Sir John Franklin:

Deadly Winter Martyn Beardsley, 2002 A significant part of the book is also devoted to Franklin the sailor and the man He was present at two of Nelson's most famous battles Copenhagen and Trafalgar and sailed with the great navigator Matthew Flinders on the first circumnavigation of Australia The book covers his governorship of Tasmania and gives an insight into the corruption and political chicanery which finally drove him out Franklin was married to two exceptional women and through surviving letters and diaries we catch a glimpse of his relationship with the precocious but frail Eleanor Anne Porden who died tragically young while he was away on an expedition He subsequently married the strong-willed Jane Griffin who won great admiration in her attempts to pressure the Admiralty to step up their efforts to find her missing husband

Fate of Sir

John Franklin Sir Francis Leopold M'Clintock, 1881 The Life of Sir John Franklin Henry Duff Traill, 1896 Noted for proving the existence of the Northwest Passage John Franklin is a celebrated explorer in Canadian history A British Royal Navy officer and Arctic explorer Franklin first sailed around Canada from 1819 to 1822 and then again from 1825 to 1827 when he explored the mouth of the Mackenzie River After being knighted and serving as governor of Tasmania from 1836 to 1843 Franklin took to the seas again to finally navigate his Northwest Passage Perhaps from starvation and exposure to the harsh Arctic climate Franklin and his crew never successfully made it back home but their efforts maps journals and bravery leave them memorialized in museums and monuments throughout Canada today The Search for Sir John Franklin Sir Allen W. Young, Sir John Franklin, 1875 The Gates of Hell Andrew D. Lambert, 2014-05-14 From one of our foremost naval historians the compelling story of the doomed Arctic voyage of the HMS Erebus and the HMS Terror commanded by Captain Sir John Franklin Andrew Lambert a leading authority on naval history reexamines the life of Sir John Franklin and his final doomed Arctic voyage Franklin was a man of his time fascinated even obsessed with the need to explore the world he had already mapped nearly two thirds of the northern coastline of North America when he undertook his third Arctic voyage in 1845 at the age of fifty nine His two ships were fitted with the latest equipment steam engines enabled them to navigate the pack ice and he and his crew had a three year supply of preserved and tinned food and more than one thousand books Despite these preparations the voyage ended in catastrophe the ships became imprisoned in the ice and the men were wracked by disease and ultimately wiped out by hypothermia scurvy and cannibalism Franklin's mission was ostensibly to find the elusive North West Passage a viable sea route between Europe and Asia reputed to lie north of the American continent Lambert shows for the first time that there were other scientific goals for the voyage and that the disaster can only be understood by reconsidering the original objectives of the mission Franklin commonly dismissed as a bumbling fool emerges as a more important and impressive figure in fact a hero of navigational science Arctic Explorations in Search of Sir John Franklin Elisha Kent Kane, 1890 Life of Sir John Franklin and the North-west Passage Sir Albert Hastings Markham, 1891 The Search for Sir John Franklin Charles Richard Weld, 1851
