The Dilemma of the Modern in Japanese Fiction Dennis C. Washburn, 1995-03-11 This book looks at modernity in Japanese literary culture as a continuing historical dynamic rather than as merely the product of the intense Westernization of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The author links the modern in Japan to a sense of cultural discontinuity that may be located in fictional narratives before the encounter of Japan with the West and he argues that modernity in Meiji Japan can be understood in terms of cultural conflict not only Japan versus the West but also Japan's present versus its past Washburn compares readings from Meiji literature with readings from pre Meiji and post Meiji works He begins with Genji monogatari early eleventh century and the Hojoki 1212 continues with stories by Saikaku late seventeenth century and ends with a consideration of selected texts from the Meiji period 1868-1912 through the end of the Second World War Washburn focuses on common thematic elements that recur over time and on such formal considerations as voice and perspective that evolve historically to give expression to the sense of the modern Using this approach he is able to look at many individual authors in a new way and to present significant reevaluations of many important texts This book is also a study of the East Asian Institute Columbia University Contemporary Literary Critics NA NA,2015-12-25 A reference guide to the work of 115 modern British and American critics Djuna Barnes and Affective Modernism Julie Taylor,2012-02-29 Explores the dynamic connections between the affective body and Djuna Barnes's textual corpus The five chapters of this book reconsider modernist intertextuality affect and subjectivity to produce a series of lively and compelling readings of the major

Philosophical Approaches to Literature William E. Cain,1984 This volume presents eleven new essays that reveal how significant nineteenth and twentieth century writers have drawn from and in some cases opposed major trends in philosophy Essays in this collection deal with Tennyson Coleridge Woolf Faulkner De Quincey Beckett romance as a genre the state of contemporary literary theory as shaped by the writings of Wittgenstein Ricoeur and Derrida and other topics Modernist Literatures Sarah Davison,2017-09-16 This Readers Guide offers a stimulating and accessible introduction to the key criticism which surrounds the diverse range of literatures of the modernist period Sarah Davison explores a variety of critical works from initial pronouncements to recent studies which have shaped the way that Anglo American modernism is understood and theorized today English and Indian Literature R.W. Desai,Christel R. Devadawson,Rajiva Verma,2025-05-01 Written in the memory of Professor G K Das and divided into three sections this book takes on special significance as India reflects on the ever changing prospects ahead of the first seventy five years of independence The subject matter in this book outlines the relationship between texts and the larger cultural context that they shape and that in turn shapes them It also presents a comparison of the relationship between events and the written word or between lines of inquiry and the various kinds of writing that articulate them The first section discusses British and Indian writers of the precolonial and colonial periods The essays in the second section reflect on the question Does the emergent nation state seem at all like the visions that presaged it or does it increasingly resemble the imperialistic nightmare that it seeks to replace Finally the last section explores the relationship between literature and human nature and also discusses the framing discourse on literature and the environment The collection closes with a previously unpublished essay by Professor Das that brings to the forefront one of the most urgent global issues of today the troubling relationship between humanity and an ecologically fragile environment within which it functions Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan or Bhutan James the Critic Vivien Jones, 1985-08-12 Approaching Postmodernism Douwe Wessel Fokkema, Johannes Willem Bertens, 1986 Most of the essays collected in this volume deal with theoretical issues that dominate the international debate on Postmodernism issues such as the shifting nature of the concept the problem of periodization and the problem of historicity Other essays offer readings of Postmodernist texts and relate practical criticism to a theoretical framework Hans Bertens Utrecht sketches the historical development of the concept Postmodernism in American criticism distinguishing between the various definitions that have been proposed over the last twenty five years in an attempt to bring some order to the field and to facilitate future discussion Brian McHale Tel Aviv and Douwe Fokkema Utrecht offer models for the description of Postmodernist texts Richard Todd Amsterdam argues convincingly that Postmodernism is much more of a presence in contemporary British fiction than has so far been assumed and Herta Schmid Munich presents a similar argument with respect to Russian avant garde theater Elrud Ibsch Amsterdam presents a contrastive analysis of Thomas Bernhard and Robert Musil Ulla Musarra Nijmegen writes on Italo Calvino The relation between Existentialism and Postmodernism is examined by Gerhard Hoffman W rzburg Theo D haen Utrecht finds important parallels between Postmodernism in literature and in the visual arts Matei Calinescu Bloomington Ind relates literary Postmodernism to a far more general cultural shift rejecting however Foucault s notion of an epistemic break and arguing for both continuity and discontinuity Finally Helmut Lethen Utrecht and Susan Suleiman Harvard sharply question the concept of Postmodernism Suleiman argues that the supposed Postmodernist reaction against Modernism may well be a critical myth or if it isn t a reaction limited to the American literary situation
