The Myriad Christ:

The Myriad Christ Terrence Merrigan, Jacques Haers, 2000 Papers gathered here are the fruit of an international congress held at the Faculty of Theology of the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven 18-21 November 1997 Pref The Myriad Christ Terrence Merrigan, Jon Ma Asgeirsson, Jacques Haers, Kristin De Troyer, Marvin W. Meyer, 2000 This study brings together the reflections of international scholars on the state of contemporary christology that branch of theology which reflects on the person significance of Jesus of Nazareth A Thomistic Christocentrism Dylan Schrader, 2021-08-13 Examines the theory of the motive behind Christ's incarnation developed by the Samanticensis Discalced Carmelites of Salamanca in the 17th century showing how it perpetuates the tradition of Thomas Aquinas and refutes the more modern theories put forward by Karl Rahner and Hans Urs von Balthasar Christ, Creation, and the Fall Simon R. Watson, 2021-05-03 If the Christian God is creator of all things and revealed in Christ to be compassionate love then how can divine agency in creation be understood considering the Darwinian assertion that biological warfare undergirds natural selection The implications are significant for understanding Christian discipleship and ethics if indeed the human is made in God's image with the capacity for creative or destructive dominion over earthly life Gen 1:26 To approach this challenge Simon R. Watson turns to Philip Hefner's The Human Factor 1993 which identifies the human as created co-creator to investigate themes of freedom and determinism in light of Darwinian evolutionary theory Hefner's argument exploring human purpose from a beneficence discernible in creation invites a re-examination of Victorian preoccupations with natural teleology Inspired by Hefner's work Watson places Darwin's The Descent of Man 1871 in conversation with historical and contemporary sources from William Paley's Natural Theology 1802 to twenty-first century articulations of Wisdom Christology by Denis Edwards and Elizabeth Johnson to argue that theology can offer a framework of meaning to interpret an evolving nature as revelatory of a Christian God when considered through the lens of a suffering Christ and an existentially fallen creation Strangers and Pilgrims on Earth Paul van Geest, Eduardus van der Borght, 2011-11-25 The title Strangers and Pilgrims on Earth Hebrews 11:13 captures well the eschatological nature of the christology which has become so central in the theological enterprise of Prof. dr Abraham van de Beek At the occasion of his sixty-fifth birthday in October 2011 many of his former colleagues and students honour him in this Festschrift with a contribution to one of the themes that have been central to his theology christology theology of Israel eschatology theology of the church creation theology and freedom of religion The volume opens with an article providing an overview of his theological development one probing his deepest theological intentions and with an up-to-date bibliography Contributors include Martien Brinkman Johan Buitendag Jaesung Cha Pieter Coertzen Ernst Conradie Gerrit de Kruif Bert de Leede Adelbert Denaux Gerard den Hertog Rene de Reuver Henk de Roest Andre Drost Szilveszter F. On Christ's Mission Riaan Engelbrecht, 2023-07-25

When Jesus departed to be with His eternal Father He gave the church the ecclesia a clear mission statement in Matthew 28 which speaks of the Great Commission And what is the Great Commission therefore the mission Go and make disciples so that the world may be told of Jesus and therefore be saved Some will say some translations never speak of making disciples but rather to teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost But is the purpose of teaching the nations of Christ not to make disciples If one teaches someone about Jesus you are surely equipping them to be a follower of Jesus And such a follower is a disciple We are called in God s wisdom and by His Spirit to teach all people about Jesus for the purpose of making disciples It doesn t happen automatically It will take a concerted and decisive effort of the Bride of God Time is however slipping away to get our house in order with God and now is the time to do so We are living in the last days and the day of the Lord s coming is at hand Billions of people are still lost in every city town and village across the world There is no more time to be playing church or to be consumed with our agendas We need to come into alignment with God seek Him and be awake from our slumber The church has been slumbering for a long time lulled into sleep by a false sense of security peace and a sense of accomplishment Yet there is a mission to complete which is the Great Commission It is God s mission of bringing in the harvest of the lost and broken Now is the time to get busy with God s business and His business is about salvation redemption and restoration The call to the church to actively engage in this mission therefore to make the main thing the main thing is covered in volumes one and two and Religious Pluralism Keith E. Johnson, 2011-09-02 Founding his argument on a close reading of St Augustine s De Trinitate Keith Johnson critiques four recent attempts to construct a pluralistic theology of religions out of the orthodox doctrine of the Trinity Jesus, an Emerging Jewish Mosaic Daniel F. Moore, 2011-11-03 Since Martin Buber in Two Types of Faith acknowledged Jesus as his great brother other Jewish writers have sought to ascertain a place for Jesus within the larger context of Jewish history In the aftermath of the Shoah specifically in the afflicted consciousness of humanity Jew and Christian alike began to ask how this tragedy could have happened especially among and against people of faith In an effort to assure that such a tragedy never happens again the focus of some fell upon Jesus previously the obstacle to reconciliation but now perceived as the obvious and most viable bridge to span the chasm and assuage the wound of anti Jewish and anti Christian sentiments Still others chose to join and expand the academic quest for the historical Jesus adding Jewish voices to the effort to explore more rigorously and objectively the figure of Jesus in historical writing In this unique and illuminating volume Father Daniel F Moore presents the historical identity of Jesus through lens of such Jewish scholars as Schalom Ben Chorin David Flusser Geza Vermes and Jacob Neuser A useful book for those interesting in ecumenical discourse and Jesus studies

Desire, Faith, and the Darkness of God Eric Bugyis, David Newheiser, 2015-11-15 In the face of religious and cultural diversity some doubt whether Christian faith remains possible today Critics claim that religion is irrational and violent and the loudest defenders of Christianity are equally strident In response Desire Faith and the Darkness of God Essays in Honor of Denys Turner explores the uncertainty essential to Christian commitment it suggests that faith is moved by a desire for that which cannot be known This approach is inspired by the tradition of Christian apophatic theology which argues that language cannot capture divine transcendence From this perspective contemporary debates over God's existence represent a dead end if God is not simply another object in the world then faith begins not in abstract certainty but in a love that exceeds the limits of knowledge The essays engage classic Christian thought alongside literary and philosophical sources ranging from Pseudo Dionysius and Dante to Karl Marx and Jacques Derrida Building on the work of Denys Turner they indicate that the boundary between atheism and Christian thought is productively blurry Instead of settling the stale dispute over whether religion is rationally justified their work suggests instead that Christian life is an ethical and political practice impassioned by a God who transcends understanding
