Songs Of Enchantment:

The Infinite Longing for Home David C. L. Lim, 2005 This is a groundbreaking study of Ben Okri's and K S Maniam's literary problematization of home in relation to subjectivity and the nation within and beyond the context of Nigeria and Malaysia Drawing on Lacan Zizek Laclau and Mouffe and weaving through history politics philosophy and literature this book critically examines the motives and means by which peoples forced to live together in a country love and hate each other and overlook the truths about themselves their actions and beliefs It looks into why some embrace heterogeneity and open endedness while others are internally compelled to over identify passionately with their religion and race and to posit theirs as irreducibly distinct from and superior to others The Infinite Longing for Home also traces through Okri's and Maniam's writings a way out of today's political aporia a path to the re creation of a new society humbled unified by the recognition of its participation in flawed humanity

Songs of Enchantment Ben Okri, 2020-06-30 Set in an African village this follow up to the Man Booker Prize winning novel is sometimes whimsical sometimes bawdy Fraught with wild visions The Times All is not well in the African village where Azaro lives The child narrator of poet and novelist Okri's The Famished Road who had outwitted death in the previous book again relates the oppressive events that continue to plague his village and his family While political factionalization shatters the community's cohesiveness the prodigious bar owner Madame Koto chief exponent of the Party of the Rich alternately exudes portentous metaphysical malaise and miraculous erotic force Little Azaro himself touched and distracted by a series of animuses follows the heels of dad who is a resounding vessel by turns of cantankerous egotism and abased self sacrifice This Nigerian epic reveals a violent provincial world opaque with magical spirits which place horrendous ethical demands on fragile and fickle humanity as if to test each individual for a thread of virtuous constancy at the core Events drench the essentially linear narrative with all the ruthless sensuousness of a tropical storm and Okri's prose is lucid and deft Publishers Weekly Okri conjures up the fabulous with the same ease as he affectingly details the ways of the human spirit in a lovingly evoked African setting teeming with life both real and mythic Stunning Kirkus Reviews Once again we're bedazzled and bedeviled by Okri's phantasmagoric prose and the strange and wondrous sensibility of Azaro a spirit child living in a poor African village Booklist Both a love story and an account of the political turmoil between the parties of Rich and Poor The Independent Passages of extraordinary beauty Okri paints a convincing surrealist picture The Sunday Times

Songs of Enchantment Ben Okri, 1994 Coterminous Worlds, 2020-10-12 The present collection of essays endeavours to furnish informed responses to central questions posed by the editors Is the fact that the marvellous coexists with the factual and never resolves itself into the supernatural an indication that the whole literary project of magical realism is an instrumental and representational form which can be regarded as particularly suitable for reconciling dichotomies and oppositions otherwise experienced as intolerable Was magical realism an explosive process in cultural dynamics taking place at intersections of heterogeneous cultures most favourable to the efflorescence of this type of

literature The authors of the various essays on Patrick White and David Malouf Ben Okri Syl Cheney Coker Robert Kroetsch Gwendolyn MacEwan Jack Hodgins Salman Rushdie Janet Frame Wilson Harris and others provide a dynamic focus on the reality at stake beneath the surface representations of magical realism in post colonial literatures Landscape, Environment and Technology in Colonial and Postcolonial Africa Toyin Falola, Emily Brownell, 2013-03-01 This volume seeks to identify and examine two categories of colonial and postcolonial knowledge production about Africa These two broad categories are environment and landscape and both are useful and problematic to explore Discussions about African environments often concentrate on Africans as perpetrators of their own land causing degradation from lack of knowledge and technology Landscape defines the category of knowledge produced by foreigners about Africa where Africans remain part of the scenery and yield no agency over their surroundings To flesh out these categories and explore their creation and how they have been deployed to shape colonial and postcolonial discourses on Africa this volume investigates the technological pastoral the points of convergence and conflict between Western notions of pastoral Africa and the introduction of colonial technology scientific ideas and commodification of land and animals Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature

Songs of the Enchantment Ben Okri, 2002 Azaro the spirit child is a reluctant traveller in the realities of this world His adventures begin with the disruption of his family when under the pressure of poverty and myth his mother goes off to follow the legendary Madame Koto An obsession for a beautiful beggar girl ensnares his father into forbidden visions Through the experiences of this unique family the reader learns that life lived with compassion fire and serenity can vanquish the forces of oppression and counter the darkness with light The Writings of Lafcadio Hearn Lafcadio Hearn, 1922 Songs of Enchantment Blaydon School, 1935 Magical Realism in West African Fiction Brenda Cooper, 2012-10-12 This study contextualizes magical realism within current debates and theories of postcoloniality and examines the fiction of three of its West African pioneers Syl Cheney Coker of Sierra Leone Ben Okri of Nigeria and Kojo Laing of Ghana Brenda Cooper explores the distinct elements of the genre in a West African context and in relation to a range of global expressions of magical realism from the work of Gabriel Garcia Marquez to that of Salman Rushdie wider contemporary trends in African writing with particular attention to how the realism of authors such as Chinua Achebe and Wole Soyinka has been connected with nationalist agendas This is a fascinating and important work for all those working on African literature magical realism or postcoloniality Stray Leaves from Strange Literature ; And, Fantastics and Other Fancies Lafcadio Hearn,1922
