explores the history of skateboarding and reveals a vivid understanding of how skateboarders through their actions experience the city and its architecture in a unique way Berlin Sports Heather L. Dichter, Molly Wilkinson Johnson, 2024-10-14 In many American cities individual athletes professional teams and university sports are integral to the cities sporting identities Berlin in contrast features no single hallmark sport team or annual event Five political regimes wartime destruction and four decades of division instead fostered ever changing teams allegiances and venues Yet the desire to play and watch sport continued unabated across these political watersheds Berlin Sports Spectacle Recreation and Media in Germany s Metropolis explores the history of sport in Berlin from the late nineteenth to the early twenty first centuries against the backdrop of the city s sharp political shifts diverse populations and status as a major metropolis with both regional and global resonance This book begins with a long distance equestrian race in the 1890s and continues with the role of media in spectacle celebrity urban life and gender from the 1890s to the 1920s It then turns to grassroots sport participation and spectatorship as well as sport diplomacy at the elite international level during the postwar period and the years of German division Next it explores recreational sport associations within the context of immigration and youth counterculture It concludes with the 2015 European Maccabi Games an international Jewish sports festival through which Berlin sought to grapple with the infamous 1936 Olympics and showcase Berlin as a cosmopolitan and multicultural city Taken together the book's scholarly essays on all of these sporting endeavors reveal the rich and varied sporting culture in Berlin and yield fresh insights into spectacle recreation and media in the city Eye, 1995 Artsy Toddler Storytimes Carol Garnett Hopkins, 2013-05-23 For toddlers every storytime can be a new adventure while art activities are important for developing impulse control hand eye coordination and fine motor dexterity in the hands Hopkins new book fuses them together Designed for children ages 1 to 3 years old the book's 52 storytimes promote pre reading skills such as print motivation vocabulary and narrative skills Based on themes familiar to children including bears bugs springtime clothing and hats flowers and gardens weather music pets transportation pirates and many more each storytime includes a list of books action songs or rhymes along with their words a flannelboard experience plus instruction for two to three art activities This complete toddler storytime resource also includes An introduction which discusses the differences between art activities and craft activities a toddler's ability in creating art and why children this age should be exposed to art activities Advice for using different art mediums such as food plus important safety considerations Pointers on conducting playful yet educational storytimes Tips for finding inexpensive art materials with a list of recommended supplies to keep on hand More than 100 drawings all easy to reproduce and modify Weblinks to Artsy Helper Sheets downloadable supplements complete with phrases tips and tricks that inform parents and caregivers about the benefits of doing art activities with toddlers Pick up Hopkins book and you'll be ready to conduct a storytime within moments
