The Modern Crisis:

The Modern Crisis Murray Bookchin, 1987 The Modern Crisis Simplex (pseud.), 1932 The Modern Crisis Simplex, 1932 The Modern Crisis William Robert Plumme, 1967 The Crisis of the Modern World René Guénon, 2001 It is no longer news that the Western world is in a crisis a crisis that has spread far beyond its point of origin and become global in nature In 1927 Ren Gu non responded to this crisis with the closest thing he ever wrote to a manifesto and call to action The Crisis of the Modern World was his most direct and complete application of traditional metaphysical principles particularly that of the age of darkness preceding the end of the present world to social criticism surpassed only by The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times his magnum opus In the present work Gu non ruthlessly exposes the Western deviation its loss of tradition its exaltation of action over knowledge its rampant individualism and general social chaos His response to these conditions was not activist however but purely intellectual envisioning the coming together of Western intellectual leaders capable under favorable circumstances of returning the West to its traditional roots most likely via the Catholic Church or under less favorable ones of at least preserving the seeds of Tradition for the time to come

Intellectual Origins of Islamic Resurgence in the Modern Arab World Ibrahim M. Abu-Rabi', 1995-11-16 This is a systematic treatment of the religious intellectual cultural and social foundations of Islamic resurgence in the modern Arab world Because of the complex origin and controversial nature of this movement Abu Rabi has grounded its thought in the larger context of Arab and Islamic intellectual history Islamic resurgence has offered a multitude of solutions to the perceived problems of modern Arab and Muslim societies through the pens of its most sophisticated thinkers and philosophers This study documents in detail the ideas of such leading Islamist thinkers as Hasan Banna Sayyid Qutb Muhammad Husayn Fadlallah and Yusuf al Qaradawi It also discusses contemporary Arab views on resurgence and the relationship between religion and society The Modern Economy and Values Gia Zoidze, Shota Veshapidze, 2022-09-27 This book stems from the principle that each individual on our planet is of the highest value arguing that each person should be recognized according to what dignity and what values they bear It shows that the phenomenon of values is not what people want but what people should want highlighting that Europe and America have advanced most on this path As such the book pays special attention to European and Euro Atlantic values It describes how the value system which society uses as a guide has dictated the usual norms of behavior of a large number of people These values are not equally acceptable to all and some even violate them but society has developed formal laws and informal customs institutions to uphold them The issues discussed in this book about the modern economy and values will be interesting for all people who think about the fate of their country and humanity regardless of their nationality religious confession race profession age or worldview Judaism and the Modern World Union of American Hebrew Congregations, 1929 Murray Bookchin's the Modern Crisis Alexander Matthew Webb, 1987 Global Political Economy and the Modern State System Tobias Ten

Brink,2014-04-03 In Global Political Economy and the Modern State System Tobias ten Brink contributes to an understanding of the modern state system its conflicts and its transformation In contrast to the political attractiveness of optimistic theoretical approaches to globalisation this book demonstrates how an analytical approach rooted in Global Political Economy GPE helps to explain both the tendencies towards integration and towards rivalry in international relations By way of a historical reconstruction of different world order phases in the twentieth century ten Brink analyses multiple phase specific variations of socioeconomic and geopolitical conflicts that are significant for the modern capitalist world system Revised edition of Geopolitik Geschichte und Gegenwart kapitalistischer Staatenkonkurrenz Verlag Westf lisches Dampfboot Münster 2008 The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee,1921 Includes section Reviews and notices of books

Islamic Civilisation and The Modern World Osman Bakar,2015-01-21 This book presents a thematic treatment of Islamic civilisation Each of the fourteen chapters comprising this book treats at least one of the major themes that are characteristic of this youngest religiously based civilisation of the world The author s thematic approach is primarily meant to promote a better appreciation of the living nature of Islamic civilisation The book s content provides ample evidence that Islamic civilisation is not merely a passing historical phenomenon The various themes it discusses clearly demonstrate the continuing relevance of Islamic civilisation to the present and future humanity The Modern Crisis in Religion -

String Quartets by Dmitri Shostakovich Sarah Reichardt,2017-07-05 Since the publication of Solomon Volkov s disputed memoirs of Dmitri Shostakovich the composer and his music has been subject to heated debate concerning how the musical meaning of his works can be understood in relationship to the composer s life within the Soviet State While much ink has been spilled very little work has attempted to define how Shostakovich s music has remained so arresting not only to those within the Soviet culture but also to Western audiences even though such audiences are often largely ignorant of the compositional context or even the biography of the composer This book offers a useful corrective setting aside biographically grounded and traditional analytical modes of explication Reichardt uncovers and explores the musical ambiguities of four of the composer's middle string quartets especially those ambiguities located in moments of rupture within the musical structure The music is constantly collapsing reversing inverting and denying its own structural imperatives Reichardt argues that such confrontation of the musical language with itself though perhaps interpretable as Shostakovich's own unique version of double speak also poignantly articulates the fractured state of a more general form of modern subjectivity Reichardt employs the framework of Lacanian psychoanalysis to offer a cogent explanation of this connection between disruptive musical process and modern subjectivity The ruptures of Shostakovich's music become symptoms of the pathologies at the core of modern subjectivity These symptoms in turn relate to the Lacanian concept of the real which is the empty kernel around which the modern subject constructs reality This framework proves invaluable in developing a powerful original hermeneutic understanding of the music Read through the lens of the real the riddles written into the quartets reveal the arbitrary and contingent state of the musical subject's constructed reality reflecting pathologies ended
