supposed to be affected by the lunar influence the moon in this latter case also giving the name by which the stone is still known to collectors in our own time The adventures of the Yellow Diamond begin with the eleventh century of the Christian era At that date the Mohammedan conqueror Mahmoud of Ghizni crossed India seized on the holy city of Somnauth and stripped of its treasures the famous temple which had stood for centuries the shrine of Hindoo pilgrimage and the wonder of the Eastern world Of all the deities worshipped in the temple the moon god alone escaped the rapacity of the conquering Mohammedans Preserved by three Brahmins the inviolate deity bearing the Yellow Diamond in its forehead was removed by night and was transported to the second of the sacred cities of India the city of Benares Here in a new shrine in a hall inlaid with precious stones under a roof supported by pillars of gold the moon god was set up and worshipped Here on the night when the shrine was completed Vishnu the Preserver appeared to the three Brahmins in a dream The deity breathed the breath of his divinity on the Diamond in the forehead of the god And the Brahmins knelt and hid their faces in their robes The deity commanded that the Moonstone should be watched from that time forth by three priests in turn night and day to the end of the generations of men And the Brahmins heard and bowed before his will The deity predicted certain disaster to the presumptuous mortal who laid hands on the sacred gem and to all of his house and name who received it after him And the Brahmins caused the prophecy to be written over the gates of the shrine in letters of gold One age followed another and still generation after generation the successors of the three Brahmins watched their priceless Moonstone night and day One age followed another until the first years of the eighteenth Christian century saw the reign of Aurungzebe Emperor of the Moguls At his command havoc and rapine were let loose once more among the temples of the worship of Brahmah The shrine of the four handed god was polluted by the slaughter of sacred animals
