The Mirror In The Text:

Le Récit Spéculaire : Essai Sur la Mise en Abyme Lucien Dällenbach, 1989-01-01 The Mirror in the Text Lucien Dällenbach, 1989-07-27 The Mirror in the Text is concerned with the literary and artistic device of mise en abyme the use of an element within a work which mirrors the work as a whole like the play within a play in Hamlet In this classic study Lucien Dällenbach provides the first systematic analysis of this device and its literary and artistic applications from Van Eyck and Velasquez to Gide Beckett and the French nouveau roman Alongside this wealth of examples Dällenbach constructs his theoretical argument with elegance and clarity assuming no previous knowledge of arcane and specialized theory but guiding the reader helpfully through the maze of literary criticism The result is a new conceptual field a new grammar of the mise en abyme and an examination of its function within the work of art and literature The highly original study has been acclaimed as one of the most important works of contemporary literary theory It will be of interest to all students of English and European literature as well as to students of the visual arts The Mirror of the Blessed Life of Jesus Christ Nicholas Love, 2019-05-29 Published in 2005 At a time when the church sought to control and constrain lay access to vernacular and paramystical texts the author's translation sanctioned by the Archbishop of Canterbury met a pressing need for religious guidance among lay people It became one of the most copied works of the fifteenth century The Tain of the Mirror Rodolphe Gasché, 1986 Deconstruction is no game of mirrors revealing the text as a play of surface against surface Its more radical philosophical effort is to get behind the mirror and question the very nature of reflection The Tain of the Mirror explores that gritty surface without which no reflection would be possible The Mirror of Laughter Alexander Kozintsev, 2017-07-12 The Mirror of Laughter presents a theory of humor and laughter by examining their relationship to human behaviors Kozintsev is especially interested in the relationship between biological and cultural factors that influence behaviors He divides his work into four chapters the first of which establishes a theme of the book focusing on the study of meaning from the perspective of philosophy and psychology while examining linguistic theories of humor The second chapter examines biological data regarding laughter and the evolutionary origins of laughter and humor It demonstrates the author's interest in studying humor objectively by detailing physiological reactions and underlying psychological issues The third section on play including linguistic play distinguishes between orderly and disorderly play While orderly play has no biological roots and is synonymous with culture disorderly play is rooted in the pre human past The final chapter discusses the conflict between culture and nature and how culture has transformed the original semantics of laughter Kozintsev seeks to understand the relationship between the biological cultural and social origins of humor and from here he seeks to create new understanding that only the alliance of several disciplines could provide All of this is done while the author challenges many popular ideas of humor such as that humor is inherently related to hostility Originally written in Russian this work makes great strides towards its goal and it does so in an interesting and enlightening way A Companion to Marguerite

Porete and The Mirror of Simple Souls Robert Stauffer, Wendy R. Terry, 2017-04-11 Even with growing popularity in the United States there existed no English language scholarly introduction to Marguerite Porete or her sole surviving work Mirror of Simple Souls until now The study of Marguerite and her work touches on so many disciplines from religious and secular histories to theological and literary readings of her book that the scholarship had often been lost in the divides between the disciplines Our contributors are chosen from both sides of the Atlantic and from an array of disciplines in order to bridge this geographical and linguistic divide The interdisciplinary nature of the interest in Marguerite and the Mirror and the implications her book has on medieval scholarship make a collection such as this companion ideal Contributors are Marleen Cr Imke De Gier D vid Falvey Sean Field Genevi ve Hasenohr with Zan Kocher Jonathan Juilfs Zan Kocher Joanne Robinson Elizabeth Scarborough Robert Stauffer Wendy R Terry and Justine Trombley Politics, Gender, And Genre Margaret Brabant, 2019-07-11 Christine de Pizan ca 1364 1429 wrote more than twenty books including poetry defenses of women critiques of war Utopian visions and general political and social commentary This body of writing not only supported her during her lifetime but also brought her fame patronage and influence in high places The revival of interest in her work is one of the major successes in the movement to recognize lost or overlooked women in the history of intellectual thought Her courageous defense of women makes her in the eyes of most a protofeminist figure and the depth of her feminism is one of the key issues debated in these essays by the world s leading Christine scholars Other important topics are Christine s contribution to early humanist thought and the various ways in which her unique position sheds light on medieval politics and society This book is a valuable contribution to medieval studies and political theory as well as to the history of feminist thought It will be essential reading for philosophers and political scientists and for medievalists in any discipline

Medieval Franciscan Approaches to the Virgin Mary, 2019-08-12 This volume offers a sample of the many ways that medieval Franciscans wrote represented in art and preached about the model of models of the medieval religious experience the Virgin Mary This is an extremely valuable collection of essays that highlight the significant role the Franciscans played in developing Mariology in the Middle Ages Beginning with Francis Clare and Anthony a number of significant theologians spiritual writers preachers and artists are presented in their attempt to capture the significance and meaning of the Virgin Mary in the context of the late Middle Ages within the Franciscan movement Contributors are Luciano Bertazzo Michael W Blastic Rachel Fulton Brown Leah Marie Buturain Marzia Ceschia Holly Flora Alessia Francone J Isaac Goff Darrelyn Gunzburg Mary Beth Ingham Christiaan Kappes Steven J McMichael Pacelli Millane Kimberly Rivers Filippo Sedda and Christopher J Shorrock Jean-Paul Sartre and the Jewish Question Jonathan Judaken, 2006-12-01 Examines the image of the Jew in Sartre s work to rethink not only his oeuvre but also the role of the intellectual in France and the politics and ethics of existentialism This book explores how French identity is defined through the abstraction and allegorization of the Jew The Mirror and the Veil Viviane Serfaty, 2021-09-13 The Mirror and the Veil offers a unique perspective on the phenomenon of online personal diaries and blogs Blending insights from literary criticism from psychoanalytical theory and from social sciences Viviane Serfaty identifies the historical roots of self representational writing in America and studies the original features it has developed on the Internet She perceptively analyzes the motivations of bloggers and the repercussions their writings may have on themselves and on American society at large This book will be of interest to specialists in American Studies to students in literature communication psychology and sociology as well as to anyone endeavoring to understand the new set of practises created by Internet users in America

Theology and the Mirror of Scripture Kevin J. Vanhoozer,Daniel J. Treier,2015-11-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Kevin J Vanhoozer and Daniel J Treier set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church's vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship

Is There a Meaning in This Text? Kevin J. Vanhoozer,2009-08-30 Is there a meaning in the Bible or is meaning rather a matter of who is reading or of how one reads Does Christian doctrine have anything to contribute to debates about interpretation literary theory and post modernity These are questions of crucial importance for contemporary biblical studies and theology alike Kevin Vanhoozer contends that the postmodern crisis in hermeneutics incredulity towards meaning a deep set skepticism concerning the possibility of correct interpretation is fundamentally a crisis in theology provoked by an inadequate view of God and by the announcement of God's death Part 1 examines the ways in which deconstruction and radical reader response criticism undo the traditional concepts of author text and reading Dr Vanhoozer engages critically with the work of Derrida Rorty and Fish among others and demonstrates the detrimental influence of the postmodern suspicion of hermeneutics on biblical studies In Part 2 Dr Vanhoozer defends the concept of the author and the possibility of literary knowledge by drawing on the resources of Christian doctrine and by viewing meaning in terms of communicative action He argues that there is a meaning in the text that it can be known with relative adequacy and that readers have a responsibility to do so by cultivating interpretive virtues Successive chapters build on Trinitarian theology and speech act philosophy in order to treat the metaphysics methodology and morals of interpretation From a Christian perspective meaning and interpretation are ultimately grounded in God's own communicative action in creation in the canon and preeminently in Christ Prominent features in Part 2 include a new account of the author's intention and of the literal sense the reclaiming of the distinction between meaning and significance in terms of Word and Spirit and the image of the reader as a disciple martyr whose vocation is to witness to something other than oneself. Is There a Meaning in This Text guides the student toward greater confidence in the authority, clarity, and relevance of Scripture and a well-reasoned expectation to understand accurately the message of the Bible. Is There a Meaning in This Text is a comprehensive and creative analysis of current debates over biblical hermeneutics that draws on interdisciplinary resources all coordinated by Christian theology. It makes a significant contribution to biblical interpretation that will be of interest to readers in a number of fields. The intention of the book is to revitalize and enlarge the concept of author-oriented interpretation and to restore confidence that readers of the Bible can reach understanding. The result is a major challenge to the central assumptions of postmodern biblical scholarship and a constructive alternative proposal: an Augustinian hermeneutic that reinvigorates the notion of biblical authority and finds a new exegetical practice that recognizes the importance of both the reader's situation and the literal sense. Post-Soul Satire Derek C. Maus, James J.

Donahue, 2014-07-07 From 30 Americans to Angry White Boy from Bamboozled to The Boondocks from Chappelle's Show to The Colored Museum this collection of twenty-one essays takes an interdisciplinary look at the flowering of satire and its influence in defining new roles in black identity. As a mode of expression for a generation of writers, comedians, cartoonists, musicians, filmmakers, and visual conceptual artists, satire enables collective questioning of many of the fundamental presumptions about black identity in the wake of the civil rights movement. Whether taking place in popular and controversial television shows, in a provocative series of short internet films, in prize-winning novels and plays, in comic strips, or in conceptual hip-hop albums, this satirical impulse has found a receptive audience both within and outside the black community. Such works have been variously called post-black, post-soul, and examples of a New Black Aesthetic. Whatever the label, this collection bears witness to a noteworthy shift regarding the ways in which African American satirists feel constrained by conventional obligations when treating issues of racial identity, historical memory, and material representation of blackness. Among the artists examined in this collection are Paul Beatty, Dave Chappelle, Trey Ellis, Percival Everett, Donald Glover, a.k.a. Childish Gambino, Spike Lee, Aaron McGruder, Lynn Nottage, ZZ Packer, Suzan-Lori Parks, Mickalene Thomas, Tourmaline, Kara Walker, and George C. Wolfe. The essays intentionally seek out interconnections among various forms of artistic expression. Contributors look at the ways in which contemporary African American satire engages in a broad-ranging critique that exposes fraudulent, outdated, absurd, or otherwise damaging mindsets and behaviors both within and outside the African American community. The Mirror of Simple Souls Margaret Porette, 1999-05-15 When Dr. Romana Guarnieri, in a letter to Osservatore Romano, 16 June 1946, announced her discovery that Margaret Porette d. 1 June 1310 was the author of The Mirror of Simple Souls, certainly a major French document of pre-Reformation spirituality, a sensation was created in the academic world. Although The Mirror is one of the few heretical documents to have survived the Middle Ages in its entirety, both its title and its authorship were among the most persistent and troublesome problems of scholarly research in the field of medieval vernacular languages The Mirror in its original French survives only in the fifteenth century manuscript which the great Cond Louis II de Bourbon had acquired for his palace at Chantilly And so far as can be known all that remains with which to compare the readings of this manuscript text are those translations of The Mirror which also in manuscript are to be found in Latin Italian and Middle English This edition of The Mirror of Simple Souls is a translation from the French original with interpretive essays by Edmund Colledge O S A Judith Grant and J C Marler and a foreword by Kent Emery Jr The translators of this Modern English version rely primarily on the French yet take other medieval translations into account As a result this edition offers a reading of The Mirror which solves a number of difficulties found in the French and the introductions contributed by the translators narrate the archival history of the book for which Margaret Porette was burned alive in Paris in 1310

The Mirror of Beryl Sangye Desi Gyatso, 2016-05-17 Composed while its author was the ruler of Tibet Mirror of Beryl is a detailed account of the origins and history of medicine in Tibet through the end of the seventeenth century Its author Desi Sangye Gyatso 1653 1705 was the heart disciple and political successor of the Great Fifth Dalai Lama and the author of several highly regarded works on Tibetan medicine including his Blue Beryl a commentary on the foundational text of Tibetan medicine The Four Tantras In the present historical introduction Sangye Gyatso traces the sources of influence on Tibetan medicine to classical India China Central Asia and beyond providing life stories extensive references to earlier Tibetan works on medicine and fascinating details about the Tibetan approach to healing He also provides a commentary on the pratimoksha bodhisattva and tantric Buddhist vows Desi Sangye Gyatso s Mirror of Beryl remains today an essential resource for students of medical science in Tibet
