wealth This text not only serves as a thrilling adventure but also critiques social hierarchies and the moral implications of desire The author of this beloved tale remains shrouded in mystery reflective of the oral traditions from which it originates The story likely draws upon a myriad of influences traversing cultures and historical contexts as it resonated with audiences across various societies and eras Its universal themes of aspiration and morality may stem from the author's desire to impart wisdom and entertain simultaneously ensuring its place in the pantheon of classic literature This enchanting story is highly recommended for readers of all ages as it delves into the complexities of human desire while captivating the imagination with its spellbinding elements Whether you are seeking a leisurely read or exploring cultural narratives Aladdin or The Wonderful Lamp promises to be a profound journey into the human experience shimmering with the allure of the extraordinary

The Moon Endureth John Buchan, 2020-11-02 I came down from the mountain and into the pleasing valley of the Adige in as pelting a heat as ever mortal suffered under The way underfoot was parched and white I had newly come out of a wilderness of white limestone crags and a sun of Italy blazed blindingly in an azure Italian sky You are to suppose my dear aunt that I had had enough and something more of my craze for foot marching A fortnight ago I had gone to Belluno in a post chaise dismissed my fellow to carry my baggage by way of Verona and with no more than a valise on my back plunged into the fastnesses of those mountains I had a fancy to see the little sculptured hills which made backgrounds for Gianbellini and there were rumours of great mountains built wholly of marble which shone like the battlements
