Sri Aurobindo: The Mother, with letters on the Mother, and translations of prayers and meditations Aurobindo Ghose, 1972 Letters to a Mother, 1831 The Mother's Magazine and Family Circle Abigail Goodrich Whittelsey, Darius Mead, Elizabeth Sewell, Maria C. Tracy, 1835 Letters of Note: Mothers, 2020-03-05 In Letters of Note Mothers Shaun Usher gathers together exceptional missives by and to mothers celebrating the joy and grief humour and frustration wisdom and sacrifice the role brings to both parent and child Includes letters by Caitlin Moran Sylvia Plath Martin Luther King Jr George Bernard Shaw E B White Laura Dern Louisa May Alcott Edna St Vincent Millay Bette Davis Richard Wagner Martha Gellhorn many more Mother Teresa's General Letters to Her Sisters Kolodiejchuk MC Brian, 2024-06-21 Mother Teresa's General Letters to Her Sisters is a collection of Mother Teresa's circular letters to the members of her religious congregation the Missionaries of Charity Sisters Not intended for those outside her community they were written informally and spontaneously often with little editing It was for Mother Teresa a way of being present to the members of her rapidly expanding religious order Seemingly of little interest except for those to whom they were addressed the letters reveal the spiritual depth and pragmatic leadership of one of the most popular modern saints as well as the inner dynamics underlying one of the most flourishing religious congregations of the last century At the same time and perhaps surprisingly these letters may also prove to be worthwhile reading for a wider audience Something of God s wisdom and love seems to shine through Mother Teresa s guidance and counsels giving the reader light and help even though he or she is not living the same religious life as one of the Sisters Mother Teresa s unpolished statements are at times humble and at times humbling They inspire confidence and encourage generosity Many a time they are humorous but more often challenging They are sprinkled with serene joy but also permeated with deep pain She delighted in her Sisters accomplishments yet did not shy away from correcting even the smallest flaw which didn t escape her very observant eye Sometimes she sounded just like a mother full of tender loving care and at other times more like a commander in chief exhibiting an iron will and uncompromising determination In either case her followers seemed to have been drawn into the mystery of her charism endeavoring to keep pace with her Was it the attraction of what could be termed as her leadership style in the unrelenting service of the poorest of the poor or the perceived love of a mother s heart that made her so unanimously loved and admired by the members of her congregation Or was it both The letters will reveal the answer Inspiring in their simplicity the letters may well serve as a treasure trove where anyone from a reflective scholar to a caring mother of a family may find satisfaction for their spiritual palate The attractiveness of perennial truth often makes Mother Teresa s presentation of traditional spiritual themes likewise relevant for contemporary needs In the context of Mother Teresa s statement that we are created for greater things to love and to be loved these letters will help the reader discover and experience God s presence through the little miracles of His love in one s daily life They will inspire us to put our love into living action sharing His love with all those we meet and so make our lives something beautiful for God The Mother's Magazine & Family Monitor ,1851

The Mother's Assistant and Young Lady's Friend William C. Brown,1841 Mothers of Heroes, Mothers of Martyrs Suzanne Evans,2007-02-09 Suzanne Evans finds commonalities between the many images of war mothers the Canadian Silver Cross mother the ancient Jewish Maccabean mother of seven martyred sons the mother of a Palestinian suicide bomber She compares the lore about mothers of martyrs in the Judeo Christian Muslim and Sikh traditions with stories of World War I Canadian mothers who were depicted in the media as having sacrificed their sons for the sake of civilization justice freedom and God After the war these mothers were honoured with the Silver Cross medal Evans argues that like the mothers of past martyrs the image of the war supportive mother in Canada had a powerful influence over public opinion and drew supporters to the cause Edward Hopper Gail Levin,2023-01-03 New York Times Notable Book Los Angeles Times

Book Prize Finalist Wall Street Journal One of Five Best Artist Biographies Edward Hopper's canvasses are filled with stripped down spaces and unrelenting light evocative landscapes and the lonely aspects of men and women seemingly isolated in their surroundings What kind of man had this haunting vision and what kind of life engendered this art No one is better qualified to answer these questions than art historian Gail Levin author and curator of the major studies and exhibitions of Hopper's work In this intimate biography she reveals the true nature and personality of the man himself and of the woman who shared his life the artist Josephine Nivison

Life and Letters of Phillips Brooks Alexander Viets Griswold Allen, 1900 The Works of the Rev. Jonathan Swift, D.D. ...: Letters Jonathan Swift, 1813

Children Crossing Borders Joseph Tobin, Jennifer Keys Adair, Angela Arzubiaga, 2013-10-31 In many school districts in America the majority of students in preschools are children of recent immigrants For both immigrant families and educators the changing composition of preschool classes presents new and sometimes divisive questions about educational instruction cultural norms and academic priorities Drawing from an innovative study of preschools across the nation Children Crossing Borders provides the first systematic comparison of the beliefs and perspectives of immigrant parents and the preschool teachers to whom they entrust their children Children Crossing Borders presents valuable evidence from the U S portion of a landmark five country study on the intersection of early education and immigration The volume shows that immigrant parents and early childhood educators often have differing notions of what should happen in preschool Most immigrant parents want preschool teachers to teach English prepare their children academically and help them adjust to life in the United States Many said it was unrealistic to expect a preschool to play a major role in helping children retain their cultural and religious values The authors examine the different ways that language and cultural differences prevent immigrant parents and school administrations from working together to achieve educational goals For their part many early education teachers who work with immigrant children find themselves caught between two core beliefs on one hand the desire to be culturally sensitive and responsive to parents and on the other hand adhering to their core professional codes of best practice While immigrant parents generally prefer traditional methods of academic instruction many teachers use play based curricula that give children opportunities to be creative and construct their own knowledge Worryingly most preschool teachers say they have received little to no training in working with immigrant children who are still learning English For most young children of recent immigrants preschools are the first and most profound context in which they confront the conflicts between their home culture and the United States Policymakers and educators however are still struggling with how best to serve these children and their parents Children Crossing Borders provides valuable research on these questions and on the ways schools can effectively and sensitively incorporate new immigrants into the social fabric
