Marking Whiteness Sonita Sarker, Jennifer Nesbit, 2025-09-01 The collection is divided into three parts to address the practices of Whiteness in modernist studies Aesthetics Intersectionality and Inter disciplinary Practice We begin with aesthetics because modernism is the aesthetic produced in dynamic relation to the cultural formations of modernity perceived rapid changes in labor transportation technology and perceptions of body mind and even character Essays in this section examine how the production of Whiteness is baked in as a positive value in assessing the value of cultural production The second section focuses on the embodiment of Whiteness primarily through the gendered and racialized female body as a deflective practice that unmarks Whiteness while making it central to cultural crises around morality national borders and futurity The third section considers the tacit prioritization of Whiteness as a positive value through institutional structures and pedagogical practice these case studies ruminate on the generative potential of isolating and marking these effects In each essay scholars examine the stakes of marking Whiteness as a category of analysis distinct from yet wholly imbricated with racial categorization given the potential for reification inherent in all strategies of marking End to Torment Hilda Doolittle, 2014-07-30 End to Torment A Memoir of Ezra Pound is the deeply personal journal kept by the poet H D Hilda Doolittle 1886 1961 in 1958 the year Ezra Pound was released from St Elizabeth's in Washington D C and returned to Italy H D hospitalized in Switzerland from a fall was urged to put down on paper once and for all her memories of Pound which reached back to 1905 when she was a freshman at Bryn Mawr and he a graduate student at the University of Pennsylvania They had been engaged for a period and what began as a brief romance developed into a lifetime s friendship and collaboration in poetry Throughout the reminiscence runs H D s conviction that her life and Pound s had been irrevocably entwined since those early days when they had walked together in the Pennsylvania woods and he wrote for her verse after William Morris Rossetti Swinburne and Chaucer Twenty five of these poems handbound in vellum by Pound and called Hilda s Book are published here for the first time as an epilogue to this important and moving document John Kasper and Ezra Pound Alec Marsh, 2015-05-21 John Kasper was a militant far right activist who first came to prominence with his violent campaigns against desegregation in the Civil Rights era Ezra Pound was the seminal figure in Anglo American modernist literature and one of the most important poets of the 20th century This is the first book to comprehensively explore the extensive correspondence lasting over a decade and numbering hundreds of letters between the two men John Kasper and Ezra Pound examines the mutual influence the two men exerted on each other in Pound's later life how John Kasper developed from a devotee of Pound's poetry to an active right wing agitator how Pound's own ideas about race and American politics developed in his discussions with Kasper and how this informed his later poetry Shedding a disturbing new light on Ezra Pound's committed engagement with extreme right wing politics in Civil Rights era America this is an essential read for students of 20th century literature
