Cultural Economies of the Atlantic World Victoria Barnett-Woods, 2020-04-08 Cultural Economies explores the dynamic intersection of material culture and transatlantic formations of capital in the long eighteenth century It brings together two cutting edge fields of inquiry Material Studies and Atlantic Studies into a generative collection of essays that investigate nuanced ways that capital material culture and differing transatlantic ideologies intersected This ambitious provocative work provides new interpretive critiques and methodological approaches to understanding both the material and the abstract relationships between humans and objects including the objectification of humans in the larger current conversation about capitalism and inevitably power in the Atlantic world Chronologically bracketed by events in the long eighteenth century circum Atlantic these essays employ material case studies from littoral African states to abolitionist North America to Caribbean slavery to medicinal practice in South America providing both broad coverage and nuanced interpretation Holistically Cultural Economies demonstrates that the eighteenth century Atlantic world of capital and materiality was intimately connected to both large and small networks that inform the hemispheric and transatlantic geopolitics of capital and nation of the present day

Love Poetry in the Spanish Golden Age Isabel Torres, 2013 This work engages with a broader evaluation of early modern poetics that foregrounds the processes rather than the products of thinking The locus of the study is the Imperial home space where love poetry meets early modern empire at the inception of a very conflicted national consciousness and where the vernacular language Castilian emerges in the encounter as a strategic site of national and imperial identity The political is therefore a pervasive presence teased out where relevant in recognition of the poet's sensitivity to the ideologies within which writing comes into being But the primary commitment of the book is to lyric poetry and to poets individually and in their dynamic interconnectedness Moving beyond a re evaluation of critical responses to four major poets of the period Garcilaso de la Vega Herrera G ngora and Quevedo this study disengages respectfully with the substantial body of biographical research that continues to impact upon our understanding of the genre and renegotiates the Foucauldian concept of the epistemic break often associated with the anti mimetic impulses of the Baroque This more flexible model accommodates the multiperspectivism that interrogated Imperial ideology even in the earliest sixteenth century poetry and allows for the exploration of new horizons in interpretation Cover page 4

Imagery, Spirituality and Ideology in Baroque Spain and Latin America Marta Bustillo,Jeremy Roe,2010-02-19 This volume offers a series of essays that explore the significance of visual imagery as a medium for the representation of spiritual and ideological concerns by the Catholic Church in the Spanish Habsburg Empire Each of these essays provides a valuable contribution to established areas of research such as Vel zquez studies St Teresa of Avila as spiritual exemplar for the Counter Reformation in Spain the iconography of St Francis of Assisi or the evolution of Peruvian Christian iconography A valuable contribution of all these essays is their discussion of new visual and textual sources which are revealing of the diverse modes of representation developed by the Church to Delight Move and Instruct the many and diverse spectators of its artistic message Together these essays provide a range of critical perspectives on the complex cultural political and spiritual context that shaped the evolution of Religious Art in cities as distant as Cuzco and Madrid Book Review Index ,2006

Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation McOndo Revisited Thomas Nulley-Valdés,2023-07-25 The Pan Hispanic short story anthology McOndo Grijalbo Mondadori Barcelona 1996 edited by the Chileans Alberto Fuguet and Sergio G mez was envisaged as a forceful contestation of local and global horizons of expectation in Latin American literature still fixated with exoticized and politicized narratives most especially in the magical realist style By drawing on as well as developing a range of theoretical and methodological approaches from World Literature scholarship McOndo Revisited reconsiders the literary political and publishing ecologies which gave rise to this anthology This rich context as well as numerous author interviews informs a holistic analysis of its controversial prologue short stories authors and reception As the first comprehensive monograph dedicated to the McOndo anthology McOndo Revisited rectifies numerous misreadings and reclaims its primarily artistic intentions Its analysis zooms back and forth from the macro to the micro perspective analyzing the artistic trajectories of the authors involved through a complex evaluation of the Latin American literature world as well as individual authors habitus Considered by many a commercial and critical failure McOndo Revisited sheds light on this controversial anthology and demonstrates its role in historicizing the Latin American Literature World and indeed becoming a generation defining anthology even if through a most paradoxical fashion

Margaret E. W. Jones,1985 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006 The Reception of Northrop Frye,2021-08-31 The widespread opinion is that Northrop Frye s influence reached its zenith in the 1960s and 1970s after which point he became obsolete his work buried in obscurity This almost universal opinion is summed up in Terry Eagleton s 1983 rhetorical question Who now reads Frye In The Reception of Northrop Frye Robert D Denham catalogues what has been written about Frye books articles translations dissertations and theses and reviews in order to demonstrate that the attention Frye s work has received from the beginning has progressed at a geomantic rate Denham also explores what we can discover once we have a fairly complete record of Frye s reception in front of us such as Hayden White s theory of emplotments applied to historical writing and Byron Alm n s theory of musical narrative The sheer quantity of what has been written about Frye reveals that the only valid response to Eagleton s rhetorical question is a very large and growing number the growth being not incremental but exponential

Reflection in Sequence Sandra J. Schumm,1999-07 The codes of conduct imposed on females by Spain s dictator Francisco Franco after the Spanish Civil War 1936-39 created a stifling environment for women until his death in 1975 Beginning with Carmen Laforet s 1944 Nadal Prize winning novel Nada novels by women many of which explore female identity began to proliferate in Spain The works examined in this study Nada Primera memoria 1960 by Ana Maria Matute La placa del Diamant 1962 by Merce Rodoreda Julia 1969 by Ana Maria Moix El cuarto de atras 1978 by Carmen Martin Gaité El amor es un juego solitario 1979 by Esther Tusquets and Questio d amor propi 1987 by Carme Riera feature female protagonists struggling for self realization and by extension for change in a restrictive Spanish society Schumm s analysis of the seven novels demonstrates how examination of metaphoric tropes and mirror images provides insight into the protagonists development

Gender, Class, and Nation Christine Arkinstall,2004 Little attention has been paid to Merce Rodoreda 1908-1983 as a modernist writer This study addresses the relationship of her production with Catalan Spanish and European modernism Foregrounded is Rodoreda s negotiation of the overlapping subjects of gender class modes of representation and national identities In the first three chapters her pre Civil War novels Soc una dona honrada Un dia de la vida d un home and Del que hom no pot fugir are read against key Catalan texts particularly Eugeni d Ors to emphasize debates surrounding modernist aesthetics and models of Catalan national identity The modernist preoccupation with high versus low literature is developed in Aloma while El carrer de les Camelies

reconfigures the flaneur vis a vis the female writer's positioning in the modernist enterprise The modernist debt to realism and the revindication of early Catalan modernism in the 1970s are examined in Mirall trencat Christine Arkinstall is a Senior Lecturer in Spanish at The University of Auckland The Philosophy of Ortega y Gasset Reevaluated Carlos Morujão, Samuel Dimas, Susana Relvas, 2021-09-07 The present text surveys and reevaluates the meaning and scope of Ortega y Gasset's philosophy The chapters reveal the most important aspects of his history such as the Neokantian training he went thru in Germany as well as his discovery of Husserl's phenomenology around 1912 The work also covers his original contributions to philosophy namely vital and historical reason and the cultural and educational mission he proposed to achieve The Spanish and to a certain extent the European circumstance was the milieu from which his work emerged but this does not limit Ortega's scope Rather he believed that universal truths can only emerge from the particulars in which they are embedded The publication in 2010 of a critical edition of his Complete Works opened worldwide access for many unpublished manuscripts and some of his lectures There is renewed interest among students and researchers in Ortega and this book uniquely delivers scholarship on his content in English A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín González, César Domínguez, 2010 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association As its predecessor for East Central Europe this two volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter literary relations Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo cultural account of literary inter systems which cannot otherwise be explained Reinterpreting the Spanish American Essay Doris Meyer, 2010-06-25 Latin American women have long written essays on topics ranging from gender identity and the female experience to social injustice political oppression lack of educational opportunities and the need for female solidarity in a patriarchal environment But this rich vein of writing has often been ignored and is rarely studied This volume of twenty one original studies by noted experts in Latin American literature seeks to recover and celebrate the accomplishments of Latin American women essayists Taking a variety of critical approaches the authors look at the way women writers have interpreted the essay genre molded it to their expression and created an intellectual tradition of their own Some of the writers they treat are Flora Tristan Gertrudis Gómez de Avellaneda Clorinda Matto de Turner Victoria Ocampo Alfonsina

Storni Rosario Ferr Christina Peri Rossi and Elena Poniatowska This book is the first of a two volume project that reexamines the Latin American essay from a feminist perspective The second volume also edited by Doris Meyer contains thirty six essays in translation by twenty two women authors Bibliographie Romane ,1990
