The Moyer Site Norman E. Wagner, L. Riegert, Lawrence E. Toombs, Eduard R. Riegert, 1973-01-01 The Moyer Site Norman E. Wagner, Lawrence E. Toombs, Eduard R. Riegert, 1974-06-01 The Moyer Site the early 15th century village in Waterloo County Ontario contained 10 Longhouses The largest house was the length of a football field over 300 feet long Excavated in 1970-72 the Moyer village promises to shed new light on the early history of Western Ontario This report breaks new ground by utilizing the computer in the analysis of the finds Reconstructing Ontario Iroquoian Village

Organization — Ontario Iroquois Tradition Longhouses Gary A. Warrick, Christine F. Dodd, 1984-01-01 The first study presents a model of Ontario Iroquoian village organization based on fourteen Late Iroquoian ca A D 1450-1650 village plans historic documents and comparative data on contemporary communities It is argued that socio-political factors village demography socio-economics and government were the major determinants of Iroquoian village arrangement In light of the socio-political model suggested in part one of this book the second study interprets changes in longhouse village planning throughout the Ontario Iroquois sequence A D 700-1650 as responses to evolutionary trends in Iroquoian warfare patterns and political organization Published in English Before Ontario Marit K. Munson, Susan M. Jamieson, 2013-10-01 Before Ontario there was ice As the last ice age came to an end land began to emerge from the melting glaciers With time plants and animals moved into the new landscape and people followed For almost 15 000 years the land that is now Ontario has provided a home for their descendants hundreds of generations of First Peoples With contributions from the province's leading archaeologists Before Ontario provides both an outline of Ontario's ancient past and an easy to understand explanation of how archaeology works The authors show how archaeologists are able to study items as diverse as fish bones flakes of stone and stains in the soil to reconstruct the events and places of a distant past fishing parties long distance trade and houses built to withstand frigid winters Presenting new insights into archaeology's purpose and practice Before Ontario bridges the gap between the modern world and a past that can seem distant and unfamiliar but is not beyond our reach Contributors include Christopher Ellis University of Western Ontario Neal Ferris University of Western Ontario Museum of Ontario Archaeology William Fox Canadian Museum of Civilization Royal Ontario Museum Scott Hamilton Lakehead University Susan Jamieson Trent University Archaeological Research Centre TUARC Mima Kapches Royal Ontario Museum Anne Keenleyside TUARC Stephen Monckton Bioarchaeological Research Marit Munson TUARC Kris Nahrgang Kawartha Nishnawbe First Nation Suzanne Needs Howarth Perca Zooarchaeological Research Cath Oberholtzer TUARC Michael Spence University of Western Ontario Andrew Stewart Strata Consulting Inc Gary Warrick Wilfrid Laurier University and Ron Williamson Archaeological Services Inc Passion for the Past James Vallière Wright, Jean-Luc Pilon, 2004-01-01 A Passion for the Past celebrates the late archaeologist James F Pendergast The book includes twenty-two essays on subjects ranging from archaeological ethnicity to Native perspectives on archaeology and features several texts on the St Lawrence

Iroquoians a subject dear to Pendergast's heart Published in English The Myers Road Site Ontario Archaeological Society. London Chapter, 1998 Societies in Eclipse David S. Brose, Robert C. Mainfort, C. Wesley Cowan, 2005-11-04

While contact with explorers missionaries and traders made a significant impact on natives of the Eastern Woodlands Indian peoples cannot be solely understood from the historical record Here in Societies in Eclipse archaeologists combine recent research with insights from anthropology historiography and oral tradition to examine the cultural landscape preceding and immediately following the arrival of Europeans The evidence suggests that native societies were in the process of significant cultural transformation prior to contact Religious Studies in Ontario Harold Remus, Daniel Fraikin, William Closson James, 2006-01-01

Most Ontario universities were established by Christian denominations a Christian ethos was assumed and pervasive and students were required to take courses designed to teach and inculcate religion This insightful and comprehensive study demonstrates how as Ontario society became secularized and pluralistic so too did universities Today religion is again studied in university classrooms but as religious studies a relatively new field that reflects the religiously pluralistic nature of Ontario and the world wide explosion of knowledge This authoritative volume will be of interest to students of religion in and outside academic circles to administrators of academic institutions and granting agencies and to persons wanting to know more about the social and cultural changes that have transformed Ontario and Canadian society
