Black World/Negro Digest ,1976-01 Founded in 1943 Negro Digest later Black World was the publication that launched Johnson Publishing During the most turbulent years of the civil rights movement Negro Digest Black World served as a critical vehicle for political thought for supporters of the movement Encyclopedia of African-American Literature Wilfred D. Samuels,2015-04-22 Presents a reference on African American literature providing profiles of notable and little known writers and their works literary forms and genres critics and scholars themes and terminology and more Gothic to Multicultural A. Robert Lee,2009 Gothic to Multicultural Idioms of Imagining in American Literary Fiction twenty three essays each carefully revised from the past four decades explores both range and individual register The collection opens with considerations of gothic as light and dark in Charles Brockden Brown war and peace in Cooper s The Spy Antarctica as world genesis in Poe s The Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pym the link of The Custom House and main text in Hawthorne s The Scarlet Letter reflexive codings in Melville s Moby Dick and The Confidence Man Henry James Hawthorne as self mirroring biography and Stephen Crane s working of his Civil War episode in The Red Badge of Courage Two composite lineages address apocalypse in African American fiction and landscape in women s authorship from Sarah Orne Jewett to Leslie Marmon Silko There follow culture and anarchy in Henry James The Princess Casamassima text into film in Edith Wharton s The Age of Innocence modernist stylings in Fitzgerald Faulkner and Hemingway and roman noir in Cornell Woolrich The collection then turns to the limitations of protest categorization for Richard Wright and Chester Himes autofiction in J D Salinger s The Catcher in the Rye and the novel of ideas in Robert Penn Warren s late fiction Three closing essays take up multicultural genealogy Harlem then the Black South in African American fiction and the reclamation of voice in Native American fiction A Robert Lee is Professor of American Literature at Nihon University Tokyo having previously taught at the University of Kent UK His publications include Designs of Blackness Mappings in the Literature and Culture of Afro America 1998 Multicultural American Fiction Comparative Black Native Latino a and Asian American Fictions 2003 which won the American Book Award for 2004 Japan Textures Sight and Word with Mark Gresham 2007 and United States Re viewing Multicultural American Literature 2008 The City in African-American Literature Yoshinobu Hakutani,Robert Butler,1995 More recent African American literature has also been noteworthy for its largely affirmative vision of urban life Amiri Baraka s 1981 essay Black Literature and the Afro American Nation The Urban Voice argues that from the Harlem Renaissance onward African American literature has been urban shaped producing a uniquely black urban consciousness And Toni Morrison although stressing that the American city in general has often induced a sense of alienation in many African American writers nevertheless adds that modern African American literature is suffused with an affection for the village within the city The Blacker the Ink Frances Gateward,John Jennings,2015-07-16 When many think of comic books

the first thing that comes to mind are caped crusaders and spandex wearing super heroes Perhaps inevitably these images are of white men and more rarely women It was not until the 1970s that African American superheroes such as Luke Cage Blade and others emerged But as this exciting new collection reveals these superhero comics are only one small component in a wealth of representations of black characters within comic strips comic books and graphic novels over the past century The Blacker the Ink is the first book to explore not only the diverse range of black characters in comics but also the multitude of ways that black artists writers and publishers have made a mark on the industry Organized thematically into panels in tribute to sequential art published in the funny pages of newspapers the fifteen original essays take us on a journey that reaches from the African American newspaper comics of the 1930s to the Francophone graphic novels of the 2000s Even as it demonstrates the wide spectrum of images of African Americans in comics and sequential art the collection also identifies common character types and themes running through everything from the strip The Boondocks to the graphic novel Nat Turner Though it does not shy away from examining the legacy of racial stereotypes in comics and racial biases in the industry The Blacker the Ink also offers inspiring stories of trailblazing African American artists and writers Whether you are a diehard comic book fan or a casual reader of the funny pages these essays will give you a new appreciation for how black characters and creators have brought a vibrant splash of color to the world of comics

Drew, 2006-11-30 Here s a one stop resource containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with complete lists of their works Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years this guide stresses African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers and Octavia Butler and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley and Omar Tyree with a few classic literary giants also included Short profiles provide an overview of the author s life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author s published works Where can you find information about popular contemporary African American authors Web sites can be difficult to locate and unreliable particularly for some of the newer authors and their contents are inconsistent and often inaccurate Although there are a number of reference works on African American writers the emphasis tends to be on historical and literary authors Here s a single volume containing 100 profiles of your favorite contemporary African American writers along with lists of their works Short profiles provide an overview of the author s life and summarize his or her writing accomplishments Many are accompanied by black and white photos of the author The biographies are followed by a complete list of the author s published works Focusing on writers who have made their mark in the past 25 years this guide covers African American writers of popular and genre literature from Rochelle Alers Octavia Butler and Samuel Delaney to Walter Mosley Omar Tyree and Zane A few classic literary giants who are popular with today s readers are also included e g Maya Angelou Toni Morrison and Richard Wright Readers who want to know more about their favorite African American authors or find other books written by those authors students researching AA authors for reports and papers and educators seeking background information for classes in African American literature will find this guide invaluable High school and up The Black American Short Story in the 20th Century Peter Bruck, 1977-01-01 This volume is a collection of essays on black short stories written between 1998 and 1976 It aims to say something about the black short story as a genre and the development of the racial situation in America as well The primary aim is to introduce the reader to this long neglected genre of black fiction In contrast to the black novel the short story has hardly been given extensive criticism let alone serious attention The individual essays of this collection aim at presenting new points of critical orientation in the hope of reviving and fostering further discussions They provide a variety of approaches and a great diversity of critical points of view Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora, Amber Vogel, 1980-09-01 Biographical sketches of 378 writers associated with the American South are included in this important new reference work Compiled by 172 scholars these summaries many of which are not readily available elsewhere provide in their total effect a brief history of southern literature from colonial times to the present The volume is in part a companion to A Bibliographical Guide to the Study of Southern Literature Louis D Rubin Jr ed a work that has become a standard reference for anyone seriously interested in the literature of the South With its wealth of essential biographical information on the region's writers both major and minor this new guide will take its place alongside that earlier volume as an invaluable aid to the study of southern writing Especially useful will be complete listings of the first printings of the books by each writer provided after the respective summaries Included as contributors of the individual biographical summaries are most of the better known scholars of southern literature plus a number of promising young scholars The editors each of whom is an outstanding scholar in southern literary studies are

Imagining Apocalypse NA

NA,2016-04-30 This volume brings together essays by specialists in different disciplines on the cultural expression of apocalypse in particular in anglophone science fiction of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Approaching these works from historical philosophical linguistic and literary perspectives the contributors examine the relationship between secular and spiritual apocalypse connecting the fiction and films to their historical moment Not surprisingly war recurs throughout this material as a critical turning point fulfilment of prophecy or prelude to a new age In particular the essays explore the issue of whether modern apocalypse is seen as an ending or a beginning considered under its political ethnic and gendered aspects Among the writers covered are H G Wells Olaf Stapledon and such contemporary figures as Michael Moorcock J G Ballard and Storm Constantine

Re-Membering and Surviving

Shirley A. James Hanshaw,2020-10-01 The first book length critical study of the black experience in the Vietnam War and its aftermath this text interrogates the meaning of heroism based on models from African and African American expressive culture It focuses on four novels Captain Blackman 1972 by John A Williams Tragic Magic 1978 by Wesley Brown Coming Home 1971 by George Davis and De Mojo Blues 1985 by A R Flowers Discussions of the novels are framed within the historical context of all wars prior to Vietnam in which Black Americans fought The success or failure of the hero on his identity quest is predicated upon the extent to which he can reconnect with African or African American cultural memory He is engaged therefore in re-membering a term laden with the specificity of race that implies a cultural history comprised of African retentions and an interdependent relationship with the community for survival The reader will find that a common history of racism and exploitation that African Americans and Vietnamese share sometimes results in the hero's empathy with and compassion for the so called enemy a unique contribution of the black novelist to American war literature

Critical Black Futures

Philip Butler,2021-03-30 Critical Black Futures imagines worlds afrofutures cities bodies art and eras that are simultaneously distant parallel present counter and perpetually materializing From an exploration of W E B Du Bois own afrofuturistic short stories to trans super fluid blackness this volume challenges readers community leaders academics communities and creatives to push further into surreal imaginations Beyond what some might question as the absurd this book is presented as a speculative space that looks deeply into the foundations of human belief Diving deep into this notional rabbit hole each contributor offers a thorough excursion into the imagination to discover what was while also providing tools to push further into the not yet In Search of the Utopian States of America Verena Adamik, 2020-12-01 This book endeavours to understand the seemingly direct link between utopianism and the USA discussing novels that have never been brought together in this combination before even though they all revolve around intentional communities Imlay's The Emigrants 1793 Hawthorne's The Blithedale Romance 1852 Howland's Papas Own Girl 1874 Griggs's Imperium in Imperio 1899 and Du Bois's The Quest of the Silver Fleece 1911 They relate nation and utopia not by describing perfect societies but by writing about attempts to immediately live radically different lives Signposting the respective communal history the readings provide a literary perspective to communal studies and add to a deeply necessary historicization for strictly literary approaches to US utopianism and for studies that focus on Pilgrims Puritans Founding Fathers as utopian practitioners This book therefore highlights how the authors evaluated the USA's utopian potential and traces the nineteenth century development of the utopian imagination from various perspectives The Continuum Encyclopedia of American Literature Steven R. Serafin, Alfred Bendixen, 2005-09-01 More than ten years in the making this comprehensive single volume literary survey is for the student scholar and general reader The Continuum Encyclopedia of American Literature represents a collaborative effort involving 300 contributors from across the US and Canada Composed of more than 1 100 signed biographical critical entries this Encyclopedia serves as both guide and companion to the study and appreciation of American literature A special feature is the topical article of which there are 70 Writer's Directory Saint Martins Press Inc, 1994 Beloved Harlem William H. Banks, Jr., 2010-07-07 A passionate ode to an American mecca Beloved Harlem is a literary look into the vibrant African American haven edited by one of its celebrated native sons William H Banks Jr combines the classics with the contemporary as he showcases some of the best essays short stories and novel excerpts inspired by the diversity of Harlem life from the early twentieth century to the new millennium The days and nights of black Manhattan come alive in the words of historically famous writers like W E B Dubois Zora Neale Hurston Langston Hughes Dorothy West Ossie Davis and Toni Morrison along with the works of brilliant newcomers to the neighborhood including Brian Keith Jackson's witty examination of identity politics in The Queen of Harlem and Rosemarie Robatham's Dreaming in Harlem a moving tale about a woman at the edge of society who finds sanctuary with a stranger From renaissance through tough times to revitalization this triumphant homage gives Harlem the historical perspective it so rightly deserves Beloved Harlem is a welcome addition to the libraries of readers who are either already in love with Harlem or ready to take the fall
