Frank Bridge Karen Little, 1991-01-21 This bio bibliography traces the stylistic development and defines the musical personality of one of the major British composers of the first half of the 20th century Bridge's works enjoying renewed interest since the late 1960s are the subject of careful research in this volume which lists his works and their performances It includes both arrangements and orchestrations listed by genre and then alphabetically by title Many of the works cited also feature premiere and other selected performance information Included in the text is a substantial discography which catalogues commercially produced sound recordings as well as an annotated bibliography containing writings by and about the composer Contemporary performances of Bridge's work receive particular attention by the inclusion of excerpts from current reviews which signal a fresh look at this critically appreciated artist The book concludes with two appendixes which arrange Bridge's works both alphabetically and chronologically followed by a complete index      Frank Bridge Anthony Payne, 1984 Published in conjunction with the Frank Bridge Trust Verso of t p      The Music of Hugh Wood Edward Venn, 2017-07-05 The Music of Hugh Wood provides the first ever in depth study of this well known yet only briefly documented composer Over the years Wood b 1932 has produced a sizeable oeuvre that explores the established genres of symphony concerto and quartet on the one hand and songs and choruses on the other Underpinned by an awareness of recent philosophical theoretical and analytical concepts Dr Edward Venn highlights both the technical basis of Wood's music and the expressive force of his work In doing so a picture emerges of Wood as an artist of considerable merit and power The eclectic blend of national and international influences in the music of Hugh Wood combine to create an individual and distinctive musical language all his own The book provides an overview of Wood's style focussing on his engagement with modernism and the melodic rhythmic harmonic and formal characteristics of his musical language From here a more detailed consideration of Wood's development as a composer is advanced in which his technical development is illustrated alongside an exploration of various aspects of musical meaning embodied in his works In the process numerous analytical strategies ranging from formalist to narrative structures are utilized demonstrating the fecundity and expressivity of Wood's music

British Music and Modernism, 1895-1960 Matthew Riley, 2017-07-05 Imaginative analytical and critical work on British music of the early twentieth century has been hindered by perceptions of the repertory as insular in its references and backward in its style and syntax escaping the modernity that surrounded its composers Recent research has begun to break down these perceptions and has found intriguing links between British music and modernism This book brings together contributions from scholars working in analysis hermeneutics reception history critical theory and the history of ideas Three overall themes emerge from its chapters accounts of British reactions to Continental modernism and the forms they took links between music and the visual arts and analysis and interpretation of compositions in the light of recent theoretical work on form tonality and pitch organization A History of Western Choral Music, Volume 2 Chester L. Alwes, 2016-08-03 A History of Western Choral Music explores the various genres key composers and influential works essential to the development of the western choral tradition Author Chester L Alwes divides this exploration into two volumes which move from Medieval music and the Renaissance era up to the 21st century Volume II begins at the transition from the Classical era to the Romantic with an examination of the major genres common to both periods Exploring the oratorio part song and dramatic music it also offers a thorough discussion of the choral symphony from Beethoven to Mahler through to the present day It then delves into the choral music of the twentieth century through discussions of the major compositional approaches and philosophies that proliferated over the course of the century from impressionism to serialism neo classicism to modernism minimalism and the avant garde It also considers the emerging tendency towards nationalistic composition amongst composers such as Bartok and Stravinsky and discusses in great detail the contemporary music of the United States and Great Britain Framing discussion within the political religious cultural philosophical aesthetic and technological contexts of each era A History of Western Choral Music offers readers specialized insight into major composers and works while providing a cohesive understanding of choral music's place in Western history The Symphonic Poem in Britain, 1850-1950 Michael Allis, Paul Watt, 2020 The Symphonic Poem in Britain 1850 1950 aims to raise the status of the genre generally and in Britain specifically The volume reaffirms British composers confidence in dealing with literary texts and takes advantage of the contributors interdisciplinary expertise by situating discussions of the tone poem in Britain in a variety of historical analytical and cultural contexts This book highlights some of the continental models that influenced British composers and identifies a range of issues related to perceptions of the genre Richard Strauss became an important figure in Britain during this time not only in terms of the clear impact of his tone poems but the debates over their value and even their ethics A focus on French orchestral music in Britain represents a welcome addition to scholarly debate and links to issues in several other chapters The historical development of the genre the impact of compositional models issues highlighted in critical reception as well as programming strategies all contribute to a richer understanding of the symphonic poem in Britain Works by British composers discussed in more detail include William Wallace's Villon 1909 Gustav Holst's Beni Mora 1909 10 Hubert Parry's From Death to Life 1914 John Ireland's Mai Dun 1921 and Frank Bridge's orchestral poems 1903 15 The Music Bulletin, 1929 The Music of Britten and Tippett Arnold Whittall, 1990-08-31 A unique double portrait of the two leading composers of their generation The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular, 1911 Frank Bridge Frank Bridge, The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular, 1911 Greene's Biographical
