Sonya's Mommy Works Arlene Alda,1982 With her mother working a little girl has many adjustments to make not all of which are easy The Book Review Digest ,2006 Mother-Texts Julie Kelso,Marie Porter,2010-07-12 Every day human beings tell and are told stories sometimes in obvious ways sometimes not Most of our communication with each other direct or indirect involves narrative production and reception Narrative is constitutive of human being However whose narratives are heard Feminists argue that the relations between language knowledge gender and power particularly the question as to whether man made and controlled language is a material fit to receive and convey woman s stories are critical issues because historically patriarchy has worked to silence women s dialogue Male knowledge unsurprisingly created and continues to create unrepresentative maternal narratives which lead to unreal expectations of mothers and motherwork It is therefore disconcertingly significant for mothers that neither mothers nor their motherwork have been considered worthy of historical record nor are historical records usually written from a mother s perspective Hence the narrative research in this book which gives recognition to motherhood mothers and or the work they do is valuable It adds to the rapidly accumulating maternal research research that is now available for the historical record Mothers are speaking up developing a canon of literature research narrated in maternal language and claiming maternal knowledge and power American Book Publishing

Murder and Masculinity Rebecca E. Biron, 2000 Rebecca Biron breaks new ground in this study of masculinity violence and the strategic construction of collective political identities in twentieth century Latin American fiction By engaging current sociological psychoanalytic and feminist theories Murder and Masculinity analyzes the cliché of proving virility through violence against women Biron develops her argument through close readings of five works Jorge Luis Borges's La intrusa Armonia Somer's El despojo Clarice Lispector's A Maca no Escuro Manuel Puig's The Buenos Aires Affair and Reinaldo Arenas's El Asalto Although men murdering women is often interpreted as nothing more than machista misogyny Biron argues that the five narratives addressed in this book show that healed masculinities are essential to the achievement of cultural identity and political autonomy in Latin America The introduction to this study deftly situates Biron's work in relation to previous theoretical arguments on the social and political dimensions of Latin American writing The five subsequent chapters offer superb analyses of the individual texts Like their male protagonists who experiment with the psychological and legal extremes of gender division these narratives risk nonconformity to the laws of genre in their quest for liberation from violent social and literary conventions In combining elements of detective stories crime narratives psychological case studies and magical or grotesque realism they offer metafictional commentary on a network of discourses that confuses images of masculinity national identity and political autonomy in postcolonial Latin America
