An Annotated Bibliography of Indian English Fiction, 2001 Endeavouring To Accomplish An Intractable Tight Rope Walking Indian English Literature Seeks To Incorporate Indian Themes And Experience In A Blend Of Indian And Western Aesthetics What The Diverse Dimensions Of The Indian Experience And The Evolving Literary Form Are And Whether The Former Reconciles With The Latter Or Not Is Sought To Be Examined In The Present Volume Of This Anthology A Strikingly Fresh Perspective On The Hitherto Unexplored Areas Of Old Works A Bold And Incisive Critique Of New Works
Perspectives on Indian Fiction in English M. K. Naik, 1985 This is the fourth and final volume in the pioneering series on Perspectives on Major Forms of Indian English Literature edited by Professor M K Naik Following the pattern of the earlier three volumes this collection also includes two types of essays those evaluating the entire corpus of major fictionists and schools and those attempting intensive textual analyses of outstanding novels like Untouchable The Guide The Serpent and the Rope and Midnight's children The final essay on The Achievement of Indian Fiction in English is an attempt to survey the entire field and evaluate the total achievement in this genre A number of collections of critical essays on Indian fiction in English have appeared during recent years but perhaps none of them has the range and depth of this volume The contributors include distinguished scholars such as K R Srinivasa Iyengar V A Shahane D V K Raghavacharyulu Prema Nandakumar and the editor M K Naik himself The carefully selective Bibliography appended to the volume has further enhanced its value as a comprehensive collection of incisive critical studies covering the entire range of Indian fiction in English and this series which is now complete easily constitutes a significant landmark in the ongoing scrutiny of Indian English literature
A Critical Study of the Novels Dr. Roshan Benjamin Khan, 2016-03-23 This is a comparative study of the unaccredited yet formidable five major Indian Muslim women novelists Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain Zeenuth Futehally Iqbalunnisa Hussain Tara Ali Baig and Attia Hossain The book explores their work with regard to themes like patriarchy feminism religiosity nationality secularity and above all liberty Their contribution to the growth of novel writing in English cannot go ignored as they created a momentum in writing novel using English language as a medium of combined feminist statements with a message to liberate Muslim women from religious conventions social taboos and a male dominated world The study of their novels also makes us aware of the grit and determination and the sheer hunger of these writers to make their mark to speak out unequivocally against prejudice basically to enlighten us how their personalities were shaped and eventually established Their sensitivities as women give an edge to the entire narrative as does their unprecedented and undaunted dare to the oppressors In the great tradition of modern and postmodern fiction our writers use their pen to stand up against inequality of any kind and to undo the stereotypes leading themselves by example A Princely Impostor? Partha Chatterjee, 2020-09-01 In 1921 a traveling religious man appeared in eastern British Bengal. Soon residents began to identify this half naked and ash smeared sannyasi as none other than the Second Kumar of Bhawal, a man believed to have died twelve years earlier at the age of twenty six. So began one of the most extraordinary legal cases in Indian history. The case would rivet popular attention for several decades as it unwound in courts from Dhaka and Calcutta to London. This narrative history tells an incredible story replete with courtroom drama, sexual debauchery, family intrigue and squandered wealth. With a novelist's eye for interesting detail, Partha Chatterjee sifts through evidence found in official archives, popular songs and backstreet Bangladeshi bookshops. He evaluates the case of the man claiming, with the support of legions of tenants and relatives, to be the long lost Kumar. And he considers the position of the sannyasi's detractors, including the colonial government and the Kumar's young widow, who resolutely refused to meet the man she denounced as an impostor. Along the way, Chatterjee introduces us to a fascinating range of human character, gleans insights into the nature of human identity and examines the relation between scientific evidence, legal truth and cultural practice. The story he tells unfolds alongside decades of Indian history. Its plot is shaped by changing gender and class relations and punctuated by critical historical events, including the onset of World War II, the Bengal famine of 1943 and the Great Calcutta Killings. And by identifying the earliest erosion of colonialism and the growth of nationalist thinking within the organs of colonial power, Chatterjee also gives us a secret history of Indian nationalism.

Literature in English, 1827-1979 Amritjit Singh, Rajiva Verma, Irene M. Joshi, 1981 Indian Women's Writing in English Joel Kuortti, 2002 This is a remarkable collection of information on Indian women's writing, written originally in English. Beginning from the 19th century, it introduces 444 writers of poetry and fiction. Now it has become a part of common critical parlance to say that the Indian English women's writing is in ascendance. One aim of this bibliography is to illustrate this phenomenon and to emphasise the variety of writing. Writers included in the bibliography come from all over India and from the Indian diaspora all over the world. Another aim of this bibliography is to make us aware of the constructed nature of writerhood. A given writer's texts do not exist and circulate in a vacuum but in a context. We can see that Indian English women's writing is taking place. But what we do not see is the critical establishment that is literary scholars and critics taking much note of it.
