to the present are drawn from across South Asia including present day India Pakistan and Bangladesh Lambert Hurley uses many rare autobiographical texts in a wide array of languages including Urdu English Hindi Bengali Gujarati Marathi Punjabi and Malayalam to elaborate a theoretical model for gender autobiography and the self beyond the usual Euro American frame In doing so she works toward a new globalized history of the field Ultimately Elusive Lives points to the sheer diversity of Muslim women's lives and life stories offering a unique window into a history of the everyday against a backdrop of imperialism reformism nationalism and feminism

The Land I Dream Of Manisha Sobhrajani, 2014-10-25 In any conflict the worst affected are always the women The narrative around the Jammu and Kashmir insurgency continues to be built around the role of freedom fighters insurgents and politicians all of them not surprisingly men Yet women have played an extraordinary role in the history of Kashmir in retaining Kashmiriyat that long forgotten ideal of mutual co existence Equally as mothers daughters widows fighters martyrs and mujahids they have been inseparable from the four decade old conflict In The Land I Dream of researcher Manisha Sobhrajani documents her encounters with women from disparate backgrounds across the troubled state A Kashmiri Pandit forced into exile as a child a mother figure battling the establishment to give hope to thousands like her whose men have disappeared an eighty year old who trained to fight tribal invaders in 1947 as part of Kashmir's first women only militia and young Muslim women empowering themselves through entrepreneurship the lives she chronicles bear witness not just to the suffering and apathy Kashmiri women have had to endure but also to their strength in the face of it all Combining individual recollection with journalistic endeavour this searingly personal account of loss and despair and equally of hope and optimism is a testament to the resilience of the women in one of the world's most fractious regions

Dancing with the Nation Ruth Vanita, 2018-02-22 Indian cinema is the only body of world cinema that depicts courtesans as important characters In early films courtesan characters transmitted Indian classical dance music and aesthetics to large audiences They represent the nation's past tracing their heritage to the fourth century Kamasutra and to nineteenth century courtly cultures but they are also the first group of modern women in

Hindi films They are working professionals living on their own or in matrilineal families Like male protagonists they travel widely and develop networks of friends and chosen kin They have relations with men outside marriage and become single mothers Courtesan films are heroine oriented and almost every major female actor has played this role Challenging received wisdom Vanita demonstrates that a larger number of courtesans in Bombay cinema are Hindu and indeterminate than are Muslim and that films depict their culture as hybrid Hindu Muslim not Islamicate Courtesans speak in the ambiguous voice of the modern nation inviting spectators to seize pleasure here and now but also to search for the meaning of life Vanita's groundbreaking study of courtesans and courtesan imagery in 235 films brings fresh evidence to show that the courtesan figure shapes the modern Indian erotic political and religious imagination
