In tracing the changes in representation of the Father Son Holy Spirit and Four Last Things in early and medieval Latin hymns post Reformation chorales and psalm based hymns and English hymns from the time of Watts the book shows an increasing sense of personal response to the Incarnation and Passion of Christ and of participation in His redemptive work Chapters on hymnody of the Nativity and Passion illustrate the tendency of monastic poets the Learned tradition to focus on dogma mystery and paradox and carolists the Popular tradition to convey devotional tenderness Those on hymnody of the Holy Spirit illustrate a shift through the medieval period from representing pentecostal events to exploring their spiritual meaning During the Reformation and the Evangelical Revival the weight of hymnody shifts first to the Father and then to the Son's Passion and Atonement applied personally and inwardly re lived by the convert Most consistently hymnic representations of the Last Things shift their focus from collective to individual judgement from death as sleep until the general awakening to death as instant passage to reunion with family and friends As a hymnologist rather than a theologian Adey makes no pronouncements on the truth of Christian beliefs His focus is on how poets have expressed them over two millenia As such the book will interest not only students of religion but also those in such related disciplines as literature psychology history and sociology
