International Perspectives on Racial and Ethnic Mixedness and Mixing Rosalind Edwards, Suki Ali, Chamion Caballero, Miri Song, 2012-06-14 People from a mixed or inter racial and ethnic background and people partnering and parenting across different racial and ethnic backgrounds are of increasing political public and intellectual interest internationally Contributors to this interdisciplinary collection interrogate notions of mixedness and mixing and challenge stereotypical assumptions They advance debates in the field through illuminating the complexity of specific historical trajectories administrative practices and lived experience Recurrent themes woven throughout the chapters include boundaries and categorisation in terms of administration and government and also of lived experience the explicit and implicit politics of mixedness and mixing in terms of nation state interests agenda and policies as well as on the ground social relations the ways that mixedness and mixing shift in meaning and implications across time and place shaped by different national regional and or local contexts This volume shows that who is and is not mixed is contested and understandings of mixedness and mixing however conceived need to be situated in the larger complex of ideas about race and its classification International Perspectives on Racial and Ethnic Mixedness and Mixing is an invaluable book for students and scholars of race and ethnicity

How School Principals Sustain Success over Time Lejf Moos,Olof Johansson,Christopher Day,2011-05-26 This work represents a publishing event in education research Genuinely groundbreaking it is the result of longitudinal research from five nations over five years The authors set themselves an unprecedented task to analyze how it is that successful school principals sustain positive outcomes over a significant period of time To find out they initiated the International Successful School Principal Project ISSPP assembling 30 multinational case histories and numerous comparative analyses In doing so they recorded fresh perspectives on the influence school principals can have on their schools the quality of teaching in their classrooms and student outcomes Revisiting the subject schools in 2007 they found many principals still in place having steered their organizations through various minefields of political governance and educational reform As the most penetrating longitudinal investigation of the subject this research has unearthed fascinating new insights into school leadership that add real substance to the sum of our knowledge It incorporates data from educational systems in Australia Denmark Norway Sweden England and the USA One key finding is that while all principals delegate a range of leadership tasks successful ones distribute responsibility on a case by case basis founded on personal assessments of their staff as well as on organizational and policy contexts The research also demonstrates that successful principals maintain close communication with their staff and the wider school environment and that they are adaptive maximizing the opportunities presented by new political contexts and expectations yet without losing sight of their school s core moral and ethical principles The volume s international thematic analysis has allowed comparative conclusions to be drawn on what the principals do to sustain and foster pedagogical and institutional success

Introduction to Multicultural Counseling for Helping Professionals, second edition Graciela L. Orozco,John A. Blando,2010-08-18 First Published in 2007 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Perspectives on the Educational Experiences of African/Caribbean Boys Nisheet Gosai,2011-09-22 This study critically explores contemporary African Caribbean boys 15 16 years old educational experiences in the UK It focuses on their lives from both within and outside the school Various research methods are employed in order to gain a comprehensive picture that includes the accounts of African Caribbean boys parents teachers and youth workers The study explores both the boys positive and negative experiences of school life At one level the boys narratives suggest a nothing but the same old story of racial exclusion and subordination within urban secondary schools At another level we hear of the importance of education in their lives Of particular significance is the evidence of how black supplementary schools and youth organisations are providing an educational space that positively supports them in their transition into adulthood The study makes recommendations for educationalists and policy makers based on the findings This includes the need to understand the boys experiences of racial exclusion and the complexities around the intersection of race gender and class for a younger generation at the start of the twenty first century In comparing mainstream and supplementary educational spaces the boys identify the need to build an inclusive mainstream curriculum that represents the historical past and cultural present of their lives Importantly the study vividly highlights contrasting teacher pupil interactions between these two educational spaces suggesting what the former can learn from the latter
