The Moon Seen As A Slice Of Pineapple:

The Moon Seen as a Slice of Pineapple Conrad Hilberry, 1984 The Downstream Extremity of the Isle of Swans Mary Jo Bang, 2001 This compelling book takes its title from Samuel Beckett's Ohio Impromptu. In Beckett's play a grieving beloved seeks relief from the haunting presence of a departed lover in a place where from its single window he could see the downstream extremity of the Isle of Swans. With a bow to Beckett's style and linguistic playfulness, Mary Jo Bang's collection of poems deals compassionately and gracefully with the tangible world. Bang's savvy alliterative insistence sweeps the reader along as her poems collectively offer a world delicately structured from memorable fragments of experience, emotion, things, and places inside and outside the human psyche. Poems from the Same Ghost Jack Ridl, 1993-10 The Very Thought of You Andy Robbins, 2010-01-01 Andy Robbins concludes in Au bout de l'anglais that Art and life are not the same. Never. He challenges the nature of both with this volume of highly personal, sensual, searching poetry that treats life as a work in progress with love in all its aspects as its driving force. Creating poems as technically skilled as they are emotionally powerful, Robbins uses a variety of formal and idiomatic dictions. Though the individual works are as unique in subject as in structure, the book is unified by a discomfort with emotional and intellectual stagnancy, with ancient mythology, religious doctrines, and popular culture. The book radiates the immediate energy of mind in action, question, and reflection, challenging the very thought of writer and reader. A Drowning Man is Never Tall Enough Patrick Lawler, 1990-01-01 This is a poetry of excursions into maps of lost territories, into the thoughts of a man with no legs, into the life of a town marked by disasters. Patrick Lawler moves into the slender lines of shattered glass, the spaces between lyric and narrative, between metamorphosis and mutation. From the artful surface of a Russian novel rich with symbolism and white bears to a survivor's unwillingness to immerse himself in life or leave it, the poems in A Drowning Man Is Never Tall Enough hunger for a language beyond the solid for the fragmentation that makes a scene complete. Index of American Periodical Verse 1980 Rafael Català, Sander W. Zulauf, James D. Anderson, 1995-06-13 The Index of American Periodical Verse is an important work for contemporary poetry research and is an objective measure of poetry that includes poets from the United States, Canada, and the Caribbean, as well as other lands, cultures, and times. It reveals trends in the output of particular poets and the cultural influences they represent. The publications indexed cover a broad cross section of poetry: literary, scholarly, popular, general, and little magazines, journals, and reviews. The Violence of the Morning Calvin Bedient, 2002 Groundbreaking new poetry evokes a wide range of influences from Kant to the Upanishads while making deep exploratory journeys into the complexities of sexual relationships, disease, heartbreak, and death. Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition. Original. Hummers, Knucklers, and Slow Curves Don Johnson, 1991 A charmer. Some titles include Late Innings, Baseball Divine, Comedy, 4th Base, Mantle. On the roster are poets like John Updike, Gregory Corso, Robert Penn Warren, Donald Hall, and Richard Eberhart. The collection includes heroes, villains, and the high and low drama of sport. There is also philosophical bite.

The Christian Science Monitor After I Was Dead Laura Mullen, 2008-08-01 This powerful collection of poems from Laura Mullen is the edgy unashamedly experimental and formally inventive book of a poet who has found her way to her own voice or style or rather voices and styles for there are several The poems of After I Was Dead develop harmonically rather than melodically they leap from one register one voice one tone to another in deft juxtapositions that carry narrative only incidentally destabilizing traditional notions of development These poems are honed by a fine intelligence into elegant sometimes funny art as in Autumn Her hair brown Her specialty damage Her specialty becoming Something else Her hair falling Leaves leaf rot and then soil Through her rediscovery of the freedom Emily Dickinson located in being dead in writing from over the border of an already recognized erasure Mullen increases the territory of the contemporary poem The Book of Motion Tung-Hui Hu, 2003 This debut collection explores memory cities motion Tung Hui Hu's tone has some of the swampy wit that recalls Calvino or Michaux A man swaps bodies with his lover a mapmaker holds captive a city which needs his crystal telescope to navigate through streets unreadable as palm lines a car pushed off a cliff in a fit of anger becomes home for a school of fish Anchored by the sequence Elegies for self Hu's poetry brings a quiet sophistication to syntax diction and form Depth Theology Peter O'Leary, 2006 Depth Theology taps the religious potential of poetry to access both the interior and the exterior worlds Inspired by depth psychology the field of psychology devoted to the unconscious Peter O'Leary's poems work to discover the religious knowledge of the unconscious mind While seeking a revelatory poetry O'Leary engages the inconclusive quality of the revealed observing that There's a liquidy trickiness to life an entropy of spillage The religious imagination that evolves in this series of thirty four poems is unclouded by dogma and richly colored by erudition while it tests the limits of human language and experience in an effort to understand our inwardness Overflowing with images of birds and other objects of day to day experience interwoven with the mythic allegorical and biblical Depth Theology charts a path to understanding our innermost worlds From Lux Contemplatio there is no place anymore for us to migrate The need yet remains Antarctica means now an interior domain Curiosity about our inner life increases A nomad's desert God is an inward generator Our outward movement yields our soul's circumcession its insitting in rotation with the divine abeyance Contemporary Michigan Poetry Michael Delp, Conrad Hilberry, Herbert Scott, 1988 As David Wagoner wrote in the earlier volume The Third Coast A Michigan poet may be undistinguishable from an Illinois poet or an Arizona poet except for subject matter but the publication of this anthology serves to underline one layer of regional cultural strength even though these are not regional poets Over a decade later Contemporary Michigan Poetry is testimony that Michigan poetry continues to flourish Preserving the mood and texture of Michigan in the 1980s this new collection includes the best recent work by the state's most accomplished poets Among the fifty three contributors are Charles Baxter Alice Fulton Jim Harrison Janet Kaufmann Josie Kearns Thomas Lynch John R Reed and Stephen Tudor Each of the editors is also a contributor to this sampling of poems Styles range from understated to extravagant from closely observed to freely imagined

Poems are as varied as the Michigan landscape Remarkable in its scope and quality Contemporary Michigan Poetry offers an arresting look at Michigan life and a special glimpse at the preoccupations that possess residents on the Third Coast

Desire in L.A. Martha Clare Ronk,1990 Desire in L A confronts limitless longing in a city that is itself without limits In these poems the object of desire is decidedly missing whether that object be love or beauty or the past Shifting even within a single poem and certainly from section to section the objects of desire in Martha Ronk s poetry become as elusive as the unnamed Marilyn Monroe that image of another s skirts of the title poem or the moment captured in A photograph as good as a picture He leans forward with such fervor yet isn t young and something decidedly is happening even to the beefy fellow in his white short sleeved shirt A photograph oh perhaps not the same as a Manet but it is Auden and for whatever reason he stares at the square flesh neckline of her dress He is forward in his chair ruffled about the collar and everyone is wearing black and white It is the formal occasion of how much he cares to be there Venice 1951 and how much I care to see him no matter what for longing like that Moving from thwarted examples of family and place to language and its corruptions from classical Japanese love poems to failed love in the southwestern desert from emotionality to artifice the book ends with a series focused on the slipperiness of all categories Dare Say Tod Marshall,2002 Three long poems illuminate broken and violated things using Bach Kandinsky and Botticelli as raw material for poetic musing Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Poetry

Vital Signs Ronald Wallace,1989 This anthology includes 179 poets published by university presses in recent years It seeks to provide a rich overview of the best contemporary American poetry irrespective of publisher age of poet aesthetic program or current status in the literary canon to celebrate the work of university presses in discovering and supporting that poetry and to suggest some questions about American poetry its democratization canonization aesthetics politics and sociology The volume includes brief histories of poetry publishing at each press their poetry lists and an essay on the American poetry scene of the last 20 years It features poems by such established poets as John Ashbery Marge Piercy Adrienne Rich and James Wright ISBN 0 299 12160 7 29 95 Dwelling Song Sally Keith,2004 As a hummingbird beats its wings so that it might be still to feed on a flower the poet concludes The equation keeps balancing out and I m drawn to how it does not settle Aware of the difficulty of loving the world while feeding upon it the poems of Dwelling Song hope vision is levity as they press language to make sight and song This writing is a form of mimicry yet an act of dangerous flight Whether from the voice of a hunter shepherd farmer or bugle blowing boy on a city street the song recognizes that moving forward necessitates turning one s back Luke Karamazov Conrad Hilberry,1987 A vivid and detailed portrait of serial murder brothers Luke Karamazov and Tommy Searl

All Aberration Terese Svoboda,2009-09-01 These are poems of family of romantic hope and disappointment of parenthood and of grief that move from a childhood in Nebraska in which a father strides into a ripe wheat field to the parks and parking lots of New York City the interchangeable landscapes of suburban America and the more sensual environment of secluded water to little traveled parts of Africa and the Pacific where our customs and passions are refracted into shapes that are sometimes beautiful sometimes grotesque Terese Svoboda writes of a world in which the reassuring simplicity remembered from childhood is difficult to recover Outside of this vision of the past all present life seems an aberration an existence where violence can supplant love families break apart a child dies All Aberration received a starred review in Publishers Weekly a lead in Contemporary Poetry 1986 and a Notable Book nomination by the American Library Association It was written during stays at Yaddo MacDowell and Ossabaw and received the benefit of a Creative Artists Public Service grant in 1982 Its poems first appeared in such magazines as Harper s The Nation Paris Review and Ploughshares New Poems from the Third Coast Michael Delp, Conrad Hilberry, Josie Kearns, 2000 An anthology that offers a sampling of the best poetry written by Michigan writers In 1976 Wayne State University Press published The Third Coast Contemporary Michigan Poetry an anthology that offered a sampling of the best poetry written by Michigan writers A second Third Coast anthology was published in 1988 with many new poets and a wider range of styles New Poems from the Third Coast continues that tradition with fifty six writers from across the state sharing their poetic glimpses of trout streams schoolrooms and restaurants as well as portraits of friends families lovers and life in Michigan Although this collection is only a sampling of the rich literary culture alive in Michigan New Poems from the Third Coast is a lively and carefully crafted collection of poems from a variety of Michigan voices Michael Delp Conrad Hilberry and Josie Kearns have balanced the old and the new and combined them in a strong contribution to contemporary poetry The Reservoir Donna Stonecipher, 2002 The poet blends narrative and lyrical forms to explore the line between the artificial and real in our society using the reservoir as a metaphor for this mystery Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Poetry
