Jacobs, 2004 Remains of the Jews studies the rise of Christian Empire in late antiquity 300 550 C E through the dense and complex manner in which Christian authors wrote about Jews in the charged space of the holy land The book employs contemporary cultural studies particularly postcolonial criticism to read Christian writings about holy land Jews as colonial writings These writings created a cultural context in which Christians viewed themselves as powerful and in which perhaps Jews were able to construct a posture of resistance to this new Christian Empire Remains of the Jews reexamines familiar types of literature biblical interpretation histories sermons letters from a new perspective in order to understand how power and resistance shaped religious identities in the later Roman Empire      Paul and the Nations James M. Scott, 1995 From reviews Scott offers us a new way to resolve an old problem Instead of viewing Paul s geographical understanding of the world from a merely Greco Roman perspective he suggests that we begin with Paul s distinctly Jewish perspective of the world s geography the table of the nations Here Scott makes a compelling case and opens new vistas for understanding Paul as the apostle of the nations Frank J Matera in The Catholic Biblical Quarterly No 59 1997 398 399      Public Spectacles in Roman and Late Antique Palestine Zeev Weiss, 2014-03-24 Wishing to ingratiate himself with Rome Herod the Great built theaters amphitheaters and hippodromes to bring pagan entertainments of all sorts to Palestine Zeev Weiss explores how the indigenous Jewish and Christian populations responded as both spectators and performers to these cultural imports which left a lasting imprint on the region      Early Christian Scripture and the Samaritan Pentateuch Bradley Marsh Jr., 2024-01-01 No detailed description available for Early Christian Scripture and the Samaritan Pentateuch      Damqatum - Number 19 (2023) Jorge Cano Moreno, 2023-12-31 Damqatum is a journal dedicated to the history and archaeology of the Near East oriented to the general public      The History of Jerusalem Alan J. From the Passion to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre Jordan J. Ryan, 2021-01-14 Since the early 4th century Christian pilgrims and visitors to Judea and Galilee have worshipped at and been inspired by monumental churches erected at sites traditionally connected with the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth This book examines the history and archaeology of early Christian holy sites and traditions connected with specific places in order to understand them as interpretations of Jesus and to explore them as instantiations of memories of him Ryan s overarching aim is to construe these places as instantiations of what historian Pierre Nora has called lieux de m moires sites where memory crystallizes and where possible to track the course and development of the traditions underlying them from their genesis in the Gospel narratives to their eventual solidification in the form of pilgrimage sites So doing will bring rarely considered evidence to the study of early Christian memory which in turn helps to illuminate the person of Jesus himself in both history and reception

The Literary and Archaeological Sources Jacob Neusner, 2015-11-02 This volume introduces the sources of Judaism in late antiquity to scholars in adjacent fields such as the study of the Old and New Testaments Ancient History the ancient Near East and the history of religion In two volumes leading American Israeli and European specialists in the history literature theology and archaeology of Judaism offer factual answers to the two questions that the study of any religion in ancient times must raise The first is what are the sources written and in material culture that inform us about that religion The second is how have we to understand those sources in reconstructing the history of various Judaic systems in antiquity The chapters set forth in simple statements intelligible to non specialists the facts which the sources provide Because of the nature of the subject and acute interest in it the specialists also raise some questions particular to the study of Judaism dealing with its historical relationship with nascent Christianity in New Testament times The work forms the starting point for the study of all the principal questions concerning Judaism in late antiquity and sets forth the most current critical results of scholarship      Mosaics of Faith Rina Talgam, 2014 An analytical history of the Hellenistic Roman Byzantine Umayyad and Early Abbasid mosaics in the Holy Land from the second century B C E to eighth century C E      The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church Andrew Louth, 2022-02-17 Uniquely authoritative and wide ranging in its scope The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church is the indispensable reference work on all aspects of the Christian Church It contains over 6 500 cross referenced A Z entries and offers unrivalled coverage of all aspects of this vast and often complex subject from theology churches and denominations patristic scholarship and the bible to the church calendar and its organization popes archbishops other church leaders saints and mystics In this new edition great efforts have been made to increase and strengthen coverage of non Anglican denominations for example non Western European Christianity as well as broadening the focus on Christianity and the history of churches in areas beyond Western Europe In particular there have been extensive additions with regards to the Christian Church in Asia Africa Latin America North America and Australasia Significant updates have also been included on topics such as liturgy Canon Law recent international developments non Anglican missionary activity and the increasingly important area of moral and pastoral theology among many others Since its first appearance in 1957 the ODCC has established itself as an essential resource for ordinands clergy and members of religious orders and an invaluable tool for academics teachers and students of church history and theology as well as for the general reader      A Century of Miracles H. A. Drake, 2017-08-01 The fourth century of our common era began and ended with a miracle Traditionally in the year 312 the Roman emperor Constantine experienced a vision of the Cross that led him to convert to Christianity and to defeat his last rival to the imperial throne and in 394 a divine wind carried the emperor Theodosius to victory at the battle of the Frigidus River Other stories heralded the discovery of the True Cross by Constantine's mother Helena and the rise of a new kind of miracle maker in the deserts of Egypt and Syria These miracle stories helped Christians understand the dizzying changes they experienced in the fourth century Far more than the outdated narrative of a life and death struggle between Christians and pagans they help us understand the darker turn Christianity took in subsequent ages In A Century of Miracles historian H A Drake explores the role miracle stories played in helping Christians pagans and Jews think about themselves and each other These stories he concludes bolstered Christian belief that their god wanted the empire to be Christian Most importantly they help explain how after a century of trumpeting the power of their god Christians were able to deal with their failure to protect the city of Rome from a barbarian sack by the Gothic army of Alaric in 410 Augustine s magnificent City of God eventually established a new theoretical basis for success but in the meantime the popularity of miracle stories reassured the faithful even when the miracles came to an end Thoroughly researched within a wide range of faiths and belief systems A Century of Miracles provides an absorbing illumination of this complex polytheistic and decidedly mystical phenomenon Dead Sea Discoveries, 1996
