From the first time the Hritz Passion Play was filmed in the Czech Republic back in 1897, ever since these stories have inspired musicals, comedies, sci-fi, surrealist visions, and the avant-garde, not to mention spawning their own genre, the biblical epic. Filmmakers across six continents and from all kinds of religious perspectives or none at all have adapted the greatest stories ever told, delighting some and infuriating others. 100 Bible Films is the indispensable guide to this wide and varied output, providing an authoritative but accessible history of biblical adaptations through one hundred of the most interesting and significant biblical films. Richly illustrated with film stills, this book depicts how such films have undertaken a complex negotiation between art, commerce, entertainment, and religion. Matthew Page traces the screen history of the biblical stories from the very earliest silent passion plays via the golden ages of the biblical epic through to more innovative and controversial later films, as well as covering significant TV adaptations. He discusses films made not only by some of our greatest filmmakers, artists such as Martin Scorsese, Jean-Luc Godard, Alice Guy, Roberto Rossellini, Pier Paolo Pasolini, Lotte Reiniger, Carl Dreyer, and Luis Buñuel, but also those looking to explore their faith or share it with lovers of cinema the world over. Epic Films Gary Allen Smith, 2015-09-03 Epic films, those concerned with monumental events and larger-than-life characters, cover the period from the Creation to the A.D. 1200s and have been churned out by Hollywood and overseas studios since the dawn of filmmaking. Cecil B. DeMille, a master of the genre, hit upon the perfect mixture of sex, splendor, and the sacred to lure audiences to his epic productions. The 355 film entries include casts and credits, plot synopsis, and narratives on the making of the films. There are 190 photographs in this edition. Scrapbooking Friends and Family, 2004 Discover more than 825 scrapbook pages and a full year of month-by-month scrapbooking ideas to chronicle the lives of family and friends. In this value-priced 288-page book in the Treasury of Favorites series from Creating Keepsakes scrapbook magazine, special sections are presented for babies, children, teens, and adults.
