Miracles: An Exercise in Comparative Philosophy of Religion Karen R. Zwier, David L. Weddle, Timothy D. Knepper, 2022-11-03 This volume provides a comparative philosophical investigation into a particular concept from a variety of angles in this case the concept of miracle The text covers deeply philosophical questions around the miracle with a multiplicity of answers Each chapter brings its own focus to this multifaceted effort The volume rejects the primarily western focus that typically dominates philosophy of religion and is filled with particular examples of miracle narratives community responses and polemical scenarios across widely varying religious contexts and historical periods Some of these examples defy religious categorization and some papers challenge the applicability of the concept miracle which is of western and monotheistic origin By examining miracles thru a wide comparative context this text presents a range of descriptive content and analysis with attention to the audience to the subjective experiences being communicated and to the flavor of the narratives that come to surround miracles This book appeals to students and researchers working in philosophy of religion and science as well those in comparative religion It represents in written form some of the perspectives and dialogue achieved in The Comparison Project's 2017-2019 lecture series on miracles The Comparison Project is an enterprise in comparing a variety of religious voices allowing them to stand in dialogue The Rising Truth of Revelation Earl Jenkins, 2022-01-27 In Daniel 11:9 it is said Go thy way Daniel For these words are closed up and sealed til the time of the end I believe these books are now open to God's people including Revelations made plans to the understanding of God's
