The Mosques Of London:

The Mosques of London Fatima Gailani, 2000 The Contemporary British Mosque Abdul-Azim Ahmed, 2024-03-21

Repositioning mosques as social cultural and political spaces this book provides new insights on key contemporary debates the religious identity of Britain secularisation the far right and terrorism and gender equality Exploring the story of the British mosque from house conversions to grand works of architecture and the role they play in public life Abdul Azim Ahmed details the establishment of early mosques during the era of Empire and the rapid growth in the years following the Second World War Ahmed takes a sociological approach to this study drawing on fieldwork and ethnographic case studies alongside reviews of databases and historical documents to provide perspectives on the British mosque from the congregants themselves The Muslim congregation a poorly understood and often overlooked dimension of religion in Britain is examined and issues of diversity denomination sacredness and society are explored Rethinking the Mosque In the Modern

Muslim Society Mohamad Tajuddin Mohamad Rasdi, 2014 Reclaiming the Mosque Jasser Auda, 2017-05 At a time when misogyny and hostile attitudes towards women are plaguing Muslim communities throughout the world Dr Jasser Auda presents a timely and vital challenge to the contentious issue of women s access to the mosque expounding an Islamic perspective Reclaiming The Mosque is a crucial response to the current trials facing Muslim communities and moreover it offers a clear and cohesive call to action that harks back to the Islamic principles of freedom justice and human rights

Mosques in the Metropolis Elisabeth Becker, 2021-09-20 Mosques in the Metropolis is a dual site ethnographic study of two of Europe s largest mosques one a conservative Islamist community in London and the other a progressive Muslim community in Berlin The contrasting sites allow sociologist Elisabeth Becker to provide a complex picture of Islam in Europe at a particularly fraught time She spent over thirty months studying the mosques through immersion and interviews and provides an analysis that goes deep into European Muslim communities Individual Muslim voices come through loud and clear for example the young mother of three in London trying to reconcile her conservative religious views with her desire to leave her husband as do the historical and structural forces at play Ultimately Becker insists that caste is a crucial lens through which to view Islam in Europe and through this lens she critiques what she perceives as failing European pluralism To amplify her point Becker brings Jewish history and twentieth century Jewish thought into the conversation directly drawing on the ways in which Bauman and Arendt utilized the concept of caste to describe Jewish life and marginality What is at stake here is nothing less than the fundamental values of freedom equality and individual rights ostensibly the bedrock of European identity The Place of the Mosque Akel Ismail Kahera, 2022-06-14 The Place of the Mosque Genealogies of Space Knowledge and Power extends Foucault s analysis Of Other Spaces and the ideological conflicts which underlie the controversies of our day and take place between pious descendants of time and tenacious inhabitants of space This book uses Foucault s framework to illuminate how mosques have been threatened in the past from the Cordoba Mosque in the eighth century to the development of Moorish aesthetics in the United States in the nineteenth century to the clashes surrounding the building of mosques in the West in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Akel Kahera uses Foucault's genealogy to elaborate on and study the subjects that are caught in the emergence of a battle the social and political will to power the networks of power and the rituals of power within the interstitial space In going beyond individual buildings to broader geographical and genealogical dimensions of the power struggles The Place of the Mosque reconciles the public space experience governmentality and micro powers paving the way for a new philosophical language Expanding architectural and urban regional approaches Kahera shows the biopolitical significance of the problem of space Muslim Diaspora in Britain Sabah Khan, 2024-03-13 This book explores the idea of Muslim diaspora in context of Muslim communities in the United Kingdom It critically looks at the notion of ummah and presents a comprehensive account of South Asian Muslims in London Employing qualitative research methods and drawing on extensive fieldwork it delves into the identification and transnational connections of Muslims in Britain It shows the ways in which religious identity practices and experiences may instigate diasporas focusing on South Asian Muslims in London Indian Pakistani and Bangladeshi Muslims who account for 3.6 per cent of the total population Further the inter as well as intra group dynamics and studies how Muslims of different ethnic background settled in the same geo political context engage with the notion of ummah The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of religion especially Islam politics British studies and South Asian studies Somali, Muslim, British Giulia Liberatore, 2020-05-27 Somalis are one of the most chastised Muslim communities in Europe Depicted in the news as victims of female genital mutilation perpetrators of gang violence or more recently as radical Islamists Somalis have been cast as a threat to social cohesion national identity and security in Britain and beyond Somali Muslim British shifts attention away from these public representations to provide a detailed ethnographic study of Somali Muslim women's engagements with religion political discourses and public culture in the United Kingdom The book chronicles the aspirations of different generations of Somali women as they respond to publicly charged questions of what it means to be Muslim Somali and British By challenging and reconfiguring the dominant political frameworks in which they are immersed these women imagine new ways of being in securitized Britain Giulia Liberatore provides a nuanced account of Islamic piety arguing that it needs to be understood as one among many forms of striving that individuals pursue throughout their lives Bringing new perspectives to debates about Islam and multiculturalism in Europe this book makes an important contribution to the anthropology of religion subjectivity and gender The Bengal Diaspora Claire Alexander, Joya Chatterji, Annu Jalais, 2015-11-06 India's partition in 1947 and the creation of Bangladesh in 1971 saw the displacement and resettling of millions of Muslims and Hindus resulting in profound transformations across the region A third of the region's population sought shelter across new borders almost all of them resettling in the Bengal delta itself A similar number were internally displaced while others moved to the Middle East North America and Europe Using a creative interdisciplinary approach

combining historical sociological and anthropological approaches to migration and diaspora this book explores the experiences of Bengali Muslim migrants through this period of upheaval and transformation It draws on over 200 interviews conducted in Britain India and Bangladesh tracing migration and settlement within and from the Bengal delta region in the period after 1947 Focussing on migration and diaspora from below it teases out fascinating hidden migrant stories including those of women refugees and displaced people It reveals surprising similarities and important differences in the experience of Muslim migrants in widely different contexts and places whether in the towns and hamlets of Bengal delta or in the cities of Britain Counter posing accounts of the structures that frame migration with the textures of how migrants shape their own movement it examines what it means to make new homes in a context of diaspora The book is also unique in its focus on the experiences of those who stayed behind and in its analysis of ruptures in the migration process Importantly the book seeks to challenge crude attitudes to Muslim migrants which assume their cultural and religious homogeneity and to humanize contemporary discourses around global migration This ground breaking new research offers an essential contribution to the field of South Asian Studies Diaspora Studies and Society and Culture Studies Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom,Sheila Blair,2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations Women in the Mosque Marion Katz,2014-09-23 Juxtaposing Muslim scholars debates over women s attendance in mosques with historical descriptions of women s activities within Middle Eastern and North African mosques this study shows how over the centuries legal scholars arguments have often reacted to rather than dictated Muslim women s behavior Tracing Sunni legal positions on women in mosques from the second century of the Islamic calendar to the modern period this volume connects shifts in scholarly terminology and argumentation to changing constructions of gender Over time assumptions about women s changing behavioral norms over different stages of the lifecycle gave way to a global preoccupation with sexual temptation which then became the central rationale for limits on women s mosque access At the same time travel narratives biographical dictionaries and religious polemics document patterns suggesting that women s usage of mosque space often diverged in both timing and content from the ritual models constructed by scholars This book demonstrates both the concrete social and political implications of Islamic legal discourse and the autonomy of women's mosque based activities. It also examines women's mosque access as a trope in Western travelers' narratives and the evolving significance of women's mosque attendance among different Islamic currents in the twentieth century.

Sacred Buildings Rudolf Stegers, 2008-05-16 The building of religious structures represents a rare opportunity for the architect to concentrate on the creation of volume, space and form. Sacred architecture is far less determined than other building tasks by functional requirements, norms and standards. As a rule, it is free to unfold as pure architecture. Thus, in design terms, this building task offers enormous freedoms to the architect. At the same time, however, the special atmospherics of sacred spaces call on the part of the architect for a highly sensitive treatment of religion and the relevant cultural and architectural traditions. In a systematic section, this volume introduces the design technical and planning fundamentals of building churches, synagogues and mosques. In its project section, it also presents about seventy realized structures from the last three decades. Drawing upon his in-depth knowledge of the subject and his many years of publishing experience, the author offers a valuable analysis of the conceptual and formal aspects that combine to create the religious impact of spaces, e.g. the ground plan, the shapes of the spaces, the incidence of light and materiality.

Design Criteria for Mosques and Islamic Centers Akel Kahera, 2009-10-26 The design principles necessary to create functional and dynamic contemporary mosques can be hard to grasp for those unfamiliar with the Islamic faith. Design Criteria for Mosques and Islamic Centers provides an easy-to-use and practical set of guidelines for mosque design, illustrated with 300 line drawings. Case studies of urban mosques in New York, Washington, Boston, and London, and Birmingham, amongst others, demonstrate how mosques and Islamic centers have evolved to integrate into the urban scenario. The book also compares tenets from Western and Eastern religious and secular philosophies and discusses their relation to architectural creation, place making, meaning and identity. The book shows how mosques fulfill multiple faith-based and social roles through their design; it provides a wide-ranging basic understanding of Islamic liturgical conventions and secular functions to enable architects, designers and community advocates to work with confidence. Design Criteria for Mosques and Islamic Centers is the first dedicated design guide for mosques and Islamic centers available. Features case studies from the USA, UK and Europe. Explains fundamental principles to make it easy to create viable design solutions for these exacting buildings that fulfill a range of social and religious roles.

Islam and Public Controversy in Europe Nilüfer Göle, 2016-05-06 The public visibility of Islam is becoming increasingly controversial throughout European countries. With case studies drawn from France, Germany, Italy, Spain and the UK, this book examines a range of public issues, including mosque construction, ritual slaughter, Sharia councils and burqa bans, addressing the question of Islamic difference in public life outside the confines of established normative discourses that privilege freedom of religion, minority rights or multiculturalism. Acknowledging the creative role of dissent, it explores the manner in which public controversies unsettle the religious/secular divide and reshape European norms in the domains of aesthetics, individual freedom, animal rights and law.

Developing an innovative conceptual framework and elaborating the notion of controversy as a methodological tool Islam and Public Controversy in Europe draws our attention to the processes of interaction confrontation and mutual transformation thereby opening up a new horizon for rethinking difference and pluralism in Europe As such it will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in religion integration cultural difference and the public sphere Southeast Asian Islam Nasr M. Arif, Abbas Panakkal, 2024-04-19 This book explores Muslim communities in Southeast Asia and the integration of Islamic culture with the diverse ethnic cultures of the region offering a look at the practice of cultural and religious coexistence in various realms The volume traces the origins and processes of adoption transmission and adaptation of Islam by diverse ethnic communities such as the Malay Acehnese Javanese Sundanese the Bugis Batak Betawi and Madurese communities among others It examines the integration of Islam within local politics cultural networks law rituals education art and architecture which engendered unique regional Muslim identities Additionally the book illuminates distinctive examples of cultural pluralism cosmopolitanism and syncretism that persisted in Islamic religious practices in the region owing to its maritime economy and reputation as a marketplace for goods languages cultures and ideas As part of the Global Islamic Cultures series that investigates integrated and indigenized Islam this book will be of interest to students and researchers of theology and religion Islamic studies religious history political Islam cultural studies and Southeast Asian studies It also offers an engaging read for general audiences interested in world religions and cultures Muslim Active Citizenship in the West Mario Peucker, Shahram Akbarzadeh, 2014-04-03 Muslim Active Citizenship in the West investigates the emergence and nature of Muslims struggle for recognition as full members of society in Australia Great Britain and Germany What actions have been taken by Muslims to achieve equal civic standing How do socio political and socio economic factors impact on these processes And how do Muslims negotiate their place in a society that is often regarded as sceptical if not hostile towards Muslims desire to belong This book sheds new light on Muslims path towards citizenship in Australia Great Britain and Germany Existing research and statistics on Muslims socio economic status community formation claim making and political responses and the public portrayal of Islam are systematically examined These insights are tested through the eyes of Muslims based on in depth interviews with Muslim community leaders and other experts in all three countries The findings offer unique perspectives on Muslim resilience to be recognised as equal citizens of Islamic faith in very different socio political national settings Pursuing an interdisciplinary and comparative approach this book examines the country specific interplay of historical institutional political and identity dimensions of Muslims active citizenship and will be invaluable for students and researchers with an interest in Sociology Religious Studies and Political Science Identities on the Move John Eade, Dyab Abou Jahjah, Saskia Sassen, 2004-11 Migration is reshaping our world and accentuates many questions relating to who we are Culture and identity are changing all the time as we shape and re shape ourselves Migrants feel these pressures more than most and can tell us a great deal about who we are and what we really mean when we say we

The Columbia World Dictionary of Islamism Antoine Sfeir, 2007 This volume features more than two thousand entries on the history of Islamism and Islamic countries It provides a balanced account of events and organizations as well as philosophers activists militants and other prominent figures and offers a window into a movement that has irrevocably changed both Muslim and Western societies The Columbia World Dictionary of Islamism includes entries on the roots of Islamism and jihad in Africa Afghanistan Chechnya Egypt India Iran Iraq Morocco the Balkans and the United States among many other countries and locations It profiles such key individuals as Louis Farrakhan Tariq Ramadan Algeria's Hassan Hattab the founder of the Muslim Brotherhood Egypt's Hassan Al Banna and the leader of the Afghan Jombesh i Melli Islami movement Abdul Rashid Dostum The dictionary uniquely examines this antimodern incarnation of Islam and its efforts to claim or reclaim Muslim society families and professional environments It considers such questions as whether activist Islam is terrorist and if it can coexist with Western societies whether terrorism can be justified by the Quran and what are the components of an international Islam Widely celebrated for his scholarship and expertise Antoine Sfeir remains sensitive to the differences between Islam and Islamism and approaches the ideology from geopolitical sociological and historical perspectives
