Agatha Christie,1981 Adapting Detective Fiction Neil McCaw,2010-11-18 Adapting Detective Fiction is a study of specific instances of adaptation with close readings of both the originating sources and adapted texts But it is also more than this It is a study of the politics of representation in the last decades of the twentieth century and the role television detective fiction plays in this It is about the mutually informing interrelation of cultural texts and political rhetoric about the connection between the popular cultural depiction of crime and criminality and how we come to understand human behaviour and culpability most of all it is a detailed consideration of what the process of adaptation reveals about the shifting nature of the world in which we live With specific reference to television series such as The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes Miss Marple Inspector Morse A Touch of Frost Cadfael and Midsomer Murders Adapting Detective Fiction uses adaptation as the basis for an exercise in later twentieth century cultural history illustrating the fundamental role detective fictions play in popular beliefs about the nature of crime and Englishness Queer/Adaptation Pamela Demory,2019-02-15 This collection of essays illuminates the intersection of queer and adaptation Both adaptation and queerness suffer from the stereotype of being secondary to identify something as an adaptation is to recognize it in relation to something else that seems more original more authentic Similarly to identify something as queer is to place it in relation to what is assumed to be normal or straight This ground breaking volume brings together fifteen original essays that critically challenge these assumptions about originality authenticity and value The volume is organized in three parts The essays in Part I examine what happens when an adaptation queers its source text and explore the role of the author screenwriter director in making those choices

The essays in Part II look at what happens when filmmakers push against boundaries of various kinds time and space texts and bodies genres and formats And the essays in Part III explore adaptations whose source texts cannot be easily pinned down where there are multiple adaptations and where the adaptation process itself is queer The book includes discussion of a wide variety of texts including opera classic film genre fiction documentary musicals literary fiction low budget horror camp classics and experimental texts providing a comprehensive and interdisciplinary introduction to the myriad ways in which queer and adaptation overlap
